ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION: 1983

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluate each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

Mayor Hurley, a well-known United Methodist, again Greetings: expressed appreciation for the opportunity of welcoming the Conference to the city. He alluded to the impending retirement of Dr. Richard Pearce, president of Methodist College, and expressed gratitude for the leadership that he has brought, not only to the college, but also to the community at large. Mayor Hurley gave a brief rundown of what had happened within the City of Fayetteville with regard to other conventions and the changes in the city which made it an even better place to live and work and enjoy life in a godly manner. He joined in asking God's blessings upon the Conference.

Introduction: Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation for Mayor Hurley's remarks and joined the Mayor in expressing gratitude to Dr. Pearce for his service and for the entertainment and hospitality that had been offered to the Annual Conference so many years. He then presented Dr. Pearce for greetings from Methodist College.

Welcome: Dr. Pearce brought words of welcome on behalf of the trustees and staff of the college and again paid tribute to Bill Lowdermilk for his long and sincere work in making the Conference and prior Conferences a success. He also accorded praise to Mike Safley and Ray Gooch. He made remarks concerning the necessity for the saving of energy and the adjustment of the air conditioning system. He urged the fast and efficient use of the cafeteria and the use of the snack bar, particularly at lunch. Pearce made other announcements regarding housing, meal tickets, priority service for the tellers at this conference and various other items. He asked the understanding of the Conference for any omissions in preparation and the indulgence of the Conference for the minor problems that might occur during the Conference. Pearce's remarks were interspersed with laughter and applause.

Introduction: Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation to the Rocky Mount District for being host to the Conference this year. He alluded to the efficiency of the work already done by the people from the Rocky Mount District and their help. He recognized Jack L. Hunter to bring greetings on behalf of the host district.

Greetings: Jack L. Hunter expressed appreciation for the hard work of those of the district and a sense of priviledge for having the opportunity to have this sort of participation in the Annual Conference.

Organization of the Conference: Bishop Cannon called for the Organization of the Conterence. Dishop Catalon Castal Wilson Conference Secretary, Ted Wilson, to present certain motions. Wilson requested that the items of organization be voted upon as a body. The following motions were read:

I move that the rules of the conference be those rules printed on pages 4 - 8 of the 1982 Journal I move that the registration cards signed at the registration tables by the lay and clerical members of the Conference be designated and declared the official roll of the Conference.

I move that the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium be the Bar of the Conference

I move that the program as contained in the Conference Program and Book of Recommendations 1983 (as amended by the Bishop) be designated and declared the Official Program of the Conference.

I move that those persons appearing on the program of the Conference be granted the priviledge of the floor. Some of those on the program are not members of the conference and this motion will enable them to speak without specific motion for each individual.

Wilson's motion was seconded.

Amendment: James Coile moved two amendments to the motions by Secretary Wilson.

Coile moved that in Section III, we add paragraph 8 and 9 to read, (8) the names of persons receiving less than ten votes shall not be reported to the Conference; (9) Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.

It was seconded and adopted.

Coile moved, that Section V, No. 2, shall read,..."shall be distributed no later than the third night of the Annual Conference. None can be considered later than the fourth night of the Conference." It was seconded and adopted.

The last comment concerned the method of counting standing votes. The Rules of the Conference were then adopted unanimously.

Procedures for Balloting for Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference for 1984: Bishop Cannon called upon Secretary Wilson to bring Conference for 1984: Bishop Cannon called upon Secretary Wilson to bring instructions. Wilson requested the cooperation of the Conference. Only those with Ballot Books and those wearing black or blue badges would be allowed to vote. There would be one ballot per person accepted. The ballots would be accepted only within the bar of the Conference and while the voter is seated. He gave instructions concerning obtaining a duplicate ballot for those accidentally defaced by coming to the Secretary's desk. Wilson emphasized using the proper number of the ballot to be taken. He also requested that the names be written legibly and that the full name be used. Bishop Cannon interjected that the common name by which an individual was called suffice and there would not be any technicalities called against this. The Bishop asked that we take into account both competence and inclusiveness in voting for delegates. He announced this was a Roman ballot and there would be no nominations from the floor. Bishop Cannon asked a retired minister, Bill Seawell, to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit before the first ballot was taken.

Prayer: Bill Seawell prayed with great fervor and deep sincerity.

First Lay Ballot: Bishop Cannon gave instructions that the first Lay Ballot be taken and that ten names and ten names only were to be written.

First Clerical Ballot: The first Clerical Ballot was taken and the Bishop asked that only ten names be written upon that.

Composite Report of the District Superintendents: Bishop Cannon presented Barney Davidson, President of the Cabinet, who presented the report of all the District Superintendents. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.) The report was received with applause and special appreciation was given for the visual aspects fo the report.

Point of Personal Privilege: Silent prayer was called for by Bishop Cannon for Jerry Jackson of the New Bern District in the sudden death of nis father. It was ordered that the Conference Secretary send appropriate expressions from the Conference.

Report of the Conference Lay Leader: Bishop Cannon called upor Richard Pearce for the report. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation for the report of Richard Pearce and reminded the Conference that Pearce was Lay Leader for the entire Southeastern Jurisdiction. The report and comments were accepted with applause.

Report of United Methodist Women: Bishop Cannon presented Mrs. T. Marvin Vick, Jr., President of United Methodist Women of the North Carolina Conference, to make the report. Mrs. Vick described the Annual Meeting of United Methodist Women with its more than 575 participants. Specific aspects of the work of women in mission were described. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Cannon recognized James Lee of Saint Luke's United Methodist Church in Laurinburg. Lee referred to the audio-visual presentation in the District Superintendent's Composite Report. He explained the nature of the small room built by his church people which had evoked some laughter by the Conference. He explained they had a large sanctuary for themselves. A room had been added to a home for a handicapped family that to them would be the same as a sanctuary. Bishop Cannon thanked him for his comments and also expressed appreciation for Mrs. Vick's report and the marvelous work of the women in raising more than $396,000 for the outreach ministries of our Church.

Call for Order of the Day: Bishop Cannon called for the Order of the Day and the report of the Board of Pensions and the recognition of the ministers who are retiring.

Report of the Board of Pensions: Bishop Cannon presented Norwood Jones to bring the report. Copies of the report had been distributed and Jones called for all who had not received a copy of the 1983 Report to hold up their hands and receive a copy. He also called attention to the final report of the Pension Funding Crusade which was prepared by Wallace H. Kirby. Jones called on W. W. Sherman to present the first part of the report. Sherman requested an examination of the report as distributed. Report A was presented and Sherman called upon Wallace Kirby to speak to the Pension Funding Crusade. Kirby congratulated the Conference on a task well done. Report A 4 was moved and adopted by the Conference. Sherman read the names of ministers retiring this year and asked that they come to the stage and bring with them their wives, if they were in attendance. Sections 8 and 9 of the report were moved and adopted. Each retiring clergyperson was given an opportunity to speak, and spouses were presented orohid corsages as certificates of service were presented to each of the retiring minister. All of the ministers were accorded a round of applause and invited to be guest of the Board of Pensions at a special luncheon following the session. Section 10 and 11 and the entire report of the Board of Pension was adopted. Sherman also presented pages 66 and 67 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1983, Board of Pension Report. He noted that the recommended rate for 1983-84 would be $164.00 per service year compared with the $87.00 per service year rate of five years ago. Both reports were adopted in full. Section II on page 68-69 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1983 was moved and adopted.

Question: Jack Crum inquired as to whether ministers earning higher salaries throughout their ministries would received higher benefits. The Bishop rules Crum out of order and Crum responded that he felt that all pensions should be the same. Bishop Cannon again ruled Crum out of order and told him he could discuss this with the Board of Pensions and bring it up at a later time.

Section II was adopted. Section III, IV and V were moved and adopted. Section VI and Report C on pages 71 and 72 were presented as information. Norwood Jones presented Report D in answer to a request of the 1982 Annual Conference regarding severance pay. Jones presented the plan and moved adoption. Bishop Cannon noted that there were some people to be recognized to speak and that the time of ajournment was at hand. Bishop Cannon called for announcements.

Announcements: Conference Secretary, Ted Wilson, made the announcements and gave the benediction.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION - Monday, June 6, 1983

Following the playing of the prelude, "Two Preludes on Hymn Tunes: 'Pisgah/Diadem'," by Kerrick/Bish, by organist Roger Searles of Goldsboro, Bishop Cannon called the afternoon session of the Annual Conference to order with the singing of Hymn 248, "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus." The Bishop called upon Jack Fogleman to lead in the opening prayer. Bishop Cannon then requested a return to the report of the Board of Pensions.

Resumption of Board of Pensions Report: Norwood Jones reported again on Report D, "Severance Pay Recommendations," on page 73 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983.

Motion: James Coile moved that the Conference "recommit the report to the Board of Pensions for further study." It was seconded and Coile spoke to his motion, stating that the wording of the recommendation is such that it would only apply to a very few people. He also challenged its Disoiplinary viability and proposed that it might well be found in violation of Church law. Jones responded. The Bishop called for a vote and the Coile motion passed and Report D. was recommitted.

Motion: David Harvin moved that "severance pay shall be based on the pastor's salary at the time of separation from the Conference. It shall consist of six months continued salary." The motion was lost.

Section D was adopted in principle.

Motion: Jack Crum made the following motion: "In order to enhance the brotherhood of our Conference I move that the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions, working with the General Board of Pensions, revise our pension program, if possible and as soon as possible, so that all ministers receiving pensions under the new plan will receive an equal pension for an equal number of service years." The motion lost and the Bishop stated that the entire plan would have to be reconsidered and it has already been considered by the entire Conference. Crum appealed to the Judicial Council. The Bishop ruled him out of order and the matter was ended.

Jones moved the entire report of the Board of Pensions as amended and it was adopted by the Conference. Bishop Cannon gave Norwood Jones as accolade for his work in this matter and the Conference responded with thanksgiving for his fine work.

Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Cannon presented Randolph Few to bring the report. He moved the adoption of Section II, pages 59-60 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983.

Motion: Jerry Jay Juren moved "to amend the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration in The Conference Program and Recommendations, page 60, Section II, Item 1 (line 6) to read, '$3,600 travel' where it now says $2,400." Few responded that any amount of travel could be adopted by a local church. Juren stated that, unfortunately, the $2,400 figure seemed to be a suggestion for the local church. A count vote was called for. The vote ended in a tie. Charles M. Smith tried to clarify the issue, because he felt that many of the laity did not understand the issue. Few responded. Reginald Ponder asked for the floor to speak. He moved that the matter be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration for a report back to this Conference. The motion was ruled out of order on the grounds that a tie vote indicated that a motion was automatically lost.

Motion: Rufus Stark moved "that the CFA study the feasibility of raising the travel deduction for local church pastors and report back to Annual Conference next year." The motion was seconded. Raymond Wittmen of the New Hope-Woodland Charge spoke against the Stark motion. The proposal to study was referred by the Conference.

Motion: Wallace Kirby moved the addition of an Item 10 to Section II of the CFA report to read, "Out of the Contingency and Reserve Fund, CFA consider an annual appropriation to meet human need, similar to the appropriations made in 1982 and 1983, and administered by the Conference Council on Ministries." Few accepted it for CFA.

Motion: Ray Sparrow to add the following on page 60, under II (1): "that there be a deduction made for each church of $2,000 from the base figure as computed above before applying the percentage calculation necessary to arrive at the apportionments necessary to raise the proposed budget for 1984 and all future years." It was seconded and he spoke to his motion. Charles McAdams was asked to respond. Sparrow disagreed. McAdams stated that he was not debating. Ponder asked whether this was church or charge as part of the motion. The answer was, "church." The Sparrow motion failed.

Section II on page 60 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983, CFA Report was adopted. Sections III and IV on page 61 were moved and adopted.

Report of United Methodist Men: Bishop Cannon called on Dr. Allen Norris, Jr., to give the report. He spoke of the increased strength of the organization and a most successful year. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Report of the First Clerical Ballot: Bishop Cannon read the results of the first Clerical Ballot. Joseph B. Bethea was elected on the first ballot. The Bishop read other results of the ballot and then called upon Nicholas Grant to offer prayer before the taking of the second Clerical Ballot. After his prayer the second Clerical Ballot was ordered.

Second Clerical Ballot: The second Clerical Ballot was taken.

Report of United Methodist Youth: Bishop Cannon introduced Becky Auman who gave the report. Among other outstanding accomplishments the Youth Service Fund was the third largest in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.) Becky Auman expressed particular appreciation to Mike Safley, Bishop Cannon, and all clergy and laypersons who devoted unstintingly of their time to youth work. The report was greeted with applause and accepted with appreciation.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Bishop Cannon called upon D.D. Traynham to bring the report. Traynham referred the Conference to the report on page 61 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983, and indicated that there would be some changes in the JOURNAL because of updates since the publication of this material. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Result of the First Lay Ballot: Allen Norris was elected on the first ballot.

Second Lay Ballot: The second Lay Ballot for nine names was taken following prayer by D. D. Traynham.

Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: Bishop Cannon called upon Richard Williams to present the report, Williams spoke briefly and alluded to material already distributed. He moved the adoption of the report. It was adopted. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V. and the Condensed Minutes.) The consecration of Diaconal Ministers will take place on Wednesday night of the Conference.

Report of the General Council on Ministries: J. Allen Norris, Jr., brought the report for information. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Report of The Southeastern Jurisdictional Council on Ministries: Brooks Little presented the report. He brought greetings from the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council office and specifically from Ross Freeman. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Report of the Lake Junaluska Assembly: Bishop Cannon asked Dr. Mel Harbin to bring the report. Harbin spoke to the record attendance and usage of Lake Junaluska and to the capital improvements and renovation taking place on the grounds. He encouraged the continued support of all conferences to aid this assembly ground of Methodism. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Ernest R. Porter was introduced to provide direction on the overall report. Porter asked the Board of Evangelism report come first. He called upon Sid Huggins and Charles Bryant to present this information and make certain presentations.

Huggins called upon the Conference to rejoice in the largest net growth in membership in the Conference in the last ten years. He requested the right to present framed certificates of recognition to the churches that had the largest number received on Profession of Faith, the largest net growth and the best ratio of gain in the Conference. Huggins called on Charles Bryant to assist, since he had prepared the statistics and the certificates. When the ministers of the honored churches had come forward and received their certificates, the Conference accorded a round of applause for these marvelous accomplishments in evangelism. Bishop Cannon added that this was indeed the work of the Kingdom and, perhaps, the most important time we had spent here at Conference so far. He offered prayer as those who had received the certificates departed the stage. The Bishop asked the District Superintendents of the districts which had net gains in membership to stand and be recognized. Following is the list of recipients of the certificates:

Highest Gain in Profession of Faith

Burlington Front Street Mount Sylvan Durham Elizabeth City First Fayetteville Campground Greenville St. James - Westwood Ebenezer Goldsboro New Bern Trinity Raleigh - White Plains Rockingham Prospect Rocky Mount Winstead Sanford Jonesboro Wilmington Wesley Memorial

Highest Gain in Members Per Capita

Burlington Amity Durham Parkwood Elizabeth City
Fayetteville Outer Banks - Hope Mills Greenville - Holy Trinity Goldsboro - Westwood Ebenezer New Bern - Riverside Raleigh - North Raleigh Rockingham - Cordova Saint Paul Rocky Mount Sanford Southern Pines Wilmington - Hampstead

Highest Net Gain

Burlington - Cobb Circuit - Epworth Elizabeth City - Outer Banks Fayetteville - Haymount Greenville - Jarvis Memorial Goldsboro _ Centenary New Bern Trinity St. Francis St. Luke Raleigh Rockingham Rocky Mount - Englewood Sanford Jonesboro Wilmington Wesley Memorial

The District with the largest per capita per cent of increase is New Bern.

The District with the largest net gain in Profession of Faith is Raleigh.

Approved Evangelists: Tommy Tyson, John Hobbs and John E. Williams were asked to come to the stage and their reappointment as Conference Evangelist was moved. Bishop Cannon noted that Tommy Tyson had received the Philip Award in Evangelism, which was a national award and was of great significance as it brought honor, not only upon evangelism itself, but also upon our Conference.

Motion: Michael Hale moved "that beginning with the 1984 Annual Conference and thereafter the Conference Statistician and the Board of Evangelism recognize those churches with the highest per capita gain in profession of faith rather than those churches with the largest net gain." It was seconded. Langill Watson spoke to it and said that he felt that the idea was without merit. The Bishop stated that since that had already been taken care of in the awards, it was redundant and he ruled the motion out of order.

Motion: Francis Daniel moved that "the Board of Evangelism consider every church on its own merit as far as membership is concerned." Sid Huggins spoke against it. The motion was seconded and passed, so churches will be considered individually rather than on a charge basis.

Ernest Porter turned to the overall agency reports to the Annual Conference and to the booklet that had been passed to the membership of the Conference for information and the general report. Porter introduced each member of the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries. Each was accorded a round of applause. Porter spoke of James McCallum's illness and showed a plague that would presented to him later in the hospital. He remarked how McCallum dearly wished he could have been here. Bill Sherman was recognized by Porter and was presented a plaque for his five years of distinguished service on the Council. Porter referred to the brochure on the Telecommunications Ministry which had been handed to each member of the Conference and asked for their reaction. He emphasized that this needed to be before June 15th, as it would be added to the reactions of other Conferences and presented to the General Conference. Porter directed the attention of the Conference to The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983, pages 13-14, Sections I, II and III, and moved their adoption. It was seconded.

Motion: Paul T. Stallsworth moved that the words, "in which various points of view will be well represented, "be added to Section I, A, 1, on page 13. It was accepted and the items as amended were approved.

Porter moved Section IV, A, B, C and D for adoption. Miscellaneous questions were asked and answered. Section IV was adopted. Section V, regarding items for district consideration, was presented.

Robert Pullman spoke to V, D, 3 on page 21 and stated that it should be "district superintendent" rather than "district." The Council accepted his suggestion.

Section VI was moved, seconded and adopted as amended.

Section VII, Policy Statements, was moved, seconded and adopted.

Porter then turned to Charter changes which had to be approved by the Annual Conference and made editorial changes in the Membership section on pages 32 and 37.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Motion: James Coile moved the following: "At the end of the paragraph on Membership (page 32) add the following: 'To insure Ethnic Minority voting membership, the Council on Ministries shall elect Native American and Black persons to serve as at large members of the Council, if there are no Native American or no Black voting members on the Council."

The motion was seconded and adopted.

Motion: Rufus Stark made the following motion: "In the Charter (pages 36-37) at the end of the paragraphs beginning, 'Membership shall be composed of, 'under each age level Council (Children, Youth, Adult and Family), a Third Clerical Ballot: The third Clerical Ballot for six names was taken after Joseph F. Coble led in prayer.

Report of the Board of Education: Belton Joyner gave the report. He spoke words of concern about the erosion of the property at Camp Don Lee, particularly the beach area. He spoke also of the success of Camp Rockfish and Camp Chestnut Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reed of Camp Chestnut Ridge were presented to the Conference and it was announced that a portion of the wilderness area there would be named for them. Their years of service were acknowledged with a round of applause by the Conference. Robert Reed was given a plaque for meritorious service. He responded with words of appreciation to the Conference assembled. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Archives and History: Lawrence Lugar brought the report. He called the attention of the Conference to the Workbook on Archives and History for the Local Church which had been prepared and distributed. He also challenged the Conference to look at the North Carolina map of historical Methodist sites in the North Carolina Conference which is a part of the Bicentennial Celebration, and was given to each Conference participant earlier. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Task Force on Hunger: Robert Mangum brought the report. He alluded to the handout indicating how the $50,000 allocated to the alleviation of hunger from our Conference had been expended.(For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Resolutions and References: Bishop Cannon reviewed the various resolutions that had been submitted to be forwarded to the Committee on Resolutions and References through the Rules Committee. Having been found in order and so directed by the Conference, they were enumerated and forwarded to be reported later.

Announcements: Bishop Cannon called on Secretary Ted Wilson for announcements.

Announcement: Ernest R. Porter brought to the attention of the Conference the fact that they were looking for an Associate Director of Communications for the North Carolina Conference and stated that he had job descriptions available.

Adjournment: The session was adjourned.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION, Monday, June 6, 1983

Following a Hymn Sing from 7:45-8:00 p.m., Bishop Cannon called the session to order for the reading of ballots.

The report of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries was adopted.

Motion: Ann Collins made the following motion: "I move that at least nine acres of the remainder of the property owned by the Methodist Home for Children (encompassing the Vann Building and the cafeteria) at 1001 Glenwood Avenue in Raleigh be deeded to the North Carolina Annual Conference for the purposes determined by the Annual Conference including the possibility of a retirement home and a Conference Center -- the details to be negotiated by Conference Trustees, Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, and the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries." It was seconded. Elliott spoke to the issue of a Conference Center, and, perhaps, a retirement center, but indicated that the needs of the children also need to be met. He expressed concern that the property involved was worth nearly two million dollars, which could be used in the future care of children. Raymond Talton of Fairmont Church, Raleigh, spoke in favor of the Collins motion because of the need for an additional home for the elderly on this particularly property. Stanley C. Harrell, representing the Board of Trustees of the Home for Children, stated that this had already been deliberated at length in many, many meetings. He emphasized this should not be a debate between the care of children and the elderly or a matter of priorities. The business matter is that the property has been that of the Home for Children and the funds are needed for Children's Home ministries. He emphasized that this represented the only remaining asset of the Home for Children and that would produce capital for development in the future. Ernest Potter spoke for the Collins motion, emphasizing the need for an immediate study.

Substitute Motion: Kermit Braswell brought as a substitute to the Collins motion the following: "I move that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees be empowered to negotiate with the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to acquire this property making up 8.49 acres including the Monk Chapel, the Administration Building and the cafeteria." The Bishop gave the direction to the Conference.

James Coile spoke expressing a quandry that he felt to determine whether he might be able to make some addition to the substitute. Dr. Fred Brooks spoke against the Braswell substitute motion and for the Collins motion.

Amendment: Charles Mercer proposed the following amendement: "and that the Conference Trustees report their recommendations to the next session of the Annual Conference for action." It was accepted by Braswell.

Harold Leatherman asked a question regarding whether the motion involved extra acreage apart from that which had already been reserved.

The Bishop inquired as to how the land would be disposed of and it was stated that lots 22 and 32 were to be included in the Braswell motion and that there was no conflict.

Worth Lineberger questioned the motion. He spoke in favor of a study which would be reported on in a special session of Annual Conference called to hear it. James Coile felt that the Braswell substitute to the Collins motion would take care of having the Annual Conference discuss the matter before consummation. Langill Watson moved the previous question. It was ordered. The Bishop ordered that the Rules of the Conference did not apply on this vote. The Braswell substitute carried and therefore became the main motion. The motion was adopted.

Bishop Cannon remarked on a called meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Home for Children and how a similar resolution to the one the Conference just passed was defeated by their Board of Trustees by only three votes.

Arnold Heafner spoke against the paper. A vote was taken and the position paper was defeated.

The Resolution on Public Utility Rates paper was moved and seconded. A delegate spoke against this on the grounds that this was not a proper issue for Church and Society and it did not concern Christian Social Concerns. Martha Capps of Riverside Church, Elizabeth City, spoke in favor of the paper. Another delegate spoke against the paper. James Coile spoke for the paper.

Amendment: Robert B. Brainard, St. Marks Church, Raleigh, offered the following amendment: "Delete from page 45 (third and fourth 'Whereas' paragraphs) from 'Whereas public electric companies' to 'Whereas the use of fuel surcharge. . .' ending with 'increased electric company efficiency . . ' . . Resolution resumes at 'therefore be it resolved...'" The paragraphs were deleted.

James C.P. Brown, who is stepping down as president, called on Sam Brown for the report of the Committee on Nominations and Personnel. He reported that the vice president, J. Donald Phillips, would move up to president and that Murray DeHart was nominated as vice president. As there were no nominations from the floor, these were unanimously elected.

David Grissom and Robert Bundy were elected to the Board of Directors for the Class of 1989. James C.P. Brown recognized the new president, Donald Phillips, to come to the stage to preside. Brown was given a round of applause in appreciation of his two years of service. The meeting was adjourned.

Pensions. Sherman expressed his appreciation and the Conference accorded him a round of applause. This ended the report.

The Methodist Foundation: Sid Gulledge gave the report of the Methodist Foundation. Gulledge referred the Conference to the pamphlet concerning the Foundation which had been distributed throughout the Conference and urged their consideration of this pamplet in furthering understanding of the work of the Foundation. Gulledge gave figures concerning the return on investment and the establishment of an Office of Planned Giving with John K. Bergland as the first Executive Director of Planned Giving for the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.) A substitute motion was offered by Donald W. Fulford, but it failed and the Conference was back on the main motion.

A question was asked as to what is there about private schools -- they are so negative that it takes away from the public school system -- and why does this paper not address that specifically? The previous question was called. The resolution on Tuition and Tax Credits was adopted.

The Resolution on the Nuclear Arms Race, which was distributed with the registration packets, was a paper urging a negotiated freeze of the production and deployment of nuclear weapons at present levels and the seeking of significant mutual reductions of those present levels. The words, "mutually verifiable freeze," were added.

Amendement: Olin K. Beaty offered this amendment: "Be it resolved that the North Carolina Conference of the UMC urge the U.S. Government to negotiate with the Soviet Union a bi-lateral reduction of nuclear war heads to the lowest possible level." This was sustained by the Board of Church and Society and the Conference voted to sustain the acceptance.

Point of Order: James Coile stated that Committee in accepting that substitution, which substantially changed the meaning of the paper, had violated Roberts Rules of Order. Recommendation from Youth: The following recommendation from the youth was presented by Elizabeth Mitchell:

We feel that the youth are the future leaders of our Church and. The amount of youth participation at Annual Conference has been Because: lacking and.

Because:

This problem is primarlily due to the fact that many vouth involved in final exams and graduation at the time Annual Conference is in session,

We, the youth delegation present this week would like to ask for your consideration of the youth's position and we suggest Conference be held one week later than it has been previously, to insure greater youth participation and representation. Bishop Cannon, we realize that in every situation there are problems to be encountered; and that in this situation they do exist. Specifically - involving the ministers affected by the moving process. Our purpose in this recommendation is to ask you, the chair, to keep in mind the youth's position, as well as that of the laity and clergy. Thank You.

Ethnic Minority Local Church: The report was given by Jimmy Cummings. The report is found in Report #8 in the Agency Reports to Annual Conference 1983. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.) Cummings presented "A Resolution by the Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee of the North Carolina Annual Conference of "The United Methodist Church." The resolution was read to the Conference and will be printed in the Conference JOURNAL under resolutions.

Motions: Vernon Tyson moved to have the wording changed to read "a minority" person rather than "an ethnic person. James Coile moved that the words "or hired" be added in addition to the word "appointed" so that lay persons could be included. Both suggestions were accepted by the chairperson.

Tommy Smith, chairperson of the Personnel Committee for the Conference Council on Ministries, rose to make some comments regarding the strong belief that the Personnel Committee had no feelings of lack of inclusiveness. He stated that a number of people were employed who were not clergypersons. He expressed his appreciation for Coile's suggestion. Smith stated that he would continue to work toward the objective that this be done with or without the resolution.

Motion: A. D. Byrd, Jr., moved "that the words that appear in the last paragraph twice, 'no later than Annual Conference 1984, 'be deleted." Kelly Ingram spoke against the Byrd amendment. Dotsy Reynolds requested permission strongly to support the resolution. The Byrd amendment failed. The resolution passed, but the words "ethnic minority" remained in it.

Adolph Dial presented the resolution regarding the Native American churches. Dial spoke to the Native American Resolution and to the history of the Native American people. The resolution was moved, seconded, and adopted. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Point of Personal Privilege: Samuel Wynn, who is leaving for a special appointment this year for personal reasons, expressed his appreciation for the opportunity of working with this committee and for the actions taken here today.

Request: Bishop Cannon asked W.W. Sherman how many Native American pastors there were available for appointment in the Conference. Sherman replied that there were three and named them. One was leaving, one was recently ordained, and Simeon Cummings was one left with the possibility of being appointed. The Bishop spoke of the problems involved and spoke of the work that was done to try and exceed the requests of these brothers. Sherman was asked how many Black pastors there were available for appointment. The answer was, "Four." Bishop Cannon spoke with passion about what he had been requested and urged to do by the Conference and said he felt that his administration had been called into question. He stated that he was deeply hurt because he was not prejudiced and was trying to do the best he could. He was particularly hurt after this entire Conference of more than 212,000 members had endorsed as a favorite son an ethnic minority representing only a few thousand members of that particular race.

Motion: Kelly Ingram moved that the Bishop and the Cabinet continue discussion of these issues in the same good faith as they have in the past and continue to consider the idealistic intentions of the Conference and the ways in which we might get there in making more inclusive appointments.

Point of Order: Langill Watson stated that the motions "urged" and did not "mandate." The Bishop responded that in light of the speeches he felt it was mandated. Watson mentioned that a Native American served a White church in Durham District for four years but chose to go elsewhere. Bill Jeffries rose to a Point of Order. Sam Wood spoke an impassioned plea for the Native Americans.

Point of Order: Kelly Ingram asked for the resolution to be reconsidered.

Motion: Kelly Ingram made the following motion: "that we ask the Bishop and Cabinet to continue negotiating in the same good faith that has characterized those negotiations in the past looking toward the appointment of ethnic minority persons to the district superintendency and the staff of the CCOM."

Point of Order: Adolph Dial called for a Point of Order and said he did not understand Ingram's motion for reconsideration or the reason behing it and again encouraged the Bishop to act in good faith. The Bishop stated that he had always acted in good faith and would continue to do so. Bishop Cannon stated that he felt that order had been ignored when a small group had attempted to pressure appointments rather than seek to operate though the open itineracy system. The Bishop called upon Kelly Ingram to read his motion once again. He did so.

Bill Seawell then expounded on the Scriptures and led in prayer. The congregation sang from hymn to hymn and testimonies were given as the traditional bread and water were distributed to the participants. The Love Feast is a traditional service of Methodism and has continually been observed in the North Carolina Annual Conference over the many years of its existence.

For almost an hour the Love Feast continued with several dozen brothers and sisters testifying to their own faith and trust in God and to the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, giving thanks for the blessings that accrued to them in the year and years past. The testimonials were interspersed by songs sung spontaneously as those in the congregation were moved.

As the Conference Love Feast came to an end with the final testimonies, everyone felt a sense of togetherness and the wonder of this kind of expression this year as in the past. Bill Seawell closed the Love Feast by calling on everone to sing, "Everybody Ought to See Jesus in Me."

Conference Called to Order: Bishop Cannon called the Conference to order. He alluded to the Love Feast of the past hour and asked for the privilege of making his own personal testinony. This he did.

It was approved.

The Rockingham District presented a resolution on Pastoral Evaluation requesting new guidelines concerning more flexible functions of the evaluation. The motion was to refer to the Board of the Ministry with endorsement that it be carefully studied. It was moved and referred.

The report on Open Itineracy was received. No action was requested and therefore it was received for information. It was done.

The resolution on Utility Rates was encompassed within the report of the Board of Church and Society, and therefore it was recommended that it be withdrawn. The Conference so did.

The resolution concerning Donald Wildmon and the Federation of Decency was recommended for approval without further action. Rick Moser spoke against the motion. Quinton Covington spoke for the resolution.

Motion: James Coile moved the following amendment to the resolution: "insert the word 'and' between prayer-cooperation and delete the words "and financial assistance of $500.'" Spencer spoke for the amendment. The amendment was accepted by the Conference.

Previous Question Moved: The previous question was moved on all that was before us. The resolution as amended was approved.

The Committee felt that the Resolution on Abortion should be approved by the Conference but that the statement in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983 already made this clear enough. The Committee, therefore, did not concur with sending it to General Conference. Robert Brainerd spoke against any withdrawal of the motion. Several speeches were made approving or disapproving the withdrawal of the resolution. The vote was taken and the resolution was withdrawn.

Point of Personal Privilege: Charles Myers called for a point of personal privilege requesting that greetings be sent to the North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church in America which is meeting at the present time. It was done.

Conference Council on Communications: Thomas A. Collins brought the report and alluded to the brochure which had been distributed earlier. He stated that the Committee on Rules wanted to go on record as supporting the program, but felt that the funding request was too large. This was simply for a matter of record. It was adopted by the Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: Catharine Vick asked for permission to suspend the Conference Rules to resolve the conflict that arose Wednesday afternoon.

Motion: Catharine Vick made the following motion: "that the position of Assistant to the Cabinet for the Conference Year 1983-84 be established and filled by a Native American on a part time basis and that there be established a committee to be named by the Bishop for continuing dialogue between the Cabinet and the Native Americans." Rufus Stark spoke in favor of seeking solution through connective Open Itineracy appointment program. Adolph Dial spoke a work of appreciation, acceptance and reconciliation in regard to Mrs. Vick's proposal.

Call for the Question: The necessary two-thirds vote was received. The text was read. The motion carried.

Motion: Catharine Vick moved "that the NC Annual Conference of the UMC request and urgs the appointment of an ethnic person to the office of District Superintendent by the resident bishop and that this policy be maintained; and that ethnic persons be appointed to and employed by the Conference Council on Ministries on the professional support staff; and that a committee be appointed by the Bishop to monitor an assure ethnic minority inclusiveness in the Conference professional and support staff(s)." A.D. Byrd spoke in favor of the Vick motion. Tatum spoke to raise the issue of when the ethnic superintendent would be appointed on this basis. Kelly Ingram spoke in favor of the motion with an attempt to bring clarification.

Previous Question: The previous question was moved and seconded. The resolution lost.

Result of Twenty-fourth Clerical Ballot: Ernest R. Porter, Malloy Owen and Helen Crotwell were elected to the Jurisdictional Conference of 1984 and the clerical slate was completed.

Motion: Joseph B. Bethea moved "that the five highest vote-getters on ballot 24 be declared reserve delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference." Those five were Albert Shuler, Thomas A. Collins, Herman S. Winberry, Harold Leatherman and Charles M. Smith. It was adopted.

Announcement: Secretary Ted Wilson made an announcement. He read a poem written by Rick Moser concerning the work of Carson Wiggins as Chief Clerical Teller. It was received with laughter and appreciation by the entire Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: Carson Wiggins spoke to the poem which was written about him. He expressed appreciation for the poem but most of all wanted to express appreciation to all the tellers who had worked so hard during this entire Annual Conference.

Matters Pertaining to the Board of the Ministry: G. Robert McKenzie brought the report. He presented the matters for information -- most of which had been covered in the Executive Session on the Tuesday before the beginning of Annual Conference.

McKenzie brought a motion regarding clergy bankruptcy and the insistence that one seeking admission into the Conference in Full Connection or as an Associate Member be required to present a financial statement and be counseled regarding the handling of financial affairs.

An amendment was proposed, but was not seconded.

Amendment: Sam McMillan, Jr., moved "that the words 'be required to submit a financial statement to the Committee on Call and Disciplined Life and' (page A-5) last paragraph of the Ordained Ministry Report, be deleted." It was seconded. The resolution as amended was adopted.

Members of the Board of Managers for the North Carolina Conference Pastors' School were nominated. These were approved. Jimmy R. Tatum spoke as to whether the course requirements for Elder's orders and Full Connection were fully being taught at Duke Divinity School. McKenzie answered that they were in consultation with the school toward making this more realistic. Other corrections to the report were made.

It was moved that Kenneth Bryan Sexton, Jr., be reinstated for the purpose of transfer to another Conference. It was approved. Bishop Cannon stated that Sexton would be transferred.

Maness Mitchell rose to speak to the report and asked that Charles Irvin Umstead, Jr., be restored until his retirement status could be settled. It was ruled a Board of Pensions matter by the Bishop. Norwood Jones spoke against the Mitchell motion. Mitchell spoke at length about the Umstead case.

Previous Question: The previous question was moved by Vernon Tyson. The Mitchell motion was sustained.

Motion: Harvey Estes made a motion regarding study of a uniform salary scale for all ministers. The motion was ruled out of order.

Result of Eighteenth Lay Ballot: The five alternate delegates to Jurisdictional Conference were Ernest J. Wendell, Alphonso Henry, Marjorie Moore Overman, Mary Whanger and Randolph Few. This completed the elections to both the General and Jurisdictional Conferences of 1984 as well as alternate delegates for both Lay and Clergy.

The Lay Tellers were asked to come forward for recognition for their fine work. They were accorded a round of applause by the Conference.

Report of the Joint Committee on Disability: Owen Fitzgerald brought the report. This included the names of four new placements on the disability section and a continuation of those already there. They were moved for adoption. It was so ordered by the Conference.

Conference Board of Trustees: Margaret Minor gave the report for information. It was adopted by the Conference assembled. (For complete text of the report see Journal, Section V.)

Commission on Equitable Salaries: Grier Garrick asked the members of the Commission to join him on the stage and presented the report of the Commission. The report is contained in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983, pages 56-58, and on a blue sheet which was distributed to the Conference as additions to the 1983 report.

Motion: Kermit Braswell moved "that the Commission on Equitable Salaries consider giving the student ministers an increase in salary and utilities in January of 1985 equal to one half the percentage increase of the equitable salary schedule for salary and utilities of full time ministers until such time that the salary and utilities of student ministers equals 65 percent of the salary and utilities of full time ministers and then from that time forward remain at that ratio." It was seconded.

Amendment: Dennis R. Levin moved "that the last sentence of the Braswell motion be amended to read: 'at the point where student salaries become 65 percent of the minimum full time salary that they remain at that percentage of the minimum full time salary thenceforward.'" It was accepted by Braswell and became a part of the motion.

Amendment: Jimmy R. Tatum moved to amend the Braswell motion at the point of the year; i.e., replace 1985 with the year 1984.

Previous Question: The previous question was moved. The Tatum amendment was defeated. The Braswell motion passed.

Motion: Steve Compton moved "that a study committee be named by the Bishop to develop guidelines defining the pastoral responsibilities of a student pastor (a student pastor being a part-time pastor meeting the criteria for student status as stipulated on page 122 of the 1974 JOURNAL of the North Carolina Conference.) The Committee shall report its findings to the 1984 Annual Conference." The motion was adopted.

Motion: Christian L. Kraatz made the following motion: "We recommend that the Parsonage Standards Committee study and then implement ways of assisting charges in making their parsonages more energy efficient." It was accepted.

Kraatz presented a matter concerning a policy on vacations. McKenzie stated that he would be willing to have a Board of Ordained Ministry study the matter. The motion was ruled out of order because of a vacation plan set forth in the DISCIPLINE giving the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee that privilege. The full report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries was adopted by the Conference as amended.

Recess: The Conference was recessed until the conclusion of the luncheon hour.

FIFTH DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Thursday, June 9, 1983

Conference Convened: Bishop Cannon called the Conference back into session for the conclusion of the 1983 Annual Conference business. He announced that the John Wesley Covenant Service planned for the afternoon would be postponed until next year.

District Conference Records: The report was filed.

Methodist Ministers Credit Union: Bishop Cannon recognized Maness Mitchell for the report. Mitchell called D.D. Traynham to the podium and gave special recognition to him for his work as Conference Statistician and for many, many years of service to the Credit Union. He then discussed the nature of his report and the nature of the service work of the Credit Union. Traynham was made Director Emeritus of the Credit Union as a special honor. Mitchell introduced his son, John, and congratulated him for the good work that he was doing with the Credit Union. The rest of the report was filed and will appear in Section V of the JOUNNAL.

Board of Managers of the Pastors School and Convocation: Charles M. Smith made the report for the Board. The report is in the Agency Reports to Annual Conference 1983.

Reports of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration: Randolph Few brought the remainder of the report found on pages 58 and 59of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983. He was questioned as to the way the large amount for world service was spent. Charles McAdams came to the polium to answer the question. McAdams was also asked whether the funds went directly to the National and World Council of Churches. The answer was, "Only the funds raised for the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund went directly to the National and World Council of Churches." This satisfied the questioner. Dennis Levin asked if the money for the colleges was substantial enough to cover the crisis of the colleges. Rufus Stark spoke to the issue. The Bishop intervened and stated simply that it was a crisis that would continue for many years. Levin turned to Sam McMillan who spoke to the year by year need and the hopes the colleges had. He felt it would be for a period of about ten years. Levin stated he felt that the government bonds being in default for periods of eight to ten years on the parts of Methodist and Wesleyan Colleges was unacceptable and should have been reported to the Conference from year to year. He expressed his concern over this. Sam McMillan stated that there had been a monitoring committee which had been keeping a close check on this ever since Wesleyan got into trouble and stated that it had been reported each year since that The Higher Education Committee now continues as a monitoring committee.

The question was called and the budget was adopted for the ensuing year. This completed the work of the Council on Finance and Administration and their report.

There was a motion to reconsider the report of the Council on $\,$ Finance and Administration. A vote was taken and it was reconsidered.

Motion: Bob O'Keefe moved, "that section II of the CF&A report be amended to change the word 'charge' to 'each local church' each place it appears in the original." Charles McAdams responded that this has been available for several years and the ability to do it Conference-wide was almost totally available. Randolph Few accepted the motion. The report was again adopted.

Motion: James Coile moved that each District Superintendent be authorized to appoint 'official visitors' to the 1984 General Conference from among the laypersons and clergypersons within his district. This was for the purpose of interpretation and for helpin the Bicentennial celebration. It was adopted.

Motion: J. Allen Norris moved, "that travel expenses and per diem as set by the General Conference be paid by the North Carolina Conference for the first Lay Reserve Delegate and the first Clergy Reserve Delegate to attend General Conference in Baltimore, Md., and the same procedure apply for the first Lay Reserve Delegate and the first Clergy Reserve Delegate to Jurisdictional Conference." It was passed.

Report of Special Committee on Conference Journal: Secretary Ted Wilson presented the report. He noted that the Ordination and Worship Books and The Conference Program and Recommendations 1983 were produced in the Conference Secretary's office with the help of a word processor obtained for that purpose. He proposed that this would be used for the JOURNAL and other secretarial office work. He stated that he was aware of the print size and the problems involved there. He felt that the savings that were affected — nearly one third — were substantive and made the slight inconvenience more than worthwhile. In any event, he stated that now noone but the Conference Secretary can be blamed for the mistakes in the Conference JOURNAL. He further stated that this would make the production and receipt of the JOURNAL much more rapid. Bruce Pate requested that the Conference Secretary think of the many people with visual difficulties, including the aging, and problems of reading the JOURNAL. Malloy Owen expressed his concern with the new format and the use of the word processor. Jimmy Tatum spoke in favor of what had been done by the Conference Secretary.

Motion: Dennis Levin made a motion "to have staff salaries of multi-staff parishes be listed separately in the Conference JOURNAL."
James Coile spoke in clarification of the fact that the information was provided on General Conference forms that were standardized and could not be changed. He suggested that it be defeated on those grounds. The previous question was called and it was defeated.

Report of the Committee on Episcopacy: Bishop Cannon called on Langill Watson to bring the report. Watson reaffirmed the effectiveness of the work of the Episcopacy in the past year. Watson told a number of anecdotes and then alluded to the Bishop's election to give the State of the Church Address at General Conference in 1984. Watson listed a number of other nonors that have been bestowed upon Bishop Cannon during the year. Watson concluded his report by expressing deep appreciation for the Bishop and for his service to our Conference, to the Raleigh Area and to Methodism at large.

Point of Personal Privilege: Charles McAdams asked for a Point of Personal Privilege to recognize a very active lay person who had served on CF&A, and who had rotated off the Council this year, Earl Merrill. He also wanted to express appreciation to James C.P. Brown for his fine service.

Committee on Resolutions and Courtesies: Thomas A. Collins brought the report. Collins commented that the work now encompassed so much that it was hard to give due recognitions to everyone. He hoped that he had not left anyone out. He requested that the report as read be published in the Conference JOURNAL. It will appear in Section V.

Moving Day: Malloy Owen, Secretary of the Cabinet, moved that Thursday, June 16, 1983, be the official moving day. Pastors should be out of the parsonage by 12:00 noon and arriving pastors should not move in before 1:00 p.m. on moving day. Responsibilities for the new charge begin on moving day. This was adopted by the Conference.

Motion: Langill Watson moved "that as of 1984, after the appointments are read, the ministers will go to their new appointment for preaching and/or other services." A count vote was taken. The Watson motion passed, 254 for and 237 against.

Motion: Donnie Davis moved "that the local charge to which a minister is appointed bear the expense of travel, room and meals to the new charge and return home for the week end following Annual Conference." The motion carried.

Miscellaneous Business: Conference Secretary Ted Wilson stated that the materials distributed after lunch which answer Questions 16, 17 and 66 be considered as answers for those Disciplinary Questions and he now declared that all Disciplinary Questions are answered by the 1983 Annual Conference of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. This was so adopted by the Conference.

Hymn: Hymn 5, "Come Ye that Love the Lord," was sung by the Conference. Charles Bryant was called upon by Bishop Cannon to lead in prayer before the reading of the appointments. Bishop Cannon then clied upon Charles Michael Smith for a solo. He sang Hymn 9, "I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath."

Reading of the Appointments: Bishop Cannon, as part of the closing of Conference, concluded its work by calling Questions 67 and 68, "Where are the preachers stationed for the ensuing year?" Bishop Cannon read the names of the District Superintendents and changes in appointments beyond the local church. The Bishop introduced the District Superintendents first and made remarks and exhortations. The Bishop stated that the day was long and well spent and therefore he declared that the appointments, instead of being read, were as printed and as had been handed to each member of the Conference. The changes that needed to be made, were made, and he stated that others must not be changed unless there was severe reason. He then spoke to the Conference informally, stating various things on his heart and in his most gracious manner the courtesies and understandings that he wished to express to the Conference.

Announcements: Ted Wilson, Conference Secretary, made announcements.

Closing Hymn: The closing Hymn, 306, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," was sung.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop William R. Cannon, bringing to a close the 1983 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. SHIRLEY JUDGE STARNES 1893-1982

Shirley Judge Starnes was born in Fort Mill, South Carqlina, on October 3, 1893, to William Benson and Mollie Threatt Starnes. He spent his early years in Union County, North Carolina, where his family moved soon after his birth. There he met and courted Daisy Brantley, and in 1916 he eloped with her in a horse and buggy. They moved to Lumberton where he worked on the newspaper until he heard God's call to the ministry. He received nis first appointment in 1921 and remained faithful in service until God called him to join the Saints in Heaven on June 16, 1982.

I have never known anyone more full of life and dedication until the very end, nor have I seen a purer faith than that which he demonstrated every day. Three months before his death, he was informed that the inevitable progress of a cancer would not allow him much more time on this earth. He accepted the news with profound faith in his Lord, and proclaimed that he was prepared and, in fact, looking forward with joy to his reunion with his dear wife, Daisy, and two of their seven children, Mary Elizabeth and Rachel Mae. And death itself came for him as a beautiful experience rather than a tradegy. On the day of his death, he walked into the hospital unafraid. He and another minister, who happened to be his hospital roommate, knelt beside their beds and shared a prayer. He then returned to his bed and peacefully answered God's call to eternity.

He is survived by three daughters: Mrs. N. R. Manning of Burlington, Mrs. S. T. Dorthy of Durham, Mrs. Edward F. Byrd of Graham, two sons: S. Starnes, Jr., of Wilminton, Delaware, and this writer, Dr. William S. Starnes, of Pittsboro; two brothers: Herman Starnes, of Monroe, and Roscoe Starnes of Charlotte; nine grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and a host of friends and loved ones wherever he has been. His funeral service was conducted at Davis Street United Methodist Church in Burlington by the Reverends Wilbur I. Jackson and Barney L. Davidson. The love and esteem in which he was held was very appropriately witnessed to by the cordon of his fellow ministers who flanked the church steps as the service concluded. His body was laid to rest in Alamance Memorial Park, beside Daisy.

During his sixty-one years of service, he held thirteen appointments in the Effective Relationship, one as a Retired Supply, and a final position as Pastor Emeritus and Visiting Minister, as follows: East Roxboro Longhurst, Millbrook Circuit, Yanceyville, Roanoke Rapids, Raleigh: Central, Aberdeen, Williamston, Durham Circuit, Mount Gilead, Burlington: Davis Street, Fuquay Springs, Wilmington: Sunset Park, Editor of N.C. Christian Advocate, Shiloh [Retired Supply], and Pastor Emeritus at Burlington: Davis Street. In addition, he was the author of many poems and two books.

He always took an active role of service in the functions of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving for many years as Secretary of the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension. He cherished his relationship to the Conference and to all the ministers and lay persons whom he knew and loved so well. His perfect attendance record reflected that relationship and took him to his last session, which ended one week before his death. His dedication was further reflected by the fact he traveled to Monroe to participate in a funeral even after the Conference had ended and life was surely ebbing away.

Perhaps his greatest weakness was that he never learned to relax and move from the pressures and cares of ministry - even for a brief moment. He gave himself so utterly and profoundly to this sacred call that it was his vocation, his hobby, his world view, his motivation - in short; his life. In my fifty years of shared experiences with him, I cannot recall a single incident when he was not totally and completely God's devoted minister. I would not claim perfection for my father, as I would not for any person save Jesus, but I repeat what I had the privilege of saying in devoted the installation sermon when he was appointed Pastor Emeritus of Davis Street Church: "He was always and forever as good a man as he knew how to be." Someone once said of Winston Churchill, "I wish I were smart enough just to make his mistakes." I would change the sense of that slightly in saying of my father, "I wish I were spiritually strong enough just to match the lesser moments of his commitment to his Lord."

My father provided a great legacy of spiritual testimony to his family, the Conference, the communities where he served, and to countless namily, the conference, the communities where he served, and to countless others whose lives he touched and often healed. There can be no better summation of his earthly sojourn than the words of St. Paul, which he quoted so often: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing."

> BAXTER B. SLAUGHTER 1883-1982

Baxter B. Slaughter was born in the surpassingly beautiful rolling hills and plains of Person County, near Roxboro, born into a family heritage, rich in Methodist tradition, notable in accomplishments in commerce, education and the arts, born into an environment of caring relationships to the world which grew out of deep religious conviction. Born in the year 1883, March 21, the son of Jacob Wiggins and Malinda Elizabeth Phillpott Slaughter. He began his formal eduation at Whitsette Institute (1904-5) and Jefferson Academy (1906-08) and was graduated from Trinity College, Durham, N.C., 1913.

Called of God to the ministry of the Methodist Church, he was admitted into trial membership in the North Carolina Conference in 1912, and in 1916 was received into full connection and ordained elder. During forty two years of active ministry he served ten appointments: Murfreesboro, Clark St., Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Farmville, Oriental, First Church, Morehead City, Lumberton, First Church, Rockingham, and St. Paul, Durham. Twice he was called upon to serve in the District Superintendency, the Elizabeth City District, 1935-41 and the New Bern District, 1945-51. A man of gentle nature and uncommon wisdom, he was called upon for service in a wide range of Conference endeavors: District Missionary Secretary, Chairman, Committee on Rural Policy, Treasurer, Conference Brotherhood and as a member of the Board Of Education, Board of Ministerial Training, and the Commission of World Service and Finance. He was a delegate to the 1938 and 1948 General Conferences.

He was blessed by marriage to Elma Grimes Slaughter in 1913. Into that union three children were born, Anne Walker Flowers, Baxter Boone and Grimes Gibbons Slaughter. No ministerial couple ever exceeded them in devotion to one another and in a marvelous teamwork of ministry spanning half a century. Their home was truly a haven of blessing, bringing joy to unnumbered ministers and lay persons and youth throughout their years, who with deep affection were honored to be claimed by "Ma and Pa" Slaughter.

He died on July 4, 1982, having attained ninety nine years of age. Funeral services were held by Rev. John Poe and Rev. Berry Barber, at St.

Paul United Methodist Church, July 6, 1982 and he was laid to rest beside his beloved wife in Maplewood Cemetary, Durham. Well done, good and faithful servant. You richly blessed us by your presence here.

He died on August 9, 1982, at The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, where he and Mrs. Dawson had lived since May of 1980. Prior to their gains.

where he and Mrs. Dawson had lived since May of 1980. Prior to their going to the retirement home, they lived in Morehead city following his retirement in 1968. A memorial service was held at McMannen United Methodist Church in Durham on August 11, following a private graveside service at 11:00 AM at Elmwood Cementery in Henderson, North Carolina. The memorial service was conducted by the Reverend Lawrence Lugar, assisted by The Reverends Barney Davidson, Rufus Stark, and Harold Leatherman.
R. Grady Dawson served his Lord as a United Methodist preacher for 42 years. His first appointment was to the Garland Circuit, followed by Burlington-Webb Avenue, Mt.Olive, Raleigh-Trinity, Sanford-Steele Street, Fayetteville-Hay Street, Raleigh District Superintendent, Wilson-First Church, and New Bern District Superintendent. He served eleven years as a District Superintendent, and was president of the Bishop's Cabinet nine of those years. This honor indicated acknowledgement of his administrative ability, qualities of leadership, respect of his associates, and his gift of working with others. He was elected a delegate to both General and Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition to being a very effective pastor and proclaimer of the word, he served on numerous boards and agencies. He had the distinction of serving as a trustee of all three colleges related to The North Carolina Conference.

During the years he served as pastor and District Superintendent, served faithfully and with complete dedication. His love and concern for those committed to his care won the respect and admiration of both laity and clergy.

It was my good fortune to have as my dear friends, Grady and Elizabeth He was my District Superintendent for nine years while serving in the Raleigh and New Bern Districts. Also, I have followed in his footsteps while serving as District Superintendent of the New Bern District and continue to share the fruits of his ministry at Steele Street, renamed St. Luke.

One of the many characteristics that made R. Grady Dawson special was his compassion for all people, but particularly, young preachers. Не was never too busy to advise, counsel, and point the way to those of were trying very hard to find the way. us who

I remember him as a talented administrator, gifted preacher, devoted husband and father, and dedicated servant as God. He was in real sense, my Spiritual Hero.

I'd rather see a sermon, Than hear one any day; I'd rather one should walk with me Than merely show the way.

The eye's a better pupil And more willing than the ear; Fine counsel is confusing But example's always clear. And the best of all the preachers Are the ones who live their creed. For to see good put in action Is what everybody needs. I soon can learn to do it, If you let me see it done. I can watch your hands in action, But your tongue too fast may run. And the sermon you deliver May be wise and true, But I'd rather get my lesson By observing what you do, For I might misunderstand you And the high advice you give; But there's no misunderstanding How you act and how you live.

JOE CLYDE DUNN 1914-1982

The Reverend Joe Clyde ("Chick") Dunn was born February 6, 1914, in Pinetops, N.C. He died in the Wilson Memorial Hospital after an extended illness on October 3, 1982, being survived by his dear wife, Aileen Blue Dunn, and three children: Carolyn Dunn Baker, Greensboro, N.C.; J. C. Dunn, Jr., Bloomington, Illinois; and James Lamon Dunn, La Crescenta, California. Surviving him also were eleven grandchildren, four sisters, and five brothers.

A very appropriate and meaningful funeral service was held in the Pinetops United Methodist Church on October 5, 1982, with three ministers participating: Murray DeHart, Edward Whitley, and Wade Goldston. Interment was in the Pinetops Community Cementary.

Chick was licensed to preach in 1961 by the Wilmington District of The United Methodist Church. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Paul N. Garber of the North Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Goldsboro on June 13, 1967. He served as pastor of the following Charges: Council-Trinity, Old Dock-Shiloh, Clarkton-Bluefield, Bolivia-Supply, and Hallsboro. Because of serious illness he was placed on disability leave for the years 1976-78, and was retired June 5, 1978. Along with his preaching and pastoral ministry, he served as Director and Chaplain of "The Good Shepherd Home" (a home for men alcoholics) from 1960 to 1976. In all his ministry he was ably and lovingly assisted by his wife.

It is not possible for me to put into words what Chick Dunn meant to so many people from many different communities. He was dearly loved by his wife and family because of his deep and abiding devotion to them. His home community of Pinetops was touched in a wondrous way by his life, and because of this the people there showed him and his wife, in many concrete ways, their kindness and devotion. This was expecially true during his extended illness. As a Methodist preacher, Chick proclaimed the Good News of Christ in a quiet and winsome way that reached the depths of many a heart. As a pastor, he exemplified beautifully many of the good qualities described by our Lord in the Gospel of John, chapter 10, where Jesus speaks so movingly of "the good shepherd" in contrast to the "hireling" shepherd.

so movingly of "the good snepherd" in contrast to the "hireling" shepherd. No doubt it was as the Director and Chaplain of "The Good Shepherd Home" at Lake Waccamaw, N. C., that Chick rendered his most notable and unique service. He helped his brother, Reverend Edgar V. Dunn, to establish this Home for Alcoholics in July of 1956. Edgar managed the Home for four years. Chick taking it can in 1960. for four years, Chick taking it over in 1960 and managing it until his ill health forced him to give it up in 1976.

Chick operated the Good Shepherd Home on faith, assisted by a Board of Directors of his choosing. Having received help from Hebron Colony in Western North Carolina, he learned from this experience but added innovations of his own that made the Home at Lake Waccamaw unique and remarkably successful. Land was purchased, and under his direction used as a farm to give the alcoholics "work therapy" as well as to help provide food for the men who came to the Home.

The Home could house only 17 men at one time, but over the 17 years that he was Director, a host of many men from many parts of N.C. and other States came to live there and experience a new life. Chick was the men's wise, trustworthy, loving, Counselor, Confessor, Pastor, Teacher, and "Father." His loving concern followed the men when they completed their course of training at the Home.

Chick was a strong believer in the changing power of prayer and the Word of God. These two things were central in his therapy and training. It was always an experience of "Koinonia-fellowship" to visit with his men. Scripture was taught and repeated at breakfast and other times. A testimony meeting was held in "The Upper Room" Chapel each Saturday Miracles of healing and joy often took place. Numbers of men evening. found salvation by grace and discovered their calling in life.

Chick's mortal body is in the grave but his spirit lives, and his good

LAFON CARPENTER VEREEN 1920-1982

LaFon Carpenter Vereen, better known to the thousands he touched as "Fonnie," was a man dedicated to a ministry so diversified that it began in service to youth and concluded in service to senior citizens. Fonnie -man of deep piety, compassion, loyalty, and an inspired sense of good humor, was born in Latta, South Carolina, on April 12, 1920. He was born the son of Ronald Gordon Vereen, Sr. and Estelle Limehouse Vereen. After completing high school in Latta, he attended Clemson University where he received his B.S. Degree in Civil Engineering, and later, in 1946 he received the Master of Divinity Degree from the Duke University Divinity School. On July 15, 1942, Fonnie was married to the former Joyce Griffin of Lemon Springs.

Fonnie grew up within the Methodist Church and during his later teenage years felt a strong but definite call to the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. If it had not been for the winds of war blowing during the years in which he was in training at Clemson, he doubtless would have gone directly to Divinity School, but a tour of duty with the U.S. Army during a portion of World War II kept him from being admitted as a probationary member into the North Carolina Conference until the session in Rocky Mount in 1943 where he was also ordained Deacon. In 1945, he was received in full connection and ordained Elder. Fonnie Vereen served appointments at Andrews Chapel, as Associate Director of Youth Work for the Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference, at Fremont, Warrenton, Farmville, Durham: Asbury, Raleigh: Fairmont, as Executive Secretary for the Board of Missions for the North Carolina Annual Conference and as the Associate Director of Witness, Outreach and Involvement for the North Carolina Annual Conference, wilmington: Trinity, and in 1972 he was appointed as an Administrator for The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. In 1975, he moved to Lumberton where he supervised the construction, staffing and development of prospective applicants for the new Wesley Pines Retirement Home. He served as Administrator of the Wesley Pines Home until his death in 1982.

A listing of pastorates does not do justice to a man's ministry, for wherever Fonnie Vereen served, he was deeply loved and appreciated for the Christlike man that he was, for this warmth, and for the remarkable gifts and graces that he brought to his constantly -- and necessarily -- changing ministerial style over the years. A devout Methodist Church layman wrote of Fonnie:

"He was one of the best examples of God's grace I ever knew. His host of friends and admirers everywhere felt the same. He spent his days doing deeds of kindness, helpfulness and sharing with others, and in so doing, made this world a far better and sweeter place in which to live, work and worship. He was a tower of strength and an inspiration to countless people who came to admire, respect and love him for the very sincerity of his friendship and the devotion of his personal life."

Fonnie was accorded many honors and chances for diverse and unusual experiences in the course of his long and fruitful ministry of almost forty years. With a modesty that was covered by his gregarious and delightfully humorous after dinner talks, he shyly, and with a great sense of modesty, gave the credit to others. In truth he actually originated the idea of the Conference camping program when he was Associate Director of Youth Work. At that time the Conference was having Intermediate Youth assemblies at Louisburg College and he wanted to start them in a camping atmosphere. The Board of Education didn't think it would work but he finally convinced them that it would. Since it had worked for the Scouts and the 4-H Clubs he reasoned it would work for the Church of Jesus Christ. To try out the idea, Fonnie and Dr. J. E. Garlington, with the Board's approval, the camping program with the rental of three camps, namely at Fisher Landing below New Bern, the Umstead State Park facilities and at a State Camp at Cheraw, S.C. Of course, as Fonnie Vereen had predicted, the program was tremendously successful and thus began the search of Conference This brought about our first property for a full camping program. Conference Camp, Camp Don Lee.

In addition, Fonnie served as a counselor for the Youth Caravan from the North Carolina Conference going to Europe in 1954 and supervised a work project in Austria. As a part of being a delegate to the World Methodist Council, meeting in London in 1966, he also guided a tour of the Holy Land. Fonnie worked with civic organizations and took leadership rolls in every community in which he served. During his pastorate in Farmville he was named Young Man of the Year by the North Carolina Jaycees. Fonnie was just as effective in his ministry with senior citizens and particularly those whose lies he touched at the new Wesley Pines Home. A former member of

Wesley Pines wrote:

"He left me with a truly high appreciation of him as a man, a Christian, and a friend. He had the heart of a pastor, and I feel that my own life is better for our paths having crossed. I know of no one who built a better monument for himself through his productive labors of love. But he did this selflessly. He touched and enriched so many lives. He lightened so many moments for all who heard him. His patient readiness to listen and to understand earned respect. We know that he will not be forgotten by any of us who knew him -- not ever."

Fonnie planned for his and Joyce's retirement and made preparations for the rest of his family in a most admirable and noble way. He told this writer that he could never truly envision himself retiring from the ministry of Jesus Christ! He did not have this opportunity. A puzzling and hard to find malignancy made its appearance a few weeks after the close of Annual Conference in 1982 and ended his life at Duke University Medical Center on October 23, 1982. Funeral services were conducted in Lumberton at Chestnut Street United Methodist Church, Monday, October 25th at 11:00 a.m. with the Reverend Edward F. Smith officiating and Bishop William R. Cannon giving the Eulogy. Graveside services and interment were held the same day at Lemon Springs United Methodist Church cementary with the Reverend Dennis R. Sheppard and the Reverend Gerald C. Primm of Greensboro officiating.

Surviving Fonnie Vereen are his wife, Joyce Griffin Vereen of the home; a daughter, Marie (Mrs. James Cooke), a granddaughter, Catherine Cooke of Murfreesboro, N. C., and a son, Ronnie (Dr. Ronald L. Vereen) of Durham. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. T. C. McSwain of Minturn, S. C., and Mrs. Travis Ford of Dillon, S. C., R.G. Vereen, Jr., Latta, S.C., Thomas L. Vereen, Springfield, Ohio, and Carlisle M. Vereen, Cheraw, S.C.

Only God can take the measurement of a man as dedicated and varied LaFon Vereen. We but say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant...". Fonnie would have long since protested these laudatory comments. Indeed, he would have turned them to someone else or have cut them off with a joke that would have left all of us is stitches! Too few men such as Fonnie Vereen walk this way in life. In that:

> "For all the saints, who from their labors rest, Who thee by faith before the world confessed, Thy name, oh Jesus, be forever blessed, Alleluia! Alleluia!"

WILLIAM CARLETON WILSON 1900-1982

Bishop Paul Garber called him "the best Conference Secretary in American Methodism." William Carleton Wilson wore that distinction proudly although modesty would not allow him to agree with it. Still, the record shows that he held that office in our Conference for almost twenty served on the General and Jurisdictional Conference Secretarial Staffs seven different times, and edited the General Conference Journal three times! Our Conference honored him by electing Carleton as the first Clerical Delegate to the 1956 General Conference, and twelve years later the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference elected him as its Secretary. It is not surprising that these honors came so regularly to this courtly minister. He displayed a talent for detail early in his ministry, joining the Statistical Staff of our Conference in 1926, the same year he joined the Conference. Eleven years later his thoroughness was recognized when he was chosen Conference Statistician.

Despite his considerable responsibilities beyond the local church, Carleton won the admiration and affection of the eleven charges he served, numbering some thiry-seven churches, during his forty year career. The first eight appointments he held were circuits: Hallsboro, Halifax, Norlina, Nashville, Rowland, Goldsboro, Mt. Olive, and Jackson. His last three were stations: St. James, Tarboro; Dukes Chapel, Durham; and Pleasant Grove; Raleigh.

Carleton was born in Hillsborough on June 7, 1900. He received his education at Emory University, Candler School of Theology, and The Divinity School of Duke University. He married Essie Lee Wilson of Warren County in 1919 and four children were born to this union. The fourth died in infancy and a son, Bill, was killed in World War II. Mary Earle (Mrs. George Berger) is the Choir Director at Long Memorial Church, Roxboro and Ted (The Reverend L.T. Wilson) is Pastor of Englewood Church, Rocky Mount and Conference Secretary, appropriately.

I came to know Brother Carleton well after he had retired and his first wife had died. His health failed and he moved to Roxboro in 1977 live with his daughter and her family. A few months later I became his pastor and quickly became the recipient of his unfailing kindness. he was making a hospital call for me on a little girl, he discovered and later fell in love with her beautiful grandmother, Janette Winstead. Early the next year, Ted and I performed their wedding ceremony at the conclusion of a Sunday morning worship service.

I do not remember what we gave Carleton and Janette for a wedding present. I can never forget what they gave me and my family; the gift of encouragement. Along with food, shelter, clothing and love, we all need this particular gift, and I think that is particularly true for pastors. Throughout my four years as his pastor, we could always count on Carleton and his wife for wise advice and unwavering support.

The Apostle Paul had the older Barnabas, whose name means "son of encouragement," to guide and champion him when he was a young minister. Carleton Wilson was my "Barnabas-in-residence" while I was his pastor. On October 23, 1982, Carleton died at our Methodist Retirement Home's Coble Health Care Center after months of declining health. His funeral was held at Long Memorial Church in Roxboro, on October 26 and was conducted by his Bishop, William R. Cannon, his Pastor, Paul W. Boone, and myself. was buried in Raleigh Memorial Park.

Carleton was a good tenor, and many times I could hear him sounding forth from the congregation as we sang one of his favorites. With just a little imagination, I can hear him still singing:

Ask ye what great thing I know That delights and stirs me so? What the high reward I win? Whose the name I glory in? Jesus Christ, the crucified.

Who is life in life to me? Who the death of death will be? Who will place me on his right, With the countless hosts of light? Jesus Christ, the crucified.

WILLIAM ALTON TEW 1907-1982

William Alton Tew was born in the Casey's Chapel community Goldsboro on October 27, 1907, the third of four children born in Ruth Raiford and Oscar Tew. Alton spent his childhood in Wayne county in a devout and disciplined Christian home. His mother and father were of great inspiration to him and he attributed an early comment of his mother asking if ne would like to be a preacher when he grew up, as being a childhood "seed corn" experience planted in his mind. Alton attended the Salem Methodist Episcopal Church from 1916 and was baptized a member of church in 1918.

Alton was influenced greatly by the preachers that served the church he attended, and particularly by their visits in the family home. The call to the ministry of the word of God grew in Alton's young heart from early days of prayer to 1924 and times with the Epworth League and the church, the fellowship of his school mates and finally, after much soul searching and prayer, he answered the divine call to the ministry on August 22, 1926 during a revival at Salem Church. In a beautiful and a highly personal book that brother Alton completed less than a year before his death from this mortal life, The Memoirs of A Methodist Minister, he related these words: "My becoming a minister isn't something that Alton Tew did. It is something that God did with Alton Tew's life, with my consent. The decision to become a minister was mine; the process of my becoming a minister was God's work in me."

Alton attended Guilford College as a preministerial student and graduated in the spring of 1930 progressing to the Divinity School at Duke University in the fall of 1930, graduating in 1933. While attending Guilford, Alton met Clara Mae Respess and married her in January, 1934 after he had joined the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1933 and received his first appointment to Ocracoke. Alton was ordained in 1935 and admitted into full connection and ordained Elder in 1937. Alton and Clara served many pastorates and gave unrelenting of their time as they labored in the vineyards of communities from one end of the conference to the other.

In addition to Ocracoke, Alton served: Pamlico, Wesley Memorial: Wilmington, Riverside-Bridgeton, Lillington, Rowland, Page Memorial: Aberdeen, West Burlington, Rosemary: Roanoke Rapids, Trinity: Raleigh, St. Paul's: Durham and Enfield. Alton Tew retired in 1972 after nearly forty years of dedicated and distinguished service.

Alton and Clara moved to a home in Durham and were immediately pressed into service to preach at Ellis Chapel United Methodist Church for the next three years as a retired supply. Their church membership and charge conference affiliation were then moved to St. Paul's church in Durham. In November, 1978 they decided to move to the Methodist Retirement Home and, having sold their home in Durham, moved across town to one of The Homes apartments where Alton lived for the rest of his life.

It is difficult for words to express the texture, the spiritual quality and the sterling, selfgiving character of Alton Tew. He was first a lover of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and because of that touch upon his entire life he was a lover of people--all people: children, middle-aged and the senior citizens of his parishes. He had a profound sense of his call to the ministry from childhood and he felt a kindred spirit to the author of the old spiritual who wrote, "I Know The Lord's Laid His Hands On Me." Alton was made a minister in every sense of the word and accepted virtually every invitation to preach in revival services solicited of him over the years. God not only called Alton Tew to preach the gospel from the pulpit but also by example through his visitation envanglism in the homes, offices, the stores and in the fields of his rural parishes and through contacts with those he met. He was attentive to the Wesleyan tradition of visiting diligently from door to door.

Alton Tew could not have accomplished what he did over years without the constant and abiding love and devotion of his wife and coworker Clara. He and the members of the churches he served werre indeed blessed by preacher whose life was a testimony constantly saying through action, "I Love thy God!" Thus, Alton Tew had a deep sense of the fact that he and everyone else belonged to God whether rich or poor, well or sick. Alton related an intimate experience at the time of his first heart attack in August, 1955. At a moment when he thought he was dying he said, "I am thine, O Lord." What did you say?" Alton repeated his statement and later tola this writer, if he had died at that time, that would have been his last thought. The hymn writer Samuel Stennett, author of Majestic Sweetness sits Enthroned, " expressed Alton's commitment to God as is stated in the last stanza by these words; "Had I a thousand hearts to give, Lord, they should all be thine!"

Alton served in numerous District and Conference positions over the years of his ministry including being a trustee of the Conference more than twelve years, being a member of the initial Conference committies that provided for the establishment of the J.M.Ormend Fund, and of the initial study commission to design and implement a program of helping pastors with moving expenses. He also served as secretary to the Commission on Town and Country and as secretary of almost every district in which he served.

Alton and Clara found a happy continuation of life at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham and contributed much to the life of the Home as Alton participated in preaching, teaching, and giving devotionals. Alton loved to play the piano, to sing, and to participate in all forms of musical activity. These were means of witness and an intense personal hobby.

Shorty before his final neart involvment which was to end his mortal life and send his immortal soul to be with his Lord, Alton reminisced about some the passages in the book that he had written for his churches and his family and lifted up one particular passage concerning his brief talk he made upon his retirement in 1972. He remarked that this was something with which he agreed time and time again when he said, "If I had my life to live over again I would marry the same girl, become a Methodist Preacher and join the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church! On October 24, 1982, William Alton Tew died in Duke Hospital and made a last gift of his mortal remains to Medical Science to be used in the furtherance of aid to people and for the betterment of mankind.

A memorial service was held on Tuesday, October 26 at St.Pauls United Methodist Church in Durham. The services were conducted by the Pastor, the Reverend Berry Barbour assisted by Chaplain Kelly Wilson, III of the Methodist Retirement Home and the Reverend Maness Mitchell of Raleigh. In addition to Alton's beloved wife, Clara Respess Tew of the Methodist Retirement Home, he is survived by a son, William Alton Tew, Jr. and a brother, Paul Tew.

His many friends with those that he had served for so many years can join with his family and this writer in saying, "Thanks be to God for his life!"

EUGENE CARSON CRAWFORD 1896-1983

The Reverend Eugene Carson Crawford was born in Orange County to Julia Webb Crawford and James M. Crawford, August 10, 1896. He was one of eight children, four boys and four girls. He received his early education in the Orange County Schools, completing high school at Trinity Park, Trinity College. He entered Trinity College in 1917, was drafted into the U.S.Army, August 3, 1918, served over seas, and was discharged from the Army with the rank of Corporal, May 6, 1919. He received his A.B. Degree from Trinity College, Durham, N.C., in 1923, and then was awarded his B.D. Degree from the Divinity School at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., in 1925. He worked his way through school, doing many different jobs. In 1925 he began his pastoral ministry in the N.C. Annual Conference.

Brother Crawford met the one who was to become his wife, Blanche Smith, on his first Charge when teaching in Franklin County. They were married May 10, 1929. To this union were born Dr. Eugene C. Crawford, Jr., now professor at the University of Kentucky; Joan Crawford Brady, now deceased; and Sara Crawford Williams, now living in Williamston, N.C. There are six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Upon retirement in 1961 Brother Crawford and his wife lived in the city of Durham, until moving to the Methodist Retirement Home there. died in the home on January 17, 1983. A beautiful and meaningful Memorial Service was held in the Chapel of the Retirement Home, conducted by three ministers: Kelley J. Wilson, III., Tom Faggart, and Wade Goldston.

I can think of no better words to use in tribute to "E.C." (as I loved to call him) than the words used by the Apostle Paul of one of his co-workers: "Tychicus, a beloved brother, a faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord. "(Col. 4:7) hie

E. C. was truly "a beloved brother," dearly loved not only by family and close friends but also by a host of people he served as pastor as well as by many people outside his own Denomination. The "brotherhood" was more than a slogan with him. He took its meanings and implications seriously. With him there were no "little" preachers and no "little" churches. All were one in Christ. His spirit of brotherhood was exemplified by his desire and efforts to see all pastors of his Annual Conference receiving fair financial compensation, by his willingness to for the working people of his State.

E. C. was also "a faithful minister." I have known greater pulpit orators and more popular preachers, but I can think of none who excelled him in his commitment to "the full counsel of God." He majored both on the personal and the social aspects of the Christian Gospel. This sometimes brought sharp criticism upon him, but he accepted this charitably as a part of his calling, always responding to his critics with friendship and love. His primary ministry was to rural churches, serving a total of 45 churches over a period of 37 years. He saw the injustices of the Methodist appointive system, but he was never a grumbler.

E. C. was also and especially "a fellow servant in the Lord." gave us an example of the words of our Lord, who said: "He who is greatest among you shall be the chief servant of all." In 1960 he was named "Rural Preacher of the Year" by the Progressive Farmer. This program covered the 7 Southern States, one "Rural Preacher" being selected from each State. After E. C.'s retirement, he continued an active ministry of service, being elected in 1961 as State Commander of the World War I Veterans Association, and serving from 1967-71 as a volunteer field worker for world peace through the Department of the Friends Service Committee of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. In the light of his many services, it is most fitting to say that he was a great soul and a great minister. Added to the services already mentioned were his activities in the civic organizations where he lived. During World War II, he was chairman of the Red Cross in Hoke County.

At the time of E. C.'s death, his daughter, Sara, spoke these beautiful words of him: "He has ended his journey - he as reached his

SAMUEL LLOYD TOWNSEND 1912-1983

Samuel Lloyd Townsend closed his chapter of uncertainty on Sunday evening, February 13, 1983, shortly after plans were complete to attend the District Lay Ralley at Chestnut Church in Lumberton, N.C. quietly, quickly, and silently slipped away from his residence Instead he on Walnut Street in Laurinburg, N.C. In departing this life into another world unknown to us, he leaves to his family and friends a legacy of love, understanding, high esteem and deep devotion. The funeral service was conducted by Dr. Joseph B. Bethea with Bishop William R. Cannon delivering the sermon.

On June 30, 1912 he was born in Robeson County to the late Perry Townsend and the late Annie Jane Douglas Townsend.

His church affiliation began in his early childhood, where he was nurtured in Piney Grove Methodist Episcopal Church in Maxton, N.C.

Sam's formal education was received in the public schools of Robeson County, Laurinburg Institute of Laurinburg, Stillman Institute, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; Clark College of Atlanta, Georgia and Gammon Theological Seminary also of Atlanta. A Doctorate of Divinity Degree was conferred upon him from an American Bible College during his later ministry.

His ministry began in the Alabama and Georgia Conferences serving as student pastor. In North Carolina he served many prolific pastorial works namely: Philadelphia of Rockingham in the early 40's, which at that time was in the Laurinburg District Central Jurisdiction; Newport News, Va. the Greensboro District. North West Greensboro Charge, Mt. Carmal, Wa Street and Mt. Tabor. Smith Chapel, Bolton, and Saint John, Wilmington once again on the Laurinburg District. Professionally he served on numerous boards in the North Carolina rence. Delegate to the General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.

Conferences.

"His service to Scotland County Ministers' Fellowship began in its early days. He served as one of its early Presidents and twice since then. In addition, he filled almost all its offices at least once. In our Fellowship he was a wise counselor, a willing worker, a strong advocate of those things he believed would advance the cause of Jesus Christ and always a team player upholding the decisions of the group. His dry wit and thoughtful suggestions calmed the handling of more than one hot or thorny issue. His steady presence contributed greatly to the value and the effectiveness of our Fellowship." John N. Miller, President.

"Sam Townsend gave Scotland County 22 years of work as a Pastor, Statesman, and a community leader. He exhibited a greatness that we all were able to comprehend and appreciate. People gathered by the hundreds at Galilee United Methodist Church Wednesday, the 16th of February to proclaim that the life of Sam Townsend was a concrete testimony and a witness to the resurrection. We in Scotland County will always remember him as a churchman and friend. With a great sense of humor, a gentle and sharing person who snared his life abundantly, and always took pleasure in bringing joy to others. We are confident that the God he served will continue to use his gifts for wholeness and human betterment." The Scotland County Ministers' Alliance, March 4, 1983, Grover D. Nelson, President. Being an enthusiastic civic leader, Sam exemlified his concern for humanity by organizing the N.A.A.C.P. Chapters in Newport New, Va., Reidsville and Lenoir respectively. Served as Chairman of the Scotland County Board of Elections; served for several years as Precinct Registrar, was a charter member of the Scotland County Economic Social and Political Affairs (SESPA). One lasting and very serious minded effort to his credit, he organized and initiated the plans for the Tri-City Optimist Club in Galilee where he served as a member of the Board of Directors. At the last meeting of the B.M.C.R. which conveniend at the Cool Spring United Methodist Church, Laurinburg, on January 29, he relinquished his position as president for the second time around to Alfonza Henry of Hamlet, N.C. At the time of demise he was active on the Board of the Scotland County Literacy Council, and Vice President of the Scotland County Democratic Party.

To cherish his memory, he is survived by his wife, Marguerite J. Townsend, one son, Samuel Lloyd, Jr. both of the home in Laurinburg; three sisters, Mrs. Viola McPhatter of West End, N.C., Mrs. Everta Thomas and Mrs. Doris Chavis of Maxton, nephews and many relatives and friends. He now rests in the family plot of the home church, Piney Grove Cementery,

HUBERT RICHARD ASHMORE 1895-1983

T could elaborate on my father's accomplishments - some I learned only after his death, for my father did not live in the past and secondly, he was a modest man.

The greatest thing about my father is that he loved God. He literally worshipped Him in the truest, highest sense. So much so that he was not even tempted to play the church politics. He refused.

People - God's people - were the most important things to him. If were not for my mother, I suppose they never would have had any money, for money just was not important to him. He would give it away. I can see him now on many a front porch shelling peas and visiting parishioners. There is no way of knowing how many trips he has made to Duke Hospital to take some poor member of one of his churches who could not get well locally and needed additional medical care.

Another way my Dad showed he cared was to memorize the marriage ceremony, which made it so personal, so meaningful to all those who participated.

My Dad was the kindest, the most caring person I have ever known. was a man of principles. What he believed, he stood firm and no one was going to convince him to do what he knew was wrong. This is not to say he was not a good listener...he was.

He was a strong family man. Dad lived on a farm as a child and he had four sisters and three brothers. When one of his brothers-in-law died during the depression and left his sister with three small boys, he sent money out of his meager salary to support them.

Yes, I could tell you he graduated from Duke and that he was President of the Debating Club at Rutherford College, but I would rather tell you about the goodness, the caring, the love of Tod, mankind, and family. That is how my Dad would rather be remembered. He made a difference.

Dad will be missed by those who loved him - and there are many - but Dad had no fear of death. He, I am certain, is rejoicing to be with his Master, his God.

-Respectfully and lovingly submitted-

> JONATHAN CHARLES HILL 1911-1983

"He being dead yet speaketh," (Hebrews 11:4). Rev. Hill dearly loved to preach. And realizing his imminent death, he dictated his finalsermon to be preached at his funeral. "By the time of the funeral, no matter what the preacher might say about him, the sermon has already been written by the life that has been lived." There are two ways a dead man speaks: Every one shall stand before the judgement seat of God, and every knee shall bow, of those in heaven and earth under the earth, and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father. (Romans 14:10-11; Philippians 2:10-11)

Secondly, the life that has been lived, both good and bad, remains as a testimony which speaks for itself. The lives of many biblical men were summed up, and are remembered, in only one line. Abel "was righteous," but of Cain God said, "Thy brother's blood cries out." Enoch pleased God. To Saul, "You have done foolishly." David "was a man after My own heart." Christ said of Judas, "it would have been good if that man had not been born."

The Dash Between The Dates

Memorial Day was over now, All had left and I was alone. I began to read the names and dates Chiseled there on every stone. The dates were different but the amount the same. There were two on every one. It was then I noticed something, It was but a simple line, It was the dash between the dates Placed there, it stood for time. All at once it dawned on me How important that little line. The dates placed there belonged to God. But that line is yours and mine. It's God who gives this precious life And God who takes away; But that line between He gives us To do with what we may. We know God's written the first date down Of each and every one, And we know those hands will write again. For the last date has to come. We know He'll write the last date down, And soon, we know, for some. But upon the line between my dates

(Lucille Britt in The Log of the Good Ship Grace)

"The most valuable possession a person can have and leave is a testimony," concluded Rev. Hill's final sermon.

I hope He'll write "well done."

God wrote down the first date of Jonathan Charles Hill on October 31, 1911. Born to the late Charles Gaston and Jan Quintina Sorrels Hill, the youngest of five boys and four girls, he grew up in Forest City in Rutherfordton County. There he grew up and went to work at Cannon Cotton Mill in Kannapolis. It was there, too, that he met and married the Former Willar Tate on October 4, 1931. They had two sons, Jonathan Adonerian (Don), and Gary Gene; three grandsons, John, Roy and Eugene.

Rev. Hill received his theological education at Fruitland Bible Institute in Hendersonville, then continued taking courses at a school in Tennessee, at New Orleans Seminary, and at Duke Divinity School in Durham.

North Kannapolis Baptist Church was the first church Rev. Hill served, as associate, beginning in 1939. Soon thereafter, he and his family established Black Willow Park Baptist Mission Church in Kannapolis, beginning under a tent, after which a temporary building was built. (It has since grown into a large healthy church!) Other churches pastored by Rev. Hill were Phaniels Baptist Church in Rowan County, Grace Avenue Baptist Church in Kannapolis, Temple Baptist Church in Hickory, and Falling Creek in Grantham near Goldsboro.

In 1974 Rev. Hill joined the United Methodist Church, and was appointed to Asbury UMC in Washington, NC, where he served for five and one-half years. In 1979 he was appointed to the Piney Grove - Hickory Grove - Zion Charge at Siler City, where he served one yearbefore failing health necessitated his retirement. He and Mrs. Hill settled in Randolph County near Siler City.

But preaching was his first love. And retirement could not keep Rev. Hill from preaching the Word of God. Though restricted by worsening emphysema, ne continued to preach. During 1980-81 he served as interim pastor at New Salem Baptist Church in Pittsboro. In 1981-82 he served as interim pastor at Fellowship Baptist Mission Church in Siler City.

Rev. Hill dearly loved to preach. His preaching was always biblical and evangelical, based on his love for God, the church of Jesus Christ, and his deep desire to see the church grow, not only in size and building, but also in health and strength. One major strand of his ministry was that of leading churches in building programs. He put his whole mind, soul and body into preaching. He really loved the church with all his heart, and loved preaching with all his heart. The Hill family was always very close, and all were vitally involved together in the ministry.

God wrote the last date down. Rev. Jonathan Charles Hill died March 6, 1983 of emphysema. But his most precious possession remains, his testimony. "He being dead yet speaketh." He wanted his funeral to continue to direct people toward the love and salvation of God in Jesus Christ. His sermon was already written in the life and ministry he lived. And surely upon the dash, the line between his dates, God has written, "well done. "

> MILDRED COZART BRANTLEY 1903-1982

Mrs. Mildred Cozart Brantley was born October 19, 1903 in Clayton but moved to Raleigh, NC, as a girl. She graduated from the Durham Conservatory of Music and taught prior to her marriage to R. T. Cozart. Later they established the Cozart Packing Co. in Goldsboro over 50 years ago. After Mr. Cozart died, Mildred became the president and the owner of the company, a position she held until the time of her death. After Mr. Cozart's death, she was married to Dr. J. F. Foster of Sanford who lived only a short time after their marriage. It was in 1971 she and Dr. Allen P. Brantley were married. For the last three and one half years, she was confined to the Guardian Care Nursing Home in Goldsboro.

She was a member ot he St. Paul United Methodist Church in Goldsboro until the time of her death. She was very active in the business and social and religious life of her community. She was very gracious and kind to everyone and was a very gentle and sincere person who loved people with increased devotion.

Mildred loved music and played her piano and organ with finesse that revealed a spirit and soul in tune with celestial harmony that filled her life with far-reaching overtones of perfect tranquillity producing an internal calm that few people possess. Her husband noticed the ease with which she touched the keys of the organ and wrote:

Her organ with it's many keys She touched with grace and ease Was built with special design For the sounds of melodies divine.

The organ inspires the soul To attain a higher goal And seeks to open the heart For a message it tries to impart.

The music can thrill the soul With hymns which often told The struggle of the human race And the story of" amazing grace."

Mildred loved her church with increasing devotion and was always in attendance when the Sabbath came. She was very sensitive to the leadership of the Holy Spirit in one's life and she followed that leadership through her whole life. Mildred truly lover her husband, Allen P. Brantley. I was in their home the day before he had to take her to Guardian Care and the whole time that I was there, she sat close to him and seemed to find her strength in his love.

Dr. Brantley transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1933 and served the following appointments: Wilmington: Trinity; Chapel Hill: University; Sanford: St. Luke; Elizabeth City: First; Goldsboro: St. Paul; Henderson: First; Burington: District Superintendent; Executive Director of

GAIL SOULES BRADLEY 1917-1982

Gail Soules Bradley was born in 1917 in Long Beach, California, the daughter of John B. and Margaret Emory Soules. She was a young child her father, then 33, felt called to the ministry, finally earning his degree at Drew in 1926. Deeply committed to human welfare, inspired by the Social Gospel but never forgetting the reality of sin in individuals and in society, he imbued Gail with a lifelong dedication to the cause of justice. As she grew up, she became active herself in the ministry of the church, especially in the Epworth League, in which she was chairman of social concerns. All her life the words of Matthew 25 remained her guide.

Gail earned the B.A. degree at the University of California at Los Angeles. Through her activities in the Epworth League she met David Gilbert Bradley, and they married in March, 1940. She moved to Evanston, Illinois, where David was studying at Garrett Seminary. While there she earned an M.A. degree at Northwestern University, writing her thesis on concepts of the Kingdom of God. She also received a Certificate from the Chicago Training School at Garrett, with highest honors.

They moved to New Haven, Connecticut, where David earned the Ph.D. degree at Yale. Gail worked during this time to help support him. David's first teaching job was at Westminster (now Western Maryland) College in Westminster, Maryland, and Gail also taught part-time in the psychology department.

In 1949, David earned an appointment in the Religion Department at Duke, where he still teaches, and they moved to Durham. Their daughter, Katherine Ann, was born there in 1950. Gail was affiliated with Duke Memorial Methodist Church and was very active in women's organizations at Duke, but the strong and central focus of her life's ministry began to appear when she joined the League of Women Voters in Durham in 1951.

It was through the League that Gail was able to exercise a ministry of service to others which made her a beloved friend to many, as well as a respected leader. While she was on the state board of the League, League helped win reform of the North Carolina court system and repeal of the Speaker Ban Law. But her concern went far beyond local issues, and she supported measures to improve the condition of people throughout the world. Amid all of this, her leadership encouraged other women to use their own talents to the fullest.

For Gail, these activities were firmly rooted in the Christian faith, and she sought consciously to follow the principle of the Law of Love. Her leadership at the local, state, and national levels of the League was an example of ministry in, and to, the world.

As a member of the National Board of the League, and later as its First Vice-President, Gail continued to be an inspiration to others by her leadership ability and her character, even to those who were unaware of its deeply Christian wellspring.

she was ministry After retiring from the National Board of the League, appointed to the U.S. Commission for UNESCO. She continued her especially in areas of international concern with the problems of hunger and poverty. She remained active in local and national concerns also, helping to organize the North Carolina chapter of the Women's Equity Action League, and she was a leader in the efforts to obtain ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment by the N.C. Legislature.

Gail's deep concern for social justice and for the rights and needs of human beings everywhere was a clear witness that the commands of the gospel can be carried out in actions, not just words; and not in the church only, but everywhere. Yet this dedication often left her disappointed with the institutional church and the lack of leadership that she saw in it.

institutional church and the lack of leadership that she saw in it.

The surviving members in Gail's immediate family are David G. Bradley, her husband, Katherine B. Johnson, her daughter; and John E. Soules, her brother. They, and the many whose lives she touched, will remember her always as a true minister of the gospel, as companion, as friend.

> LALIN ELLIOTT ASHMORE 1903-1982

My mother was first the wife of Hubert Richard Ashmore. She was the minister's wife in the finest way. Many, many times she taught Sunday School classes, was president of Women's Society of Christian Service, played the piano where there was no one else, Dad's best critic, visitor, kept the parsonages immaculate and did all the other things minister's wives are supposed to do.

When North Carolina let married women teach in public schools, Mother started teaching, which she continued until she retired. She was just as conscientious in the classroom as she was being the minister's wife.

Mother was the daughter of a Methodist minister, Rev. W. F. Elliott. She graduated from Duke University. Family ties were very important to her. She was especially proud to be the great granddaughter of Brantly York, founder of Trinity College, which later became Duke University. She was also very fond of her three grandchildren and looked forward to visits with them.

It is amazing how many "best friends" Mother had. She had close friends everywhere whe lived and she kept up with them until she died.

To summarize Mother's life in one word, the word would have to be service. She served well - her church, her husband, and in the classroom. The service given was of the highest quality, for Mother would not have had it any other way. The world - the part she knew - is better because of her.

HANNAH C. BROWN 1895-1983

More than anyone I have ever known, Hannah Brown came as near to becoming as she was in the mind of God the day God conceived her. She was a highly motivated person! Her motivation was not to compete with persons but to carry out the will of God in her life regarding her potential. motivation was deeper than mere survival because she wanted her life to be a witness to others whereever she left her footprints or her shadow lingered. This virtue expressed itself in a saintly little "ball of energy" that was alway positive and sure, bossy but never selfish, ever guilty of manipulating people for hew own wishes. However, she not above letting God manipulate them through her!

Hannah Brown was a very enthusiastic person in the literal the word: for the word "enthusiasm" means literally "in God." Since she had surrendered her life completely to the will of God she lived with the assurance that "all things work together for good with those who love God.' No one has ever inspired and influenced my preaching more from the pew than has Hannah Brown. For nine years she sat in her pew every Sunday. Sunday as she left with sparkling eyes and great enthusiasm, she would reach up and gently slap me on the shoulder saying, "That's telling it, or "That's your best sermon yet!"

Hannah Brown was truly a Saint of God, a noble and committed church woman, an encourager, and a motivator. She was warm and loving, yet years constructed of an enduring kind of courage and determination. For during the summers she operated a boarding house at Manteo doing all the cooking herself, cleaning, washing, ironing, bookkeeping, and serving as hostess and manager to finance a college education for all five of her children.

Nine years ago she came into my office saying that she wanted to plan her memorial service. For about forty-five minutes I listened to her and detail. Then on January 15, 1983 in the sanctuary of United Methodist Church we celebrated her life and wrote down every detail. Jarvis Memorial United ascension with a triumphant service of praise and thanksgiving and planted her body to rest in Greenwood Cementery in Greenville, N.C.

Hannah was born October 26, 1895 in Aurora, N.C. In a buggy on the way to a revival near Greenville on a moonlite night she won the heart of a young school teacher, Adrian Brown, forever. Shortly after their marriage Adrian and Hannah answered the call to the ministry and moved to the parsonage at Stumpy Point. For almost 50 years they served God together, His Church and His people. Their appointments were Stumpy Point, Ingold, Bynum, Robersonville, Manteo, Moyock, Yanceyville, Parkton, Bridgeton, Goldsboro, Grifton, Gaston, and Maury-Mt. Herman. Hannah was the mother of five children, Adrian, Jr., Virginia Beach, Va., Wiley Brown, Sr., Raleigh, Joe Brown, Sr., Greenville, Mary Jane Hall, Parkton, N.C., and James P. Brown, Norfolk, Va. There were also 19 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

The morning of the funeral I said to my wife at breakfast, "God doesn't make anymore people like Hannah!" But as I thought about it I had to retract my statement and say, "Yes, he still can make them like Hannah if only we will surrender ourselves to the touch of the Master Potter's hand completely as she did.'

For the last twenty years Hannah lived, loved, and ministered to people in Greenville and especially to the people in Jarvis Memorial.

Scott wrote:

"I sing a song of the saints of God Patient, brave and true, Who toiled and fought and lived and died For the Lord they loved and knew."

Since I became Hannah Brown's pastor at Jarvis Memorial, almost every minister and minister's wife I met always asked about Hannah Brown and they always responded to my report, "She is one of the great Saints of God."

ANNIE COVINGTON MANESS 1895-1983

Annie Covington Maness was born August 14, 1895 in Anson County between Peachland and Polkton, North Carolina. She was the eighth of eleven children born to James W. and Barbara Faulkner Covington. On July 4, 1912, Annie and Eli Carson Maness were joined in marriage. During their marriage the couple were blessed with seven children, one of whom died at two years of age.

E.C. joined the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1917.

Devotedly the Maness family served the following charges: Goldston, Cokesbury, Fayetteville, Bailey, Fuquay Springs, Jackson, Rose Hill, Chadbourn, Brooksdale, Pittsboro, Apex, and Walstonburg.

Retiring in 1957, the Manesses made Fuquay-Varina their home together enjoyed their retirement until January 17, 1968, when E.C. called to his eternal home. Annie stayed on alone in Fuquay until latter part of 1977, at which time she broke a leg and was unable to for herself. This was the turning point in her life when it was her decision to live with her daughter in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Annie, to those who knew her well, was a very outspoken person and voiced her thoughts freely. You did not have to wonder or guess how she felt about anything. Her loves and main interests were her husband, home, and children. She was a good mother and felt her place was in the home. A lovely lady she was having the appearance of a much younger person than she actually was.

Tiredness seemed to overcome Annie and, time and time again, expressed that she was just worn out. On February 17, 1983, Annie, our mother, left us here on earth to take her place in heaven and to join her mate she had while here on earth, our daddy. The funeral was conducted in Robbins, North Carolina at the Tabernacle United Methodist Church. service was performed by Rev. Allen Wentz, a former pastor while in Fuquay-Varina. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mother is sadly missed by each of us and those who knew and shared her love. Surviving mother are six children - Lewis Maness of Morehead City, N.C.; E.C. Maness, Jr., of Newport, N.C.; Albert Maness of New Castle, Va.; Margaret Maness Husel of Edmonton, Alberta, Cananda; Ivey Maness of Asheboro, N.C.; and Ruby Ann Maness of Gastonia, N.C. Also surviving are fifteen grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

ESTHER DAVIS HALL 1894-1983

Esther Carlyle Davis Hall, the oldest daughter of the late Daniel alloway and Mary Elizabeth York Davis, was born in Kinston, North Carolina Pebruary 10, 1894 and departed this life February 19, 1983 at Duke Iniversity Medical Center, Durham.

Her walk with God began in early childhood and continued throughout her life. Following Christ she developed a deep and abiding faith which greatly influenced her. She found happiness in serving as a church briganist, a place which she filled for more than sixty years until her sight began to fail. In the last months of her life the words of this great hymn stayed with her constantly:

> "Guide me, O thou great Jehovah, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty: Hold me with thy powerful hand."

On January 18, 1917 she was united in marriage with Rev. James W. Hall, a minister whom she had met as a student at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh. Together they served churches, he as minister and she as organist, in Tennessee, Kentucky, and North Carolina of another branch of dethodism. In 1926 they were appointed to St. Peter's, Oxford.

As a minister's wife, Mrs. Hall was often called upon to do many chings in connection with Church work. She was active first in the Woman's Gociety of Christian Service and later in the United Methodist Women. first and foremost was her work with the choir. She was truly a helpmate for her husband.

Surviving her are a daugnter, Mrs. Mary H. Scott; a son-in-law, Frank P. Scott; two grandchildren, Mrs. Sandra S. Harris and Frank P. Scott, Jr.; three great-grandchildren, John M. Harris, Jr., Frank P. Scott, III, and Prachele R. V. Scott.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall were conducted at St. Peter's United Methodist Church on February 22, 1983 by Rev. David R. Dunlap, Pastor and other ministers. She was laid to rest beside her husband, Rev. Hall, in the Zora Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Bullock, North Carolina.

ANNA BELLE MORRIS FIELDS 1902-1983

Anna Bell Morris Fields was born in Cleveland County, North Carolina, on May 29, 1902, and died at The Methodist Retirement Home, Durham, North Carolina, April 25, 1983. She moved with her family to Carthage, North Carolina, in the late

She moved with her family to Carthage, North Carolina, in the late teens. In 1920, Anna was married in Carthage to Paul Henry Fields. To this union were born three children: Paul Henry Fields, Jr. (deceased), Ann Fields Rouse of Wilmington, North Carolina, and Joseph Browning Fields of Asheboro, North Carolina.

In addition to Ann and Joseph, Anna is survived by one brother, Ernest Morris of Morganton, North Carolina, two sisters: Mrs. Gertrude Whisnant of Lawndale, North Carolina, and Mrs. Edna Hull of Morganton, North Carolina, and seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Anna shared with her husband, the Rev. Paul Henry Fields, ministeries at Jenkins Memorial in Raleigh, Oxford Circuit, Grifton, Jonesboro, Rose Hill, Rosemary Church in Roanoke Rapids, Scotland Neck, U.S. Army Chaplain Services in World War II, Southport, Winter Park in Wilmington, and as an Associate Minister at College Place United Methodist Church in Greensboro. Anna with genuine faith in God dedicated herself to a strong supportive christian role to Paul's ministry in the several churches he served.

My warm memories of Anna go back to my childhood. From the verv beginning of this acquaintance a lasting bond of love and friendship grew through the years. Her qualities of love, warmth, patience, understanding of others will be remembered by all who knew her, and and especially will her children have wonderful memories of a mother's love and devotion to their rearing in a home dedicated to our God.

Anna loved to keep in touch with the family and friends by letters, cards, visits, or telephone conversations. By whatever means of contact she used, it was underscored by "God Bless You."

The funeral service was held in College Place United Methodist Church, Greensboro, North Carolina, with the Rev. Robert S. Smith in charge, assisted by the Rev. Jesse G. Wilkerson, a friend of the family for many years. Anna was laid to rest by her husband in Westminister Gardens in Greensboro, North Carolina.

As a final tribute, it can be said of Anna Bell, "Well done thy good and faithful servant."

North Carolina Conference - 1983

(The following report was presented to the Conference through a pictorial slide presentation.) The report that follows is the narration by Barney L. Davidson, President of the Cabinet, 1982-1983 Conference Year.) The Editor

Bishop Cannon and members of the Conference, twelve Superintendents have labored and worked together, and I am happy to bring this report to you and to all our people on their behalf. The Cabinet would have express to Bishop Cannon and to the Conference our thanks for the privilege

This year our report will be visual with slides as well as with words. We hope to take you across our Conference to the largest and to the smallest congregations - all equally important in the eyes of God, hoping this will make real to you some of the great work done by our combined efforts.

Ours is a great Annual Conference in many ways. We have a great episcopal leader, and we rejoice that our Bishop Cannon serves as the elected President of the World Methodist Council. He is the chief executive of that body that brings together sixty-three churches in the Methodist tradition from ninety countries of the world.

Bishop Cannon is a leader of Methodists all over the world. He made an episcopal visit to India of some three weeks. He has been selected to speak for all the bishops at General Conference when he brings their Episcopal address. He has just published a new book, The Gospel of Matthew. He made of serving our Lord and His Church.

Our Bishop has continued to lead us as we stress evangelism as the most important work that we do. Our task is to lift up Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world. From our combines efforts we have a net gain for 1982 of 1157 members. We took in 8,892 members.

Some of the outstanding work in evangelism was as follows: Trinity Church in Jacksonville had a net growth of 194 members during 1982 and already has over 70 this year. Riverside Church in New Bern added 85. Raleigh District and New Bern District had the largest growth. The New Bern District had a gain of 3% growth in one year. Two new congregations were established in the Raleigh District, Saint Francis in Cary and Asbury Church on the Creedmore Road.

The Southern Pines Church also had a great growth with 81 members that joined in 1982.

There were 3,298 baptisms in our churches in 1982, many of which were infants.

Evangelism and Missions are bound together as we proclaim the Good News. Work teams from conference districts went into foreign countries. The pastors from the Rocky Mount District went to Jamaica. Goldsboro District churches sponsored a Vietnamese refugee family. Duke Endowment is working through the Magnolia Parish ministry to Hispanic Migrant Farm Workers in Duplin County. Rocky Mount District pastors painted and repaired historic old Bethesda Church.

Our Conference did remarkably well in giving to others through Outreach Ministries in 1982. Even though in a deep recession in some areas and unemployment had reached high levels, our churches responded in a great way. The saying is true, "In The Worst of Times, The Church's Response Is The Greatest." The Rocky Mount District paid out 100%. The Burlington District paid out 99.5%. The Elizabeth City District paid out 99.3%. Our Conference Budget of $5,193,131 was overpaid by $ 818.00. A record Charles McAdams says he can't remember in our history. During this same period, the fall of 1982, the churches response to the 1983 Outreach Ministries again set a record. The Raleigh and Rocky Mount Districts accepted 100+. The Elizabeth City District accepted 100%. The Burlington and Goldsboro Districts accepted 99.8%. The Fayetteville, Greenville and Sanford Districts accepted 99.6%. The Durham District accepted 99.4%. Indeed, our Churches in the worst of times responded the greatest.

Our Conference has had a tremendous response and support of the Lay Rallies. The Burlington District had a very large attendance. The Goldsboro District had 729 present, the New Bern District had 720, the Elizabeth City District had over 1,000 present and the Durham District had 900.

One of the fine things that has happened to our Conference and to Methodism as well as the election of Dr. Dennis Campbell as Dean of Duke Divinity School. Our Seminary under his leadership is among the finest with his gifts and graces we believe it soon will be the very best in Methodism!!!

Our women are taking their places in serving our churches. Rev. Ruth Harper has just completed 6 years at the St. John - Gibson Charge in the Rockingham District. She is moving to Fellowship Church - Hamlet. Rev. Helen Crotwell has finished four good years at the Banks-Grove Hill Charge and is moving to the Wake Forest Church. No question about it - some of the finest work that is being done in our Conference is by our women ministers. We now have 27 serving in the Conference.

The parsonages in our Conference are among the very best. Glendon Church in the Sanford District and Calvary Church in the Rocky Mount District dedicated its parsonages'. Pleasant Grove in Rowland and Tyrell Charge in the Elizabeth City District built new parsonages. Siler City broke ground for a new parsonage. Farmville and St. John in Goldsboro purchased new parsonages.

Prospect Church near Pembroke is the largest Native American church in Methodism with over 800 members and a budget of $110,000. It had one of the largest Sunday Schools in our Conference. Another very active Native American church is Coharrie in the Fayetteville District.

Several churches dedicated buildings: these include: Mt. Olivet at Manteo, St. Matthews, Mt. Zion, Farmville, Nashville, and St. Luke in Sanford. There were also extensive renovations including Mt. Pleasant and Merritts Chapel both in the Sanford District, Carr Church in the Durham District, St. Pauls in the Rockingham District, also St. Paul Church in Goldsboro. Cameron Church added to its facilities by building a breezeway.

There were many new buildings: Edenton, Gardners in Fayetteville, Bethany on the South River Charge, and Epworth on the Clinton Circuit all built new sanctuaries. Pilmoor Memorial in Elizabeth City, built a educational building, as did Millers Chapel in the Rockingham District and Broadway which also built a new Fellowship Hall. Other churches building new Fellowship Halls include St. Andrews in Fayetteville, Mt. Bethel at Bahama, Mt. Helena in the Durham District, Cool Springs in Laurinburg, Luke near Laurinburg, and Beulah, Vanceboro and Siloam (on the Jamesville Charge) all in the Greenville District.

Building programs in progress in the Goldsboro District are Beston, Bethel, Four Oaks, Garris Chapel Jefferson, New Hope, Pine Forest, Kenly and Ladrange. North Raleigh Church built a large sanctuary. Also in the Raleigh District the following churches were in building programs: Gillburg, Millbrook, Zebulon, Apex and Hayes Barton. In the Rocky Mount District, New Hope Church on the Roanoke Charge dedicated its educational buildings, Woodland built a new sanctuary and education building. Spring

Hope and St. James bought new organs.

Bethel Church in Alamance County built a new Fellowship Hall. was built under the direction of Duke Endowment. I don't think we appreciate just what Duke Endowment does for our Conference. A fully As an example, this building cost $110,000 and Duke Endowment will pay in the neighborhood of $25,000 when it is paid off. Shiloh Church in Alamance County built a building three years ago at the cost of $155,000 and Duke paid $38,000. More important than the money, we get the very best in buildings.

Al Simonton, Editor of the N.C. Christian Advocate is a member of our Conference. How fortunate we are to have not just an outstanding editor but with out question the very best in Methodism. There is no way to tell the great usefulness of this publication. We commend Rev. Al Simonton for his tremendous work. It needs all the support we can give.

In conclusion, I would like to say that as we celebrate the Bi-Centennial of Methodism, we remember what the Church is all about.

There never was any question as to where John and Charles Wesley stood. They were God's Men called for his purposes which they recognized and lifted up at every opportunity they got. We as God's people, Methodist Christians, must remember our heritage which goes far back beyond the Wesleys, to Jesus Christ who is the Savior of the World. It is "In him we live and move and have our being." "For there is no other name in heaven whereby we may be saved."

Barney L. Davidson

This past year has been a better year for the Laity in the North Carolina Annual Conference. We continue to have good leadership in the United Methodist Men, Women, and Youth. The number of United Methodist Men has grown and their strength as a service organization and a basis for outreach from the local church has increased substantially. The Women continue to provide the excellent leadership and missionary zeal always have. Our Youth receive good leadership from the Conference level and have continued to look for more programs and a better understanding of

Across the Conference there is a growing awareness of the "ministry of the Laity" and growing need for our ministers to channel and direct this rising lay movement into service and evangelism for our churches.

Across the Conference there is a growing awareness among the Laity of the need for better organization. To this end, two Associate Conference Lay Leader will be appointed to share some of the many representative functions that your Conference Lay Leader has. With two Associate Conference Lay Leaders, the Conference Lay Leader will be of more service to the districts and the local charges.

Each of the districts is also encouraged to consider appointing Associate District Lay Leaders to involve more lay persons in the program and the connectional experience of the church. More knowledgeable lay persons are needed who know the structure and program of the church. Hopefully, by bringing more persons into leadership roles and continuing to stress the Lay Speaker Program, the church can encourage and develop this kind of Lay leadership across the Conference. Most of all, there is a sense of excitement occuring in several of our districts as they begin t.o realize what their organizations can do. A good example is the Rockingham District. Under the leadership of Dotsy Reynolds during the past two years more than 100 persons have completed the basic lay-speaking course another 40-50 have finished an advanced course. These lay persons are looking for more advanced courses on the program, structure, Methodists beliefs, ritual, and a better understanding of the Bible. The Rockingham District is planning to continue advanced lay-speaking training. District also provides training for Charge Lay Leaders.

The Laity continue to emphasize the Ten Dollar Club. hope the Conference will see the time when there will be 7,000 members in the Ten Dollar Club. A ten-dollar-club call would then produce $70,000 to help one of our churches continue to grow. Now there are over 3500 members, 1/2 the goal of 7,000. It doesn't seem too difficult to reach 7,000. Clearly, all twelve district lay rallies will push hard to strenthen the Ten Dollar Club, that goal will be reacned.

Two areas of major importance need the attention of the laity.

Two areas of major importance need the attention of the laity. long we have consciously or unconsciously used words and organizations which tend to separate us. The Laity must deliberately stress our unity as lay Christians, using inclusive language cooperative organizations. We must stress our Christian goals and and commitments which we have in common rather than the difference in age, sex, race or other catagories. We must be practicing Christians inclusive supportive of all. Then, we will meet our organizational needs.

Second, there is a great need in the local church to understand the connectional church. Many who have a better understanding of the larger church and it's boards and agencies that others have this knowledge also. There is a great void understanding. The Reader's Digest and 60 Minutes only demonstrate our lack of understanding of ourselves.

Each church and each district should attempt a continuing, regular program to expand the individual lay person's understanding of the outreach and organization of the United Methodist Church. The Durham District conducted a "project understanding" for one weekend and it was most successful. Primarily it showed how needed the program is. It was a beginning, but much more needs to be done in Durham. We need to advanced Lay Speaker courses dealing with our general church structure

There needs to be a class in the January workshops to instruct us on how and where to get information to become more knowledgeable. Summer school needs to conduct classes over and over again on Program and Structure in the General Church.

Bishop Cannon, I have enjoyed working with you and your cabinet, Program Council Staff, and the District Lay Leaders. Many Lay persons have asked questions of me--your staff has responded quickly and effectively. I look forward to a growing "ministry of the laity" under the leadership and direction of our ministers.

The theme of United Methodist Women for this year is, "Love is Sharing," the last emphasis of the quadrennial theme, "Love Made Visible." Sharing denotes interaction between people on many levels and that is what United Methodist Women have been about.

At the 10th Annual Meeting held the first week in October at Methodist College, Ethel Born, Vice-President of the Women's Division, shared with the 575 women in attendance some experiences from her visit with Christian the 575 women in attendance some experiences from her visit with Christian women in the Middle East and reaffirmed the need today for Peace and Justice. The Love Offering of $10,670,04 was shared with the 3 Missional Projects in our conference, Walnut Terrace Child Development Center, Fayetteville-Harnett County Project and Robeson County Church and Community Center. The memorials of $10,439.93 given at the Candle Burning Service allowed us to share in the mission program of the church for 5 hours, 49 minutes and 43 seconds. The Conference Study Jewel was presented to Elizabeth City District for having the highest % of units completeing the Mission Studies. The Membership Banner, awarded to the district that has the most units with a 10% increase in membership went to the Goldsboro District. That district also received the Reading Program Banner for having the most people complete Phase I of the program. Total membership of the Conference is 27,780 and increase of 450. A budget of $338,500 was adopted for 1983.

The Purpose of United Methodist Women is to be a community of women who know God and experience freedom as whole persons in Jesus Christ. To this end Conference, District and local retreats and Day Apart services were held, Bible Study was conducted, Intercessory Prayer groups and Prayer chains were formed using the Prayer Calendar.

Another part of our Purpose is to, "Develop a creative supportive To fulfill this part of the Purpose, Love was shared as 80 fellowship." young women "39 and Under" spent a week end considering the theme "Through It All - God," as a Workshop on Racism was conducted for the Conference Leadership, as women attended a class on Human Rights at Conference Summer School; as women on the local and district level focused attention on Women in Crisis situations such as abuse, hunger, poverty, women in prison, aging and singles. Tapes of each month's issue of Response were provided for those who cannot see to read. This program will continue and tapes can be secured from the Media Center or the district president.

The last part of the purpose of United Methodist Women is to "expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church." A Leadership Development Workshop trained conference leaders, DOIT Day trained district leaders, District, sub-district meetings and Cluster Groups helped local women expand their concepts, 35 local and district vice-presidents from churches of small membership attended a workshop at Lake Junaluska. Information provided by the Mission Studies, KEDE, the conference newsletter, and district newsletters help women grow and the more they grow, the more they share love.

Love is sharing our financial resources. The fiscal year ends December and in 1982 the Conference Treasurer sent $390,446.10 for miss programs in North Carolina and throughout the world. This does not include what the 694 units spent in local mission projects. Again this year funds from the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial Offering were granted in the North Carolina Conference. The emphasis was "Support the Struggle Against Racism." $18,200 was granted to Dateline Africa, in Durham and $15,220 for a Legal Justice Project in Robeson County.

United Methodist Women are in the midst of a Centennial Celebration. It will continue until 1986. Our foremothers had a dream. They believed in that dream and they shared all that they had to make it a reality.

Today United Methodist Women are "Committed to Mission Tomorrow - Building on Yesterday" and they have a dream. It is a dream of Love Made Visible in the lives of women around the world, a dream of justice, a dream of inclusiveness, a dream of equality, a dream of peace. An impossible dream, you say, not so, because United Methodist Women will continue to share that love which God so freely shared with us in Jesus Christ.

Catharine Vick

We are please to report that the United Methodist Men of the North Carolina Conference continue to strengthen in number and in service in the local churches and at district and conference levels. 1982 membership in chartered local church groups reached 7,124, for an annual 9.3% increase, and approximately $196,000 was raised and spent for projects, an increase of 24.2%. This growth in membership and outreach indicates that our men perceive fellowship and service within the church to be a priority as we decide how we will spend our time today.

We have some very active local church groups, and this activity appears to be prevalent whether the church has large or small membership. It is an inspiration to see men together for study and prayer, for fellowship in meals, for service in raising funds and in working to complete special church or community projects, for advancing the evangelistic mission of the Church. Recently in a church the United Methodist Men became the choir for a worship service, and the resulting special music was a real spiritual experience for those participating and those in the congregation. There is genuine excitement among the men in many of our local churches.

And this excitement has spread throughout most of our twelve districts, with organized activities to have district men participating in the expansion of Christian influence. The Fayetteville District has a project for improvements to Camp Rockfish; the Raleigh District is raising funds for a new chapel on the Louisburg College campus; the Sanford District has plans to provide a trailer for a residence for the minister at Lighthouse in Aberdeen; and other districts are planning specific project involvements. In addition, there continue to be district rallies and retreats to afford opportunities of broadening the Christian perpectives of our men.

In April the Southeastern Jurisdiction had a Heritage Weekend for United Methodist Men at Epworth-By-The-Sea on St. Simons Island in Georgia. Twenty attended from the North Carolina Conference, and it was my privilege to introduce our own Bishop Cannon for the Keynote Address to the 700 men present. His description and analysis of our roots in Methodism set the stage for the event, and we all felt a special identification with what he presented.

As we look ahead, we will continue to emphasize strengthening existing local church groups and forming new ones where non-existent. District organization in three of our districts needs special attention, and we have plans toward that end. At the Conference level we are projecting a United Methodist Men's Rally in the fall and will have information ready to send out soon.

The men are on the move, and the life of our Church will be the better by this increasing momentum.

J. Allen Norris, Jr. President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH REPORT TO N.C. ANNUAL CONFERENCE - 1983

I am proud to be here to represent the young people of the North Carolina Conference and share with you some of the good things that have happened during the past year.

The summer months are always filled with camps and workshops. The Design Teams for these events have planned wisely and we are offering another summer of special opportunities, beginning with the Appalachian Trail Hike and Youth Music Workshop in June, followed in July by Junior High and Senior High Workshops and ACS. In August, a Senior High Weekend is planned and in October, a Human Sexuality Weekend.

In February, response to LASER (Legislative Affairs: Study, Explore, Respond) was enthusiastic and we were able to hold this seminar for the first time in several years. 15 registered delegates discussed legislative issues and were permitted to attend legislative sessions. The United Nations Study Tour continues to be a popular event. 40 of us participated in March, with the theme centering around nuclear disarmament.

The format for Rally Day, April 16, was changed. Instead of an all-day program, we planned a two-hour Rally at Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, with Senator Robert Jordan as keynote speaker. A new Youth Service Fund puppet show was introduced at the Rally by the young people from White Plains Church, Cary, and Sara McMillan, conference youth treasurer. We have raised $3,000 of our $12,500 Youth Service Fund goal. In 1982, the North Carolina Conference youth made the ninth largest contribution to YSF in the nation, and the third largest contribution in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Youth Service Fund is raised by youth, spent by youth to benefit youth. It gives youth the opportunity to participate as a full laity in the United Methodist Church. YSF requires youth to go the second mile -- to give of their time and talent.

ACS - Annual Conference Session at Methodist College, July 10-15, is a most significant conference event. Every church is allowed a delegate. Please see that your church is represented, for it is at ACS that decisions are made, conference officers elected, and business matters taken care of. Behind a good conference program there must be good district and local Behind a good conference program there must be good district and local UNY activities. The 12 district organizations have done a super job of promoting United Methodist Youth through District Rallies, Lock-Ins, Athletic Events and Musicals. We extend special thanks to the District Coordinators and District Presidents...you have been great! Local youth groups have been involved in many study and discussion sessions, money-making projects for YSF, recreation, field trips, and retreats...all the things that help develop the whole person. This is what the Youth Fellowship is all about: developing the highest potential of each individual.

During the past year it has been my privilege to serve as youth representative on a number of Boards and Agencies. Through this experience I have learned much about the larger church, and have come to appreciate its far-reaching ministry. I thank you for this privilege and this learning experience.

I speak for the many youth whom I represent when I add a word of appreciation for the leadership of Mike Safley, conference Coordinator of Youth Ministries. He is our friend, our counselor, and our greatest resource person in time of need. Thank you, Mike, for all you do! Bishop Cannon, we appreciate the times that you have taken a day from your busy schedule to participate in our special programs. You have been most supportive.

And finally, wherever you are sitting in this big auditorium, if you are a minister or a lay person who devotes time to the youth program in your local church, accept this thanks for being there and for helping us along. It is the support and enthusiasm of the local church that has helped to introduce conference opportunities to young people, and the local church that has made the events happen. I am especially grateful to my local church and its youth workers for providing encouragement and love during my year as conference president.

Becky Auman, Conference President United Methodist Youth

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Bishop Cannon and members of the Annual Conference. I want to call your attention to the report found in your book of reports, pages 51-55. I bring you greetings from Lay Professionals who serve the church's

I bring you greetings from Lay Professionals who serve the church's ministry as Administrator of the Retirement Home, Church Business Administrators and Directors of Education and Music. We have had a most rewarding year of hard work. We have been able to develop a system of continuing education and a list of required reading to insure continued growth by professional skills. For this we are thankful. We are most excited to recommend the certification of Martha Jo Hollowell as Director of Music and Ann Marie Glisson to be consecrated into Diaconal Ministry.

I move the adoption of this report.

Richard J. Williams

The total commitment of lay persons called into full time Christian Service in the church is fulfilled when that person is consecrated a Diaconal Minister. These persons are required to fulfill the requirements of theological studies, Bible, church history, and United Methodist Polity. This enables them to have a full scope of academic background in ministry before they come to be consecrated.

These men and women serve the church in education, business administration, United Methodist home administration, and Music. They are required to give full time to their Christian Calling.

We are recommending the certification of Martha Hollowell to the position of Director of Music.

We are recommending the consecration of Ann Marie Glisson as Diaconal Minister.

This has been a good year for persons in Diaconal Ministry, have worked together in the local church. The Board of Diaconal Ministry has worked hard toward the requirement for the annual review for continuation in Diaconal Ministry and in the recertification of persons certified in music and education. They are requiring, beginning with the year 1983, eight (8) Continuing Education Units per quadrennium. These may be acheived through the usual education institutional channels or may in part be achieved using Conference Standard Unit for work acheived within the conference's events. Also, a reading list from the National Church is being used to encourage a good program of reading.

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Report to the 1983 Annual Conference

As our Conference representative on the General Council on Ministries, it is my responsibility to participate in the program planning of the General Church, to relate the North Carolina Conference to the various general programs, and to serve as liaison between GCOM and our own Conference Council on Ministries. It is a rewarding experience to serve in this leadership role and also to recognize that our Conference continues to be in the forefront in carrying out General Church programs.

With General Conference now less than a year away, the General Council on Ministries is much involved in designing the proposed Missional Priority for the new Quadrennium. I serve on the GCOM unit that has been given the responsibility to develop this priority and thus am in position to make our Conference viewpoints readily known. I have conveyed the comments that have come to me, as have representatives from other conferences, and it is now apparent that the 1985-88 Priority for the Church's attention will emphasize each local church within a concept of "The Church Alive." recognize the need in many instances to revitalize the local church, participate in new church development, to engage in personal evangelism, and to continue a strong emphasis on the ethnic minority local church. Between now and May, 1984, the General Council on Ministries will be refining the components of this important Missional Priority and will make them known in detail to Conference Councils on Ministry and General Conference Delegations.

In addition, GCOM will continue to monitor existing general programs and to study the multiple suggestions for emphasis and change. We have much to protect in the traditions of our Church, and as your GCOM representative I am dedicated to this principle; but it is good to know that we are able to consider new ideas and that we do not remain static as a people.

> J. Allen Norris. Jr. GCOM Representative

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES ANNUAL REPORT

Bishop Cannon and Members of the North Carolina Annual Conference: Greetings from the membership, organizations and staff of Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference Council on Ministries!

Let our first word be one of gratitude for the way you support the dictional structure and program. You provide leadership, Jurisdictional structure and program. participation, and money to enable the cooperative ministries which in many ways are the envy of the entire denomination. You furnish us Ernie Porter, Wallys Briley, Harley Cecil, Bishop W. Kenneth Goodson, Lawrence Lugar, Richard W. Pearce, Reginald Ponder, Ross E. Townes, Sam Wynn and others to guide the SEJ Council and Commissions. They are the "instruments of transfer" from you to us and from us to you.

You can be proud of the vigorous leadership which the Jurisdictional Council continues to provide. We promote the total program of the church and impact the region through the Four Commissions, Jurisdictional Lay Organizations, the Jurisdictional Institutions and the twenty-four Jurisdictional Association of designated Annual Conference Leaders. Our commitment, contained in the statement of purpose adopted by the Jurisdictional Conference in 1976 and re-affirm in 1980, is to our institutions...our heritage...the mentally retarded...all persons with physically handicapping conditions...communicating the good news of Jesus Christ through every means available to us including new technologies...fulfill our mission to every segment of society.....the growing urban centers...small membership churches wherever they are especially the ethnic minority local churches.

Some of the things you are doing because the Southeastern Jurisdiction has a viable Council on Ministries include:

Held a Convocation on the Family, a Convocation on Consultation on Prison Ministries and Penal Reform, A Consultation on Aging, on Urban Strategies, a Consultation on Farm, Food, Land and Human Justice in 1982.

> Three more Convocations are projected for 1983: United Methodist Men, Ethnic Minority Local Churches, Small Membership Church.

The SEJ United Methodist Women's Quadrennial Meeting is scheduled for Birmingham April 5-8, 1984.

A program sponsored by the SEJ Association of Conference Leaders in Evangelism to honor churches doing a good job in winning persons to the church by Confession of Faith and in church growth.

An amazing movement in the conferences to start new congregations.

The very powerful intercessory prayer movement "Forty Days of Prayer for Five Persons" during Lent of 1983, though many churches are involved at other times.

Beginning the "Heritage Center for United Methodists of the Southeast" and bringing our Jurisdictional collection together at Lake Junaluska.

Calling attention to the unique heritage of United Methodists in the Southeast as we "Celebrate Methodism."

Working with state, federal, community and other agencies in creating positive ministries for the mentally retarded and their families. We have arranged two Vacation Retreat Weeks for Mentally Retarded Adults at Junaluska.

Broadening our planning to champion the cause of persons with physically handicapping conditions. We have designed a "Freedom Celebration" experience at Junaluska over the 4th of July Weekend for persons with physically handicapping conditions.

Continuing our support of the Volunteers-In-Mission Program.

Encouraging and providing financial incentive assistance for small membership churches to improve their facilities.

Finding scholarships and other means of helping train leadership for ethnic minority churches.

Cultivating an interest in missions and support of Advance Specials.

Designing and promoting Jurisdictional Events at Lake Junaluska.

Producing and distributing the United Methodist Series of The Protestant Hour, a radio ministry with a 36 year history.

Producing for distribution via the Public Broadcasting Service satellite network the weekly television program "Perspectives" in cooperation with three other denominations who join us in the PRTVC.

Producing and distributing the SEJ United Methodist paper quarterly to keep every local church informed about what is happening across the Jurisdiction.

All of this is possible because of the strong commitment to regional planning and cooperation by the College of Bishops, the Conference Council Directors, and every Annual Conference. We are convinced that we can do some things better together than we can separately. That is the essence of The United Methodist connectional system. None try to go it alone. We go together.

No matter how fervently we desire to do significant things, without the financial commitment of local churches to the Jurisdictional Fund the structure and program would collapse. So we continue to be grateful for the support given by North Carolina Conference. According to Mr. John Laird, Treasurer, the North Carolina Conference paid 100% of the apportionment for 1982.

LAKE JUNALUSKA REPORT

Greetings!

Junaluska is in a sound financial operating position. We experienced a slight increase in numbers last year in spite of the recession. We anticipate a good 1983.

anticipate a good 1983.

Junaluska is doing more programming than ever before on a year round basis. Dr. Mark Rouch's work in continuing education and special programming is gaining wide recognition. Through his efforts a sizeable grant for continuing education for clergy women has been received.

Junaluska is in the best physical condition it has been in in years. This has come about because of the Junaluska Advance - an asking of $.50 per member of each local church in The Jurisdiction.

The Assembly does not generate capital funds within its operation - the primary source for these funds come from the Junaluska Advance. The Junaluska Advance since 1972 has brought in $6.5 Mt.

- Dredged upper portion of the Lake
- New primary sewer system
- Renovated the dam
- New Terrace Hotel
- Renovation of Center Section of Lambuth Inn

Other needs yet unmet -

We are deeply grateful for what these funds have accomplished - North Carolina 66% - ranks 13th in the 16 Annual Conferences. It is our hope the fund will be continued for a number of capitol development needs yet unmet.

Junaluska Associates are another source of income enabling us to do projects on building and grounds for beautification and improvement. 1000 Associates. 150 Life Members.

Junaluska Advisors - Marie Grusty will be meeting with these on a conference basis and we hope to have a Jurisdictional meeting next fall.

Trustees --- North Carolina Conference: Rev. Simeon Cummings - Dr. William King - Dr. Charles Mercer -

Come! We want you to be proud of your Jurisdictional Conference and Retreat Center and hope that every local church will come to accept ownership and take advantage of the programs there. Come See Us!

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The purpose of The Council is to (a) receive program recommendations from local churches, district agencies, Annual Conference agencies and the Jurisdictional and General Council on Ministries; (b) develop these recommendations into a coordinate program to recommended to the Annual Conference and (c) provide implementation for and administration of the coordinated program as adopted by the Conference. All Annual Conference program boards and agencies shall cooperate with and be amenable between sessions of the Annual Conference to The Council on Ministries in matters relating to the development, implementation, and administration of the programs.

More than 250 separate program and policy recommendations were received from various levels of the church. These were coordinated into 180 recommendations to be presented to the Annual Conference.

The Program Staff of The Council on Ministries is to be commended for their very faithful and effective work, which includes resourcing the various boards and agencies of the Conference; doing administrative work for these boards and agencies; being resource persons for district Councils on Ministries; and going to the local churches to preach, teach, train and provide resources. The staff from July 1, 1982, through May 31, 1983, has responded to more than 1,800 specific requests. They have been in more than 230 local churches during this time for various kinds of events. are grateful for their good ministries.

Concerning conference events, the January Workshops had the largest attendance in nine years, with more than 3,700 persons sharing in them. The lay rallies had an attendance of more than 9,000 persons. Summer School for August of 1982 had a 50% increase in attendance over 1981. The 1983 Summer School promises to be one of the best ever. A new structure for the Summer School Board of Directors was adopted by the Council on Ministries and will become effective following the 1983 session of Summer School.

The organization of CCOM program staff, effective June, 1983, will be six Associate Directors and an Executive Director, (See Page 1). The very efficient support staff working with the program staff makes an excellent team. The expanded use of the computer and word processing will make the program ans support staffs even more effective in serving the Conference, Districts, and Local Churches. This is our mission and purpose.

We are grateful to the councils and committees of the CCOM for their work, and especially to the Budget and Personnel Committees.

Evangelism and Church Growth are priorities that we must keep before us as the very essence of our ministry. We are proud of the record achievements of the three churches from each district that will be recognized at the 1983 Annual Conference. (See page 156.)

May all of our planning and work have the central aim and purpose bringing more persons into a redeeming relationship with Jesus Christ that causes us to be "change agents" in society even as we are changed.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

LOCAL CHURCH CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Local church-based Christian education is a major ministry in the North Carolina Annual Conference. "Variety" is a key description of the settings: although 51,952 are in Sunday Church School in an average week, nearly that many more (49,389) are involved in other ongoing study programs and short-term events. The downward trend in enrollment in the Church School has almost leveled off: in 1982, if each charge had enrolled one more person, we would have shown an increase. (The total Church School enrollment is 101,509.) The upturn is clearly within reach!

CAMPING MINISTRY

Camping ministry continues to be one of the most exciting ventures in Christian education in our Conference. The total attendance at our four camps for 1982 was 13,440, the highest in history. Camp Rockfish had the highest total of any of our camps; Camp Don-Lee had the largest summer enrollment; Camp Chestnut Ridge was the site of many of our "special groups" camps; Camp Kerr Lake attendance increased more than forty per cent.

A major beach protection project has been undertaken at Camp Don-Lee. Construction is underway on a residence for the manager-director at Camp Rockfish. The Fayetteville District United Methodist Men are conducting a campaign to build a swimming pool at Camp Rockfish.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

A large number of local church workers in education took part in education-related classes in the January Workshops; Intro-80's workshops reached another thousand in district meetings; the Conference Summer School, conference-wide youth ministry programs, and seven Christian Workers Schools were other events for Christian education, involving 1,441 persons. One special focus included a Consultation on Churches with Few Children Enrolled.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

ABSTRACTS OF METHODIST DEEDS - FIVE YEARS OF RESEARCH COMPLETED

Mr. Joseph W. Watson, assisted by the Reverend C. Franklin Grill, has completed a historic research project unique in all of Methodism. Over a five year period, the deed of all Methodist properties in all 56 counties of the conference were abstracted. There is now on record in the conference archives a storehouse of historic information gleaned from these deeds, including each deed transaction, names of trustees, origins of the churches, and vital dates.

In compiling these "Methodist Deed Abstract," Watson worked with over 13,600 deeds located in county courthouses and the State Archives. We owe him a profound debt of gratitude for his marvelous work.

Microfilm copies of the project are in the following locations:

N C Conference Archives, The Methodist Building, Raleigh, N.C.; Methodist College's library, Fayetteville, N.C.;
Louisburg College's library, Louisburg, N.C.; North Carolina Wesleyan College's library, Rocky Mount, N.C.; soon to be placed in the library of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N.C.

Persons interested in information about "their" churches may write Mr. Joseph W. Watson, 406 Piedmont Ave., Rocky Mount, N.C. 27801

PUBLICATION SLATED FOR "N.C. CONFERENCE HISTORICAL DIRECTORY," SECOND EDITION - Because of the findings of the Watson-Grill project, a second edition of the North Carolina Conference Historical Directory is being prepared for the Bicentenniel of Methodism in America, 1984. The new edition will contain corrections of the 1976 edition, and will include information about churches that have closed throughout the conference.

BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION, 1984 - In anticipation of the Bicentenniel of Methodism in America in 1984, the Commission organized a subcommittee to coordinate preparation. After working together for more than a year, it became clear that the magnitude of the task warranted more people and more financial support than the Commission had available. The subcommittee became the core of the newly created Bicentenniel Task Force of the Conference Council on Ministries. The leadership of both the subcommittee and the task force has been ably and creatively handled by the Reverend Lawrence Lugar. The report of the task force will appear separately from the work of the Commission.

BICENTENNIAL OF METHODISM IN AMERICA YOUTH ESSAY CONTEST: The contest will run through November 1, 1983, so that winners may be duly recognized through district and conference channels in 1984. Cash prizes will be awarded to the top three essays in both the junior high and senior high divisions. Contest rules are available from conference staff person, the Reverend Mike Safley, from commission chairperson, the Reverend Steven A. Hickle, and at the Archives and History table of Reeves Auditorium during conference.

GRANTS AVAILABLE FOR ETHNIC MINORITY CHURCH RESEARCH: For the second year, the commission is making available three $50.00 "start-up" research grants for ethnic minority church researchers. The grants are intended to stimulate research into neglected areas of historical work. Inquiries about the grants may be addressed to Steven A. Hickle, P.O. Box 457, Haw River, N.C. 27258

MEETINGS: The Commission held two regular meetings during 1982, at John Wesley Church (2/13/82), Fayetteville, and Rainbow Church (9/25/82) near Snow Hill. Eleven persons from the conference attended the SEJ Historical Society meeting a Wofford College, Spartanburg, S.C., where the theme was, "South Carolina: The Cradle of Black Methodism." The 1983 SEJ Historical Society meeting will be July 6-9 at Ferrum College, near Roanoke, Virginia.

GREEN HILL HOUSE CELEBRATION ANTICIPATED IN 1985: Within the bounds of our conference is the site of the first annual conference in America. The house, once belonging to Green Hill, is located in Louisburg. Descendants of Green Hill still live at the house. To commemorate the 200 years since that first annual conference, a special celebration is being planned.

PERSONALIA: The Commission on Archives and History takes note of the retirement of the Reverend Dr. James H. McCallum. He worked with the commission for many years, coauthoring with Linda Ado, To Re Faithful to our Heritage: Black Methodism in North Carolina. We are most grateful to him, and wish him God's richest blessings.

To our current COM staff person, the Reverend Ernest R. Porter, and to our cabinet representative, the Reverend J. Malloy Owen, III, we give thanks for their enduring patience and strong help during the year.

TASK FORCE ON HUNGER/HUMAN NEED 1983

AWARENESS AND RESPONSE: The Task Force on Hunger/Human Needs understands that it is to help create greater awareness of hunger and human needs that are international, national and local, and is to provide better understanding of causes, possible solutions and resources. Also, it is to help stimulate greater caring response to hunger ministry opportunities for giving, for effecting policy, for establishing creative hunger service programs, and for cooperative participation in pre-developed hunger and human need programming and advocacy.

DISTRICT TASK FORCES: To fulfill the above purposes the Task Force will continue to try to impact this conference with hunger/human needs concerns and ministry opportunities. We are establishing and will train District Task Forces on Hunger/Human Needs to help interpret hunger concerns on the local level and to stimulate greater response through the District Councils on Ministries.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS, INC. REPORT OF THE EDITOR

As this report "goes to press," we are extremely well pleased with the way our circulation has held up, considering the doubling of our postal rates in January 1982 and the subsequent large increase it occasioned in our subscription rates. Before the postal increase we had an average in 1981 of more than 26,000 subscribers with subscriptions peaking at more than 29,000 in the spring of 1981. Our subscriptions now number 20,659 and we are hopeful our annual February subcription campaign in the churches will boost this figure even higher.

This fall and winter I personally held meetings for our local church Advocate Representatives and ministers in all 26 districts in our two annual conferences. The meetings were an excellent beginning in the effort to have active, enthusiastic, local church Advocate Representatives in every local church.

One of the best tests of the readership of any newspaper, magazine, journal or print media publication is its ability to generate "Letters to the Editor." The Advocate probably runs more "Letters to the Editor" in its Reader Response columns than any other publication of comparable circulation. Our letters come from a wide variety of readers in all segments of society from one end of the state to the other. Just recently, for instance, President Friday of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill called to make a comment about one of our editorials. Fishermen at the coast, homemakers in the mountains, school teachers in the Piedmont... our readers are keeping up with the content of the Advocate and responding with their letters.

Local churches, the 26 districts and the two annual conferences have all been alert to send the Advocate their news and pictures. Most local churches have a reporter and a photographer who send in news and pictures. We consider local church news our highest priority.

The Advocate seeks to provide the two conferences with a lively, informative, inspirational, attractive publication by means of which they can disseminate their program emphasis to United Methodists across the state.

The Advocate continues to be indebted to its highly competent staff and the regular feature contributors without whose loyalty the value of the newspaper would be greatly diminished. Backing up these persons is the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., under the skillful and tireless leadership of the Rev. Donald Ellis of Greensboro. Board members have been faithful in their attendance at Board Meetings and diligent in the performance of their duties.

We have now learned that wherever the local pastor is supportive of the Advocate and has an active, enthusiastic, local church Advocate Representative, we receive execellent subscription support. If this could be said of all our churches, the Advocate would have a circulation easily in excess of 40,000.

We have confidence that the continued enthusiastic support of conference leaders will soon produce the type of support at the local church level which will meet our circulation needs.

I am delighted and humbled to be the editor of the official newspaper of our two conferences and predict that the ways and means will be issovered to maintain the Advocate as a vital communication tool for Jnited Methodists in North Carolina.

Recommendations

We recommend that:

- 1. A subcription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate will be held in February 1984 for both the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference, including at least one meeting in each of the 26 districts set aside specifically to train local church Advocate Representatives and pastors in renewal procedures, new subscription solicitation, news writing, and photography. February 26, 1984, is suggested as Advocate emphasis Sunday.
- 2. Each local church accepts as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership. For example, a church with 500 members would be expected to have a minimum of 50 families and/or individuals subscribing to the Advocate.
- 3. That the Advocate continue to offer special subscription rates for churches in which every resident family subscribes to the Advocate, and for churches in which every family on the Administrative Board subscribes to the Advocate. The former to be known as an All-Family Plan Church and the latter as an All-Administrative Board Plan Church. In small membership churches where the functions of the Council on Ministries have been combined with those of the Administrative Board to form an Administrative Council, the rates shall be the same as those for All-Administrative Board Plan churches. In All-Administrative Board Plan churches (including those with Administrative Councils) all other subscriptions may be entered at the special All-Administrative Board Plan rate.
- 1. Each local church be prepared to report to the 1983 fall charge Conference its willingness to participate in the February 1984 subscription campaign, reporting progress to date on reaching the minimum 10%-of-its-membership subscription goal.
- 5. Each local church nominate to the 1983 fall Charge Conference the name of a person to be its Advocate representative and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board or Administrative Council of that Church.

Plan of Publication

In keeping with the statement made to the two Annual Conferences in North Carolina at their last sessions concerning possible publication sethedules of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the Board of Publication meeting in Greensboro on April 6, 1983 voted to present the following two schedules for consideration and vote.

It should be pointed out that the decision of the Board followed an exhaustive study by a special committee appointed by Board president, the Reverend L. Donald Ellis. Also, two meetings were held with lay and clerical leaders from the two Annual Conferences. Their input was taken into consideration along with that of the special study committee.

The following plans would be effective as of July 1, 1983, which includes current subscriptions: (ADOPTED)

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

WE COMMEND OUR CONFERENCE COLLEGES TO YOU:

Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College each offer individual attention and a Christian environment in which a student may receive a liberal arts education that prepares him or her to make a positive contributio to society and be competitive in the job market. We hope you will encourage high school students in your local congregation to give serious consideration to attending one of these three fine colleges.

THE BLACKBURN SCHOLARSHIP:

Students planning to enroll as Freshmen at Methodist College, N.C., Wesleyan College or Louisburg College may apply by April 30 of their senior year in high school for the Blackburn Scholarship. This is for students with outstanding academic records and a record of service in the local congregation. Recipients receive $1250 a year which is renewable for four years if they maintain a "B" average at school.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIP:

A $500 Merit Scholarship is also available to Freshmen entering Louisburg College, North Carolina Wesleyan College, or Methodist College.

ENROLLMENT AT CHURCH RELATED COLLEGES:

There is a declining pool of high school graduates, and church related and private colleges are getting a smaller and smaller proportion of these. This calls for special efforts by Pastors, Work Areas on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, Local Churches, and our College admissions offices and Boards of Trustees. We hope you will help us by sending us at least one student from your charge this year.

SPECIAL STUDY COMMITTEE ON OUR CONFERENCE COLLEGES:

An in depth study was done of our three conference colleges by a special study committee, and the recommendations of this committee are new being implemented by the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; the Board of Trustees of the Colleges; and we hope by the local churches.

THANKS!!! We thank you for your increased support of these funds which are so vital to the cause of Christian Higher Education in the United Methodist Church. There are 548 charges in the N.C. Conference, and our goal is that each charge will receive an offering on United Methodist Student Day (Nov. 27, 1983 and Nov. 25, 1984) and include the Black College Fund in the benevolent giving of their local church. We have made significant steps forward in 1982, let's continue to move forward in these two areas in 1983 and 1984! Remember that 10% of our United Methodist Student Day Offering is returned to our Conference for Merit Scholarships. This means that $1,219.00 will be available in Merit Scholarship Funds in the fall of 1984 because of your increased giving.

*The request for funding for College Capital Fund in the 1985 budget, which is on current year funding and thus disbursed in 1984 as collected represents a significant step forward, but the money is to be applied to the debt payment on HEW and HUD bonds which the colleges have had difficulty meeting. This will pay in full the annual debt payment to HEW and HUD and allow the colleges to direct their resources for other causes. We hope the Conference will approve the full $352,700.00 for the College Capital Fund, for our special study committee reported this as the most significant and helpful thing we can do financially for the colleges.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE N.C. STATE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY - 1982

Perhaps it will not be perceived as an unfavorable description if I say that 1982 was a normal year. Since we are only in our third year of operation, we are pleased to have reached a state of "normalcy" so soon. This description does not imply that little has been going on. As a matter of fact, based on the annual reports of the campus ministries, this has been one of the most meaningful years ever on the individual campus. With one exception, the campus ministers have remained in place. The new reporting procedures involving the local district superintendents and an organized annual report from each ministry have worked well. The two conferences have cooperated to maintain a reasonable level of funding in spite of the tight budget. A new method of dealing with funding requests was developed by the chairperson of the Finance Committee, Dr. Charles Mercer, which has encouraged increased dialogue between the campus ministers and the State Commission. A new building, at N.C. A & T State University, was dedicated. This impressive structure will enable the campus minister there, Rev. Sadye Joyner-Milton, to serve the students at that university more effectively.

One area of special concern during the year has been the ecumenical ministry supported by the State Commission at Duke University. A special committee has been appointed to study this ministry and to recommend how the Commission can continue to serve Duke and the Methodist conferences best with the limited funds we have available. A final decision will be made by the Commission in 1984.

With God's help and the assistance of the Methodist conferences in North Carolina, the campus ministers are working in a meaningful way with many students in North Carolina. This work must continue.

Respectfully submitted, Clifford R. Lovin, Chairperson N.C. Commission on Campus Ministry May 30, 1983 This has been an awkward year, yet a successful year. First, Methodist College had a drop in student enrollment that resulted in a projected budget deficit of over 200 thousand dollars.

The Faculty and Staff responded wonderfully. Methodist College te the budget, economized at every level, and postponed some rewrote the purchases. I'm happy to tell you that the college will complete the fiscal year with a balanced budget.

Also, in spite of our budget limitations, the college purchased computers - 10 for a classroom to teach computer usage, 6 for а computerized learning lab in the Library, and 2 in the Materials Center in the Classroom Building.

In addition, the college replaced the roof on Horner Administration Building at a total cost of $ 26,000. $16,000 remains to be paid. We even managed a very modest pay raise, a new tractor mower, and provided $4,000 to both the Faculty and Student Government for intellectual enrichment projects during the year.

During the year the Trustees approved a new curriculum including:

accounting major, new business majors, and a Batchelor of Music Degree.

The Trustees commenced plans for a Capital Funds Drive. An outside consultant has been hired to advise the Trustees in this regard. consultant should make his presentations to the Trustees within 90 days

With a successful Capital Funds Drive, the Trustees plan to be able to complete the campus with the addition of an athletic complex, important, to raise endowment funds for scholarships to aid the students to come to Methodist College.

Methodist College has consistently persued scholarship funds for endowment. This year, through the efforts of our Trustees and friends over $250,000 has added to Methodist College Scholarship Endowment.

Next year Methodist College will fund $100,000 for scholarships from this endowment. In fact, the endowment is almost entirely gifts entrusted to the college to provide scholarships only.

The great need for scholarship help has prompted on Trustee to sponsor seven $1,000 to $1,500 scholarships for next year. In addition, Friday, Methodist College received notification of a gift of $100,000 endowed scholarships. That $100,000 is a challenge to be matched by the college raising another $100,000 for scholarships. I hope both these sums will be in hand in time to provide scholarships this Fall.

This year Methodist College modified its recruiting methods. Today, as a result, the college is measurable ahead in number of applications compared to last year at this same time. In addition. the number of reservation fees paid is greater.

The financial support of this Methodist Conference is the single support Methodist College has. Your continued attempts to direct students to Methodist are our best help other than our own recruiting Your continued efforts to encourage gifts for scholarship support efforts. are producing results for us.

The Trustees this year reaffirmed their commitment to continue Methodist as a small, good, liberal arts college with a vocational emphasis in business and education. The college has three main emphasis. First, a good program for our students; second, to strongly support the church and third, to strongly support the Fayetteville area.

For example - this past year Methodist College has sixty-two cultural events for our students and the Fayetteville area. Among them were: 5 symphony concerts, 2 symphonic band concerts, 2 dance theater productions,

5 dramatic productions.

Methodist College this summer will sponsor: 12 day camps for youth sports, 1 week East Coast Cheerleading Camp, 3 Computer Camps, Youth theater, Math and Science summer seminars for teachers, Our second "Shakespeare Summer", 5 United Methodist Conference meetings lasting as much as 5 days, 3 day summer school sessions, 2 Evening college sessions, 1 week Pentacostal Camp Meeting, South Atlantic School of Missions of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church.

This year over 25% of our graduates will go on to graduate school.

This June our prior graduates also earned three doctorates: a PhD Econ at Virginia, a M.D. and a J.D.

We are beginning to emerge now stronger by virtue of the support the Fayetteville area and this Conference.

We are yours and deeply indebted to you.

On behalf of the Trustees, the Faculty, Staff and Students, you.

Dr. Richard W. Pearce

It is with both pride and thanksgiving that I report to our Conference another good year for Louisburg College -- pride in our achievements an thanksgiving for the people who have made them possible. Since last Jumbe have seen successful completion of our Third Century Campaign surpassing the goal of $4.2 million for a new classroom building endowment monies, and on-going operational expenses. In January, exactithree year after the campaign was initiated, we celebrated what so many haprovided - a real vote of confidence in the mission of Louisburg College.

provided -- a real vote of confidence in the mission of Louisburg College.

Now the new E. Hoover Taft, Jr. Classroom Building has been completed at a cost of approximately $2 million, without increasing the debt of the College. We are in process of moving furniture and faculty offices an will have summer session classes beginning next week in this new facility
What an asset it will be to our instructional program, and what an imposin structure it is on our campus! We invite you all to see it.

The 1982-83 academic year, recently completed, was a good one in term of our program. Enrollment, although down slightly as expected, was stil at a high level, and our dormitories were essentially at capacity. We have continued to strengthen the basic curriculum designed primarily to prepar students in small classes with individual attention to achieve satisfactor transfer to a senior institution following the Louisburg Collegexperience. Our new micro-computer program is going quite well, as we see to broaden the educational opportunities for our students.

Although this report is a favorable one, it is obvious that we canno

Although this report is a favorable one, it is obvious that we canno afford to rest on any laurels. Future progress will require on-goin commitment by all of us, as we face further decline in the studen population, uncertainties over student financial aid, and the necessity to meet regularly debt expenses already incurred and rising costs operation. Louisburg College can affirm that it is meeting it obligations, but without the increasing commitment by the North Carolin Conference in both sustaining funds and capital debt retirement, our postition might be quite different.

Yes, we are proud, but we are grateful for you who make possible and worthwhile in the Christian perspective for so many.

REPORT FROM N. C. WESLEYAN COLLEGE

Bishop Cannon, Bishop Blackburn, Delegates and Friends: At North Carolina Wesleyan College we have been able to make some modest gain during a difficult period for small, private colleges. It is perhaps more difficult for the young institutions without a 200-year tradition and a vast network of alumni. It was just one year ago that we celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of our charter. About one month ago on May 7 we graduated the largest class ever. More than 200 students marched across the stage to receive their degrees.

In February we broke ground for the new Leon Russell Chapel. Standing apart from the other buildings, the Chapel will be an outward and visible sign of the church relationship we cherish, as education and religion together in the great tradition of Methodism are provided for our students.

The number of students we serve has remained nearly constant or hat increased slightly. But the number of traditional college students, 18-22 years old, attending college as full-time residents has decreased slightly Extension students in night classes have made up for most of this decline.

We continue to need your assistance in promoting your colleges amon, young people in your communities. Let me commend your good judgement it approving the Council on Ministries' Recommendation Number 13. As your recall, the recommendation call for each local church to support recruitment of students for our colleges by: a) providing a list of high school students; b) inviting representatives from the colleges to speak it local churches; c) encouraging high school students to visit our campuses and consider attending one of our colleges; and d) setting up scholarships to support students who enroll in one of our conference.

This is so important, for we must make our colleges visible. If you will help young students visit our campus, our records indicate that up to 50% will ultimately enroll.

Scholarship funds are essential to help close the tuition gap between he churh-related colleges and the public universities. Could your church rovide a full or partial scholarship to assist a worthy student from your ommunity to attend Wesleyan?

At Wesleyan we continue to fine tune an already strong academic urriculum to make it even better. This fall we are adding a new degree in omputer Information Systems and one in Special Education. May I call your ttention to a Hotel and Food Service Management emphasis in Business dministration. This program has great potential, for graduates are needed y the hospitality industry.

You are alway interested in finances, and I should tell you that we ontinue to spend less than we receive each year. This practice has llowed us to set aside funds for a modest reserve.

Many thanks to each of you for your continued support which undergirds ur programs of teaching and learning. It means much to us to know that ou are behind us with encouragement. We want you to be informed, nterested and involved with North Carolina Wesleyan College. ontinue to remember us in your prayers, make financial contributions when ontinue to remember us in your prayers, make innancial contributions when ou ar able, and direct promising students to us. At Wesleyan you have the otential for building a great United Methodist University in the decades o come. With your interest, involvement and investment and with God's lessings, that dream will become a reality.

You sports fans should know that our baseball team won the Eastern egional tournament and played in the College World Series, coming in third n the nation in Division III of the NCAA.

Thank you again and may God bless you all.

BENNETT COLLEGE AND THE BLACK COLLEGE FUND

Bishop Cannon, Bishop Blackburn, Delegates and Friends of the North arolina Annual Conference. I am highly priveleged to be allowed to be a art of this Higher Education Report. Bennett College represents a part of ne long standing commitment to education held by the United Methodist nurch. As it is with the other colleges of whom you have heard, we too re experiencing one of the difficulties associated with the declining tudent pool and the intense competition posed by the public tax supported nstitutions. We continue to make progress - no major building projects re underway, but we are registering a number of accomplishments in program evelopment.

Our programs in Pre-Medicine and Pre-Denistry, Home Economics Computer pience, Business, International Studies and Special Education provide for nstruction and competencies in areas which address the current and future bb market. One often hears the question why Black Colleges? This was more loquently answered by that lady last commencement - who, watching as her ughter marched acrossed the stage to receive her diploma from me and lake my hand, threw up her hands and shouted - "Thank You, Jesus" - no one lows what she had been through - what sacrifices she had made to see that y. That's why Black Colleges. Your contributions make this possible! or reached 67% in 1982 - we hope you make it 100% in 1983.

I am pleased to note further the alumni who gave $7800 to fund three 2600 scholarships; and the little 86 year old lady who was never blessed th more than a 6th grade education; worked in tobacco - when North and orked as a domestic. Among some material wealth and retiring to a town ar Greensboro - made a gift of $10,000 to endow a scholarship for a need

Par Greensboro - made a gift of $10,000 to endow a scholarship to a need tudent to get a better chance.

Bennett College is grateful to the North Carolina Conference for the brdial relation we hold within the family of Colleges - and the Council or Higher Education. We are thankful for your support of the Black blege Fund. We have had work to do and loads of it, but with your ntinued support we will make it. We solicit your prayers.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Duke Endowment was created December 11, 1924, when Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture. The purpose of The Endowment was to improve the quality of life in his native region. His vision that it could be done was extraordinary. The remarkable thing is that the targets he selected for his beneficence - education, health, child care, religion - remain the dominant concerns for the structure of any society that would transmute change into progress.

The Duke Endowment continues to be an instrument for the expression of its founder's aspiration to contribute to the betterment of mankind. Through grants of money and the guidance of wise counsel, The Endowment has Joined its efforts with many institutions and individuals in the fields of education, hospitals, child care, religion and related areas. Indeed, in the history of The Endowment, there are few citizens in the broad expanse in North Carolina and South Carolina whose lives have not been touched in some way - large or small - by the programs in which The Endowment has been a participant or a catalyst. Behind it all stands the figure of James B. Duke, whose incredible business acumen made possible the resources for the The Endowment and whose visionary humanitarianism set the pattern for its operation.

The purpose of this report is to call attention to what has been done through the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment in the past year. Of course, on the the major areas of the Rural Church Office is to work with rural United Methodist churches in their building programs. In an effort to stimulate new and creative church buildings, this past year has seen The Duke Endowment involve itself in a regional conference of the Interfaith Forum on Religion, Art and Architecture. In November a conference was sponsored by The Duke Endowment, Duke Divinity School and the Interfaith Forum on Religion, Art and Architecture at Duke University. Over 140 persons attended the conference and were stimulated by the resource people in the areas of worship, liturgy, art and architecture. In addition to a number of architects who were invited, church judicatories as well as local church laymen and pastors were invited to participate. The building of churches has always been one of the ways in which people express their faith, and it is the hope and dream and purpose of The Duke Endowment to assist churches to express that faith in their buildings in such a way that all the world will know their commitment.

The Duke Endowment reaches out in many ways to assist rural churches in addition to building programs. In the past year numerous continuing education programs have been offered for local pastors. In the course of the year 345 pastors have had the opportunity to strengthen their ministry through some type of continuing education. Not only has The Duke Endowment sought to assist pastors after they are in the local church situation, but it has also been involved in providing stipends for students to work in rural churches throughout the year. While the primary thrust has been to send the students to rural churches during the summer months, some scholarship help is available for those who can work on the weekends during the school year. Student pastors, who are appointed as full-time pastors as well as attend the Divinity School with a reduced course load, are also assisted with scholarship aid by The Duke Endowment. This past year 76 students were able to participate in the summer field program, 41 during the winter program, and there were 110 student pastors. Mr. Duke, seeing the significance of this kind of outreach, began providing some support for students some years before the Indenture was signed.

A very significant opportunity for local churches in the area of parish development. When any church or group of churches has a vision about some type of ministry in which it would like to become involved but for which it lacks adequate resources, The Duke Endowment is always available with incentive money to help them get the program started. Churches have been involved in various kinds of parish development programs from day care centers, to migrant ministries, to meals on wheels, to programs for battered children, to name only a few. The Office of Rural Churches continues to look for parish development opportunities in which to assist new and creative ministries in the two Annual Conferences in North Carolina.

At the request of the district superintendent, churches in promising rural situations can make application for limited grants to provide stronger ministerial leadership than could be provided through local churches or the Annual Conferences.

The Duke Endowment continues to assist Duke Divinity School as it seeks to prepare young ministers for work in the rural churches and also in providing continuing education. It gives support to the Divinity School by helping with the cost of providing adequate leadership in the Field Education Program and the Continuing Education Program as well as providing counseling for young people in the field experience.

Not to be overlooked is Mr. Duke's concern for, as he termed it, the "worn out" preachers. For a number of years before he signed the Indenture, Mr. Duke was providing funds for preachers who were no longer able to continue their work. Each December, pastors who have retired from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conference receive a grant from The Duke Endowment based on the number of years they served in the Annual Conference. From the letters of appreciation, Mr. Duke's concern were well-founded.

James B. Duke regarded religion as one the greatest civilizing influences for society. He place preachers in the front rank of those who "by precept and example can do most to uplift mankind." He knew what the Methodist circuit rider, the nineteenth century's rugged carrier of the gospel through the sparsely settled rural landscapes, meant to his own family heritage. The provisions for rural Methodist churches and aid to retired ministers included in The Duke Endowment represented what he felt was a personal Christian duty. He was confident that rural Methodist churches were where, "we were to look in a large measure for the bone and sinew of our country." The Duke Endowment today continues to try to fulfill Mr. Duke's concern and dream.

As a leader in theological education, the Duke University Divinity School has a major impact upon the life of the church. The United Methodist denomination and this Conference lend vital support which is greatly appreciated. We gladly share several recent, important developments regarding our increasing effectiveness in training men and women for Christian ministry.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT:

Since Dr. Dennis M. Campbell became Dean, December 1, 1982, four persons of extraordinary ability and promise have been named to the Faculty:

Geoffrey Wainwright, currently Roosevelt Professor at Union Theological Seminary, New York, comes as Professor of Systematic Theology. Dr. Wainwright is a minister of the British Methodist Church. He is a theologian of international distinction. His most recent book is Doxology: The Praise of God in Worship, Doctrine, and Life. He has extensive experience in Africa, where he taught in the Protestant Faculty at Yaounde, Cameroon for six years. His six years in Africa were followed by six years of teaching at The Queen's College, Birmingham, England. He has been at Union for four years.

Grant Shockley, currently President of Philander Smith College, comes as Professor of Christian Education and Director of Black Church Affairs. Dr. Shockley brings experience as a professor, author, and theological administrator. His doctoral work was done at Columbia University. A distinguished faculty member at Garrett and at Candler, Dr. Shockley also served as President of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta. His most recent book is Black Pastors and Black Churches. Richard Eslinger, currently Director of Worship and Preaching Resources for the United Methodist Board of Discipleship, comes as Associate Professor of Christian Worship. Dr. Eslinger, whose Ph.D. is Resources for the United Methodist Board of Discipleship, comes as Associate Professor of Christian Worship. Dr. Eslinger, whose Ph.D. is from Boston, brings experience as a pastor (most recently at Old West Church, Boston), as a teacher, and as a leader in worship and preaching the represents the United Methodist Church in numerous ecumenical settings including the Ecumenical Lectionary Committee. He is grounded historically in theology and liturgy and is thoroughly familiar with recent developments in worship.

Mary McClintock Fulkerson comes as Instructor in Historical Theology. Mrs. Fulkerson is a graduate of U.N.C., Chapel Hill, of Duke Divinity School, and is completing her Ph.D. at Vanderbilt University. She is an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church. Experienced in local church ministry and in teaching, at Vanderbilt Divinity School, Mrs. Fulkerson is recognized as a scholar and teacher of uncommon potential.

The Divinity School will experience a number of retirements from the Faculty in coming years and thus we will need to continue an active program of development. There is much excitement about the enrichment which comes through the addition of new persons of excellence to an already distinguished Faculty.

STUDENTS:

Enrollment for the Spring 1983 semester was 368 students of whom 104 (28%) were women and 37 (10%) were minorities. The students came from 33 states and 6 foreign countries. Forty-six percent were from NC, followed by VA (8%), FL (6%), SC (4%), and TN (3%). Degree program enrollment included M.Div. 332, MRE 11, Th.M. 10, special 15. Of the 368 students, 276 (75%) were United Methodist. They were affiliated with 43 Annual Conferences. Seventy-six are from the North Carolina Conference. The Presbyterian (U.S.), Episcopal, Lutheran (L.C.A.), and Southern Baptist churches each had eight or more representatives. The remaining 58 students were affiliated with 26 other denominations. The median grade point average for the entering class was 3.2 and median age was 23. Over eighty percent of the graduates are entering parish ministry.

NEW ENDOWMENTS:

Three new endowments were inaugurated in April. The Jameson Jones Endowment will enhance our programs in practical theology. The Robert McCormack Endowment is a scholarship fund for ministerial candidates from rural churches. The Annabel and Morris Williams Endowment Fund is a major gift which will enlarge and strengthen our programs for parish ministry.

rhese permanent endowments represent new and continuing support which help oundergrid the future of the Divinity School.

THE ANNUAL FUND:

Annual Fund giving this year once again showed a significant gain. The telethon was a signal success and the Divinity School continues to lead buke University in the percentage of alumni who are contributing. More than forty percent of our graduates and many friends participate.

THE CENTER FOR STUDIES IN THE WESLEYAN TRADITION:

This Center, founded in 1980, has emerged as a leading teaching, research, and publication resource. Its Visiting Professor Program brought bavid Stacey, Principal of Wesley College, Bristol, to teach during the Spring, 1983. In the Fall, Jose Miguez Bonino, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, rill be Visiting Professor. The Visiting Scholar Program has brought tethodist scholars and leaders from all over the world: Morna Hooker England), Manfred Marquardt (West Germany), Peder Borgen (Norway), Helmut Lausner (Austria), Bishop Ole Borgen (Sweden). The Baker Collection, one of the largest and finest collections of Methodist history and theology in the world, greatly enhances the work of the Center. The Center begins a lew publication project this summer. Entitled Duke Studies in the Wesleyan radiction, with Thomas Langford as General Editor, this series of volumes will further Duke's reputation for Wesley and Methodist Studies. Frank baker continues his massive editing project of the Bicentennial Edition of Jesley's Works.

CONTINUING EDUCATION:

The Divinity School of Duke University consistently offers excellent rograms of unusual variety and benefit to persons who seek formal channels for further learning. A highlight of the year is the Convocation and astor's School. For 1983, this event will take place November 7-9 at Duke University. BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

DAY CARE PROGRAMS IN THE CHURCHES: The National Council of Churches Office of Child Advocacy has spent a year in a statistical study of day care services provided by Protestant Churches. This study indicated that United Methodist Churches are the largest denominational group in day care. Some parental counseling is offered by 29% of these, some health care is provided by 14% and 11% provide emergency drop-off care. Emergency drop-off care allows parents to respond to unexpected problems and is believed to help prevent child abuse.

GOLDEN CROSS: During 1982, thirty-four people in eleven districts received assistance in the amount of $17,227.43. In addition, we contributed $5,500.00 to the Chaplain program at Duke Medical Center and $3,000.00 to the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw.

You can be proud of the part you have in the Golden Cross Fund.

CHILDREN'S HOME: The transition from a residential services home to group homes throughout the districts is gradually being effected. A very successful group home is operating in Raleigh. The one in Fremont will be operational soon and plans are being made to place one in Edenton. Establishing these group homes and expanding the foster care program are the primary emphasis now.

RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.: Our retirement homes and the Coble Health Care Center cared for more than 400 persons in 1982. The latest census reflects 24 Methodist ministers and wives, plus 314 lay Methodists from the N.C. Conference. The Greenville Home will become a reality. The land has been secured, plans for the building are complete and fund raising efforts are underway. Our Retirement Homes provided at least $360,000 of benevolent care in 1982.

THE 1984 EMPHASIS: The 1984 Emphasis will be on children, youth and families. The theme will be "Family Well-Being: Issues and Problems." As the General Division of Health and Welfare Ministries develops the content there will be several regional meetings leading to a major consultation.

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The constantly increasing ratio of older Americans to the total population, the state of the economy, the drastic changes in Government regulations, and the increasing popularity of the life care community have caused vast changes and increased needs in the ministry through the Methodist Retirement Homes in the North Carolina Conference. This has been a vital and dynamic year with aggressive help from our Board of Trustees and from each of you through your acceptance of the Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionment. This has enabled the Homes and Health Care Centers to provide for increasing numbers of Methodists from Eastern North Carolina.

We are grateful for the increase in gifts we receive -- both in the Fair Share Apportionment that comes to assist individuals in our facilities who have outlived their resources and also your tax exempt contributions to the Retirement Homes Supplemental Assistance program and Pooled Income the Retirement numes Supplemental Assistance program to the Funds along with the other methods that have been suggested by our Director of Public Relations and Development, the Rev. Nathan H. Byrd. The Reverend Mr. Byrd is presenting the needs and programs of all the Retirement Facilities throughout the Conference and through all the establishment of an Auxiliary.

We want you to know that your gifts are received with gratitude and sense of significance. No gift is too small to be meaningful in our work with the aging.

We continue to work in developing the Greenville facility and facilities as needed to give service and care to our Senior Adults. know that you will want to be a part of this and, therefore, we actively contact you and ask for your prayers, your gifts, your good and other We will will and your understanding.

During 1982 we served more than 500 people in the Durham facilities and Wesley Pines in Lumberton. This total number was served for varying lengths of time and represent some who have been members of our Homes for many years. Some were served in nursing for only a short period of time.

Medicare and Medicaid no longer provide for us the financial assistance that once was available. We are committed to serve our members and to serve them well to the extent that in 1982 we came to the aid of 138 persons who either had exhausted their personal resources or did not have resources when they came to the Methodist Retirement Homes. These services were provided for through the Fair Share funds or on a case by case basis.
On May 16, 1983 we dedicated land for the projected Cypress Glen Retirement Home in Greenville. The Cypress Glen Home will necessitate a private capital funds campaign which is now in progress and we hope will successful in order that many of our aging from eastern North Carolina may be cared for in a setting that is not only loving but Christian in every way. Cypress Glen will join the Durham Retirement Home, the Coble Health Care Center and Wesley Pines Home in Lumberton and together this will provide care for 525 members.

During the past year we have maintained an occupancy rate of 96% the Coble Health Care Center and 98% in our Retirement and Home for Aging Facilities. The apartments at Wesley Pines have been attractively landscaped and are almost completely filled.

Your Homes continue to remain financially sound and stable. request we will be glad to send you a copy of our Annual Report. Copies of our Annual Audit will be available in the offices of the Conference Treasurer, the Executive Director and the Administrators.

Highlights of the year's work include:

The completion of the planning stage of the Cypress Home and the beginning of the fund raising drive. This necessitated the need for the appointment of a new Administrator-in-training.

The renovation of a solarium in the Health Care Center to a semi-private room for patients.

- The renovation of the Bishop's Lounge to an apartment at the Durham Home. -- Expansion of the Chaplain's service and the receipt by Chaplain Kelly J.
- Wilson, III of this credentials as a United Methodist Chaplain in College of Cnaplains. The establishment of specific goals for the Supplemental Assistance Fund
- and the Pooled Income Fund in order to provide for greater benevolent needs during the next few decades.

The employment of Saga Foods Systems for food service and management at the Durham facilities.

-- Participation in the Division on Aging of the Methodist Health and Welfare Ministries and the discussion of the new structure of that Division under the Board of Global Ministries.

-- Sponsoring of a dinner and seminar for ministers and laypersons in each District last fall.

-- Full participation of Retirement Homes in the North Carolina Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging and its political action committee. National membership in the American Association of Homes for the Aging, and the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries of the United Methodist Church. Frank Bullock, Administrator of the Coble Health Care Center has been elected an at-large delegate to the Board of Governors of the National Association of AAHA and president of the North Carolina Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging.

-- We continue to encourage each church to set aside Mothers' Day as a special time which the needs of our work may be explained from every pulpit in our Conference. Bulletin inserts are provided each pastor with the request that the work of the Homes be given some significant recognition and explanation from the pulpit.

We were all saddened by the death of the Reverend Lafon C. Vereen, Administrator of Wesley Pines, and who spent the past ten years of his ministry in service to the Methodist Retirement Homes. His work with the Homes will be remembered with love and affection and his name will be honored.

Please contact the Homes for information regarding our facilities. If you should need a program for any segment of your church group or someone to fill your pulpit on Sunday, we have the staff available who would be happy to tell our story, "An Opportunity To Continue." New material and special brochures are available and will be sent to you upon request.

We appreciate the increased number of hours donated by our volunteers, by members of our local committees, by our loyal Board of Trustees and the many others who have continuing concern for the growing segment of our Conference.

Dr. Bailey, Bishop Cannon, Bishop Sanders, Bishop Blackburn:

I am pleased to have the opportunity today to share with you information about the Cypress Glen Retirement Home, which will be built in Greenville.

I am Chairman of the Planning Committee for this exciting endeavor and ambitious effort. Indeed, it will be an effort. $\$6,300,000$ must be raised. I feel certain that never before has this much money been raised in Eastern North Carolina for such a project. To make this facility a reality, we will need hard work and commitments from many. But the result will be worth it.

This will be the finest retirement complex in North Carolina. In fact, it will be one of the most innovative and comfortable in the entire South.

Cypress Glen will be a great asset to our Methodist conference. It will allow Methodists, in this part of the state, to retire in comfort and security, closer to family and friends.

Again let me stress -- this is not a nursing, nor rest home. It will be a place for active people...Happy people...A place for learning...A place for continued growth. An opportunity to form new relationships and continue old ones.

Upon completion, the Home will contain 125 rooms, a full health care facility, and condominiums. But let us be very realistic -- it will never be completed without the help and support of everyone of you here today and those whom you represent.

It is my hope and prayer that all of us will become committed to making Cypress Glen a reality.

METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

We've had another good year at the Methodist Home for Children in our Christian Ministry to Children, Youth, and Their Families. Douglas Byrd, our Director of Public Relations and Planned Giving, has prepared an excellent visual and verbal presentation for us today. He is assisted at the projector by one of our Board Members, Bill Cottingham. Douglas will give our report at this time.

(The Douglas Byrd Report)

Thank you Douglas. As most of you know, next week I'm concluding my ministry at the Home as the executive director. I am gratified with the accomplishments for boys and girls and their families which have been made during my almost four years of service to this agency. The board, staff, and I working together have developed a sophisticated residential treatment program for troubled youth and their families, using the teaching-family model. We have also established community-based programs of foster family services, family counseling, and youth homes. We have seen many boys and girls, who were headed in the wrong direction, turned around, and receive the solid foundations which they needed to become useful, productive limitation citizens of our various communities. I appreciate very much the support which I have received from the Conference, the Board, and the Staff in reaching these goals. My prayers and best wishes will be with the new Director, the Staff and the Trustees as they continue to provide quality shild care and treatment services to children, youth, and families in the name of Christ and the Church.

lufus H. Stark has been elected by the Board of Trustees and appointed by the Bishop to become the new Executive Director. Rufus is well known to all of you since he has been an outstanding minister in the conference for the last 28 years. I would like to introduce him at this time for a few concluding remarks.

A General Statement of My Understanding of the Philosophy of Child, Youth, and Family Issues of the United Methodist Church and the Role of the Methodist Home for Children in Fulfilling That Ministry

by Rufus H. Stark, II

The United Methodist Church under the incentive and direction of the cospel of Jesus Christ has comprehensive concerns for children, youth and 'amilies. This concern manifests itself in a variety of ways:

1. Concern for nurture. Of primary concern is the nurture of the

1. Concern for nurture. Of primary concern is the nurture of the individual's relationship to Jesus Christ that each person may come into saving relationship with Him. Derived from this is the ever broadening concern for the total nurture of the person into the fulness of his/her potential.

 Concern for physical well-being of children, youth, and families. We care about persons having adequate food, clothing, and shelter. Maintenance of sound physical and emotional health is a part of this concern.

3. Concern about influences which threaten children, youth, and families. The Church cares about developing strategies to combat influences which threaten the well-being of children, youth, and families: drugs and alcohol; distorted sexual views and practices; abuse of children, youth and spouses; materialistic exploitation of the home; oppression; and warfare.

The basic strategy of the Church in addressing these concerns is to ultivate the strong Christian home which is the basic community for ssuring the health, nurturing, and general well-being of children, youth, nd families. To the extent that homes are strong and faithful, child, outh, and family issues are well cared for.

In reality in our society there are many weak homes. The pressures of ne secular society daily threaten the stability of family life, and many lomes experience a fragile existence. Children and youth in these settings often are deprived of the basic love which could provide a sense of security, personal self-esteem, and general well-being.

In the last century the individual home weakened by poor physical health often resulting in the early death of parents. Many children and youth were orphaned. The Church responded to this need by providing a home when the natural home was lost, and we developed orphanages. The Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh was developed during this period.

In our present time the stability of the home is threatened not so much by the physical death of parents as by the spiritual and emotional death or illness of parents, leaving children, youth, and spouses bereft of love and acceptance. Such persons often suffer from low self-esteem. Many have no haven to which to turn, and some act out their frustration in depression, violence, anger, etc.

It is to this need that the present Methodist Home for Children is called to minister. This is the major direction of the Home as set forth in the Child Care Plan adopted by the Annual Conference in 1979. The Plan notes that in this kind of ministry it is important to work with children and youth in settings as close as possible to the natural parents. The Home is now in the process of decentralizing the program. Emphasis will be on area group care facilities with a smaller central residential facility for use for treatment of children and for training of staff. Foster parent development is a key area of concern. The Home is well into this decentralization.

It is important that the Home make progress in specific implementation of this plan. I know that my administration needs to devise a realistic timetable in planning so that the Board can demonstrate accountability both to itself and to the Annual Conference. In so doing the Board and administration must accurately monitor the total work of child care in our state as performed by state and private agencies that the Board may best know how to respond to the needs.

Undergoing this major transition brings forth feelings of vulnerability. But along with this vulnerability comes an enormous opportunity for creativity. Now is the time for the Methodist Home for Children to seize the moment to look afresh at the high call of Christ to be about His mission. The Board and administration must think boldly. They must be willing to dream, being careful in the use of resources but not being afraid to risk.

The Methodist Home for Children should become the major institution beyond the local church for developing stable homelife in the Annual Conference in the following ways:

 By providing quality care for any child or youth damaged by the breakdown of his/her home.

2. By becoming a resource center in enabling local churches and individuals to work to stabilize family life.

 By serving as a major advocate for children, youth, and families speaking out in the public sector with forthrightness and determination.

Surely, this is a time of destiny for the Methodist Home for Children.

For 84 years our North Carolina Conference has extended to troubled children and youth an arm of compassion through our special care ministry. For the first 56 of those years the METHODIST ORPHANAGE provided care for mostly orphans with perhaps the greatest acceptance and strongest support ever given to a special ministry of the Church.

As we entered the second half of the 20th century, the Church found it necessary to re-define her child care ministry to discover who were the children who were hurting and how the Church could help them. In 1955 our name was changed to THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN in an attempt to more closely define this ministry and the persons we were seeking to serve.

Perhaps the changes affecting child care ministries can best be seen in the fact that there are few orphans in child care institutions today. Instead, we find troubled children and youth who are the products often of broken homes, the relentless stress of today's world, the crumbling traditional social structures, and often times decaying moral standards.

In September 1976 at the request of our Board of Trustees the Conference Division of Health and Welfare Ministries appointed a Study Commission on Child Care to take a serious look at the needs of children in our conference area with the intention of determining how we could best meet those needs while being the best stewards of our resources. Two years later our Conference set the goals and guidelines for our child care ministry -- entrusting to the Methodist Home for Children the responsibility of being "the service arm of the North Carolina Conference and its churches in aid to children and youth."

The Home was directed to establish group homes for the care of children and youth throughout the conference area. Today, there are four youth homes on our Raleigh campus. A fifth youth home has been established in the Longview community of east Raleigh. We are pleased to announce that a sixth youth home is being opened this month in the Goldsboro District at Fremont.

Our child care ministry is also being extended into the Elizabeth City District where our trustees have just approved the location of a youth home in the town of Edenton to serve the needs of children and youth in the northeastern section of our conference.

Plans are also being formulated for a meeting of church and community leaders in the Fayetteville District to determine more accurately the needs of that district and how the Methodist Home for Children can best help those needs.

From the latest Duke Endowment Annual Report you will be interested to know that the Methodist Home for Children cared for 106 different children and youth during the past yearly report period. At the same time we ministered to 120 adults who were a part of 88 different family units. Fifty-six of these youth lived in our youth homes and were a part of our residential treatment/care program.

It is interesting to note while 106 different children were served during the past 12 months report period, seventy-four were admitted to the programs of the Methodist Home for Children during that same 12 months. Few years if any during the 84 years history of the Home have as many children been admitted to the Home's programs of care. This points up the fact that our present ministry involves a much more intensive short-term treatment program as contrasted to the earlier program of custodial care ova a longer period of time. While 20-25 years ago a child often lived at the Home 10-15 years of his life, today a child moves through the treatment/care program in about 18 months and then returns to his natural family or another permanent placement. You will also be interested to know that while we served 106 children in the 12 months period earlier referred to, we have served 90 children in the past six months period.

Another directive was to develop a program of foster care whereby children and youth could be cared for in the homes of loving and caring foster parents. Eighteen foster homes have now been licensed and on April first of this year we had thirteen foster children placed in these homes. A total of sixteen children have been cared for in the past year in our foster homes. Please keep in mind that these foster homes represent homes where dedicated and trained Christian parents are now equipped to care for children with special needs in the months and years ahead.

The Annual Conference also directed the Home to develop a family counseling ministry "to strengthen family life and to reach troubled families with assistance which would help the families stay together." This ministry has been established, and 30 different youth were served alone with 27 adults in 21 different family units. Twelve additional youth were provided counseling and financial assistance to pursue their higher education after they left the Home.

Three other program guidelines were to be considered for future programs of the Home, and these recommendations remain under study and consideration at this time, as does a fourth, to consider changing the corporate name of the Home to "more closely indicate services being rendered by the Church in and through its new and expanded program."

The final action taken by the 1979 Annual Conference was the approval to "sell, lease, develop, or otherwise utilize the property of the Methodist Home for Children...to more adequately generate revenue for the implementation and continued economic support of the Methodist Home for Children and its related services." Today 31 of the 62 acres have been sold. Seven acres have been utilized in developing the streets, sidewalks, and utilities to enhance the sale of the property. A little over 5 acres have been reserved for future uses of the Church or Home. One acre is under pending contract for sale. This leaves 18 acres remaining to be sold.

The trustees of the Home have sought to follow the directives given by the Annual Conference as to the disposition of the campus in Raleigh in order to provide the necessary capital and income to carry out our Conference child care ministry. The staff has sought to follow the program guidelines established for the care of troubled children and youth in our conference area. Our successes have been possible mainly because fo the support you have given; and on behalf of the trustees, staff, and children may I take this opportunity to thank you for your support of this vital ministry of the Church. Thank you for making it possible for the Methodist Home for Children to be one of the 65 child care agencies of United Methodism reaching out to minister in the name of our Lord to His precious children.

In the 18th chapter of the Gospel According to Matthew, we have the directive from our Lord Jesus Christ himself -- "If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying? And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. Even so, it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish."

GOLDEN CROSS REPORT FOR 1982

Golden Cross is part of the Outreach Ministries of our Conference. This program gives financil assistance to United Methodist laypersons who are in need because of medical expenses which are beyond their ability to pay. It is a concrete way we fulfill our Lord's directive to care for the sick and needy in His name. Here is a typical example of the people we assist through Golden Cross.

The applicant has been a member of the United Methodist Church for over twenty-five years. She has been handicapped most of her life. Yet, sne cares for her aged mother. Her pastor writes, "Inspite of her handicap she contributes greatly to the life of our church. She is a beautiful, sensitive person with a deep commitment to Jesus Christ."

The applicant wrote, after receiving Golden Cross assistance, "I didn't know where to turn. I felt completely helpless. Then my pastor told me about Golden Cross. I thank Golden Cross, but most of all I thank God for people like you, United Methodists." She continued:

- G. The goodness and love Christ put in your heart.
- O. Because of people like you, Old people are not alone.
- L. Love in Christian hearts.
- D. To Do for others who can't help themselves.
- E. The Eyes for those who are spiritually blind.
- N. You never give up trying to help others.
- C. On the cross of glory Christ died for everyone.
- R. We must all be ready to do our best.
- 0. The young and Old at times need help.
- S. For all you are doing, Someday you'll be blessed.
- S. May the Son of man always smile on you.

During 1982, thirty-four people in eleven districts received assistance in the amount of $17,227.43. In addition, we contributed $5,500.00 to the Chaplain program at Duke Medical Centerand $3,000.00 to the Good Snepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw.

You can be proud of the part you have in the Golden Cross Fund.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society presents to this Annual Conference the following which have been written and reviewed by our Board and come to you with its endorsement.

- 1. A Position Paper on Security and Peace in Central America
- 2. A Resolution on Public Utilities
- 3. A Resolution on Drunk Driving
- 4. A Resolution on Medical Needs of the Aged and the Poor

POSITION PAPER ON SECURITY AND PEACE IN CENTRAL AMERICA

I. BASIS OF OUR CONCERN (Defeated)

Growing conflict and increasing U.S. military involvment in Central Imerica is an issue which calls for the immediate attention of all U.S. hristians. In our desire to be peacemakers obedient to the teachings of Jesus Christ, the Board of Church and Society has prepared this position paper for study by the United Methodist Churches in the N.C. Conference.

The evidence shows* that the primary thrust of the revolutions in El alvador and Guatemala is the desire of the people to be free of military lictatorship, to have freedom from terror for their families and enough and and food to sustain them. Because of their commitment to the poor in 1 Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras, the churches and their workers are special targets of repression.

The Latin American churches have repeatedly stated during lecade that external subversion is not the primary cause of the conflict n their countries. The dominant challenge is internal: perennial onditions of landed aristocracy, wretched poverty, and the denial of basic uman rights. To interpret the problems in Central America primarily in erms of Communism versus Capitalism, or in terms of the competition between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R., is profoundly mistaken. To suppose that illitary measures can bring lasting solutions is also mistaken. The rimary issues are economic and social justice and the participation of the opulation in shaping the societies.

We seek a deepened understanding of the Central American crisis and he application of our Christian Faith to the solution of it. It is our aith that leads us to examine the policies of our government towa entral America and to protest them. We are uneasy about the millions towards ax dollars given in military equipment, training, and support to the overnments of El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras, to be used against heir own populations and those of neighboring countries. We cannot be ilent about the total disregard of internationally-recognized human rights or the ruthless slaughter of thousands of civilians each year.

Nicaragua is of special concern. We cannot support U.S. efforts to solate, destabilize, and overthrow the new government there. Such efforts re immoral, unconstitutional, in open defiance of international law, and ontrary to declared U.S. support for the right of all people freely to letermine their own government. At the same time we must urge the icaraguan leadership to respect the rights of all citizens, even those who oppose official policy; and to draw its strength from the goodwill of eople who support its policies and not from oppression of those in pposition.

North Carolina is particularly caught up in U.S. military intervention n Central America. Salvadoran soldiers were trained in our midst at Ft. ragg, and U.S. Green Beret forces were sent from there as military rainers and advisors to both El Salvador and Honduras. An increasingly arge share of the Federal taxes we pay is being used to support military rograms while social programs in North Carolina are being reduced.

II. RECOMMENDED POLICY CHANGES

We reaffirm our Resolution adopted by our 1982 Annual Conference, which calls upon all governments "to adopt and to implement policies of nonintervention in the internal affairs of other countries and to eliminate arms sales, particularly across national boundaries." In that spirit we call upon our Government to:

1. Review and reconsider all military aid to the governments of South and Central America, and the role of combat and counterinsurgency assistance advisors now in El Salvador and Honduras.

2. Case efforts to isolate and destabilize the government

Nicaragua.

3. Promote negotiations between contending parties in El Salvador and Guatemala in a secure and peaceful manner, respecting the views and participation of all concerned.

4. Grant political asylum or refugee status to Central Americans seeking temporary refuge in the United States until the violence in their homelands ends and they can return to join the rebuilding of their societies.

III. WHAT YOU CAN DO

1. Pray and strive, individually and together, for an early peace in El Salvador and in Guatemala.

2. Become increasingly informed on the peace and justice issures in Central America.

3. Inform others. Have a house meeting, inviting friends to your home, show a film or filmstrip, and talk about it together. Write a Letter to the Editor; inform the readers of some aspect of the Central American crisis that is being inadequately addressed in the newspapers. Request the Public Library to order and display books and periodicals that cover the current situation in Central America. Contact Church groups, civic clubs and university classes to see if you can help them arrange the showing of film or the presentation of a guest speaker.

4. Write, call, or visit your Senators and Representatives in order to share your views. Contacts by concerned citizens have already encourage many members of Congress to question military assistance and to press for negotiated solution.

 "All people should be entitled to a basic benefits package of preventive and health care services. We reject any notion of dual standards of care:" and

- WHEREAS The home health care budgets have been cut, eliminating the custodial care for these patients, and

- THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

 That the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church ask its members to individually and collectively urge the Congress to restore the health care benefits most needed by the elderly and the poor, and

E IT FURTHER RESOLVED

That as we work to regain this much needed help we will not forget our own Christian responsibility and urge the local churches to work with the Home Health Services in their county to provide the custodial care by volunteers, and to render assistance to families by sitting with the patient to give the family a respite or rest from the sick room: and that the members of each church do all within their power to reduce the cost of medical care by volunteering in the hospitals, and nursing homes, by working with the Hospice programs, and where there is no such program by organizing one.

BOARD OF PENSIONS ANNUAL REPORT 1983

REPORT A. GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

- We recommend that the expense account of the Board of Pensions and such independent consultation expense necessary during 1984 be paid from funds designated as Administrative Expense in the Board of Pensions budget.
- 2. Pension Funding Crusade

The Pension Funding Crusade has provided the Board of Pensions with the ability to make significant increases in the past service benefits of our retired ministers and their families. After setting a goal of $3 million to lift the per service year rate by about $24.00, the Crusade has actually received funds of $3.5 million. During the same period, the conversion of the pension program following the action of the 1980 General Conference to a new defined contribution method essentially "froze" the liability of the North Carolina Conference for service rendered through the end of 1981. The unfunded liability created by this action will be retired overa forty year period requiring less capital funding to increase the rate of benefits.

The stated purpose of the Pension Funding Crusade was to increase the rate of past service benefits, and all funds received during the Crusade have been directed to this end. The Board of Pensions has established a Pension Reserve Fund to include funds from the Pension Funding Crusade receipts received too late to be included in benefit calculations for 1983 and further contributions from churches still remitting funds to the Crusade. It is our recommendation tha this Pension Reserve Fund be used solely to increase the past service benefits.

3. Statement of earnings from Methodist Foundation, Inc.: Earnings credited to the Board of Pensions from funds invested in Methodist Foundation, Inc., in 1982: $686,554.49 The percent earnings as of December 31, 1982, was 10.58% on Market Value. (Other portions of this report will be presented at the Annual Conference).

REPORT B. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE PENSION PROGRAM

The advent of the new Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan in the North Carolina Conference on January 1, 1982, came at the end of a year-long period of study, deliberation, and education. The Conference Board of Pensions, together with Bishop Cannon, the Cabinet, and the Council on Finance and Administration, spent a number of hours looking at the various options that the new pension plan provided. The end result of those discussions was presented to and adopted by the 1981 Session of the North Carolina Conference.

During the summer and early fall of 1981, a number of meetings were held in each district to better inform members of the Administrative Boards of the financial requirements for the new program as their charges were building their budget for 1982. Charge Conferences held during the fall of 1982 revealed careful planning and a very sympathetic response from the charges to the new plan.

Much anticipation filled the month of January 1982, as the new billings were sent to the charges. A great sense of accomplishment war realized at the end of the month, however, when the report revealed that less than 25 charges failed to remit their full monthly responsibility. The report for the entire year, however, was even better as only six charges received any supplementation from the Pension Support Fund, and the total of this amount was only $2,191.37. The Board of Pensions hereby expresses its deep gratitude to the laity of the North Carolina Conference for its faithful support of this new method of providing the retirement benefits of their pastors.

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan is expected to continue until all persons with past service benefits and their surviving spouses have died.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Salary.

Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities) i.e. $ 15,000.00 Add Housing Allowance (20% of cash income) + 3,000.00

Use this example for all full time Conference members. (Full, Associate, and Probationary) and derive the average. This becomes the Conference Average Salary. The 1983 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $16,463.00.

- C. The current rate is $152.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference continue to increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate for 1983 be increased on July 1, 1983, to $164.00, and that this rate be established for 1984. Further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Salary increases.
- D. To fund the past service rate with the General Board of Pensions will require an annual payment fo $1,132,239.00 for the next thirty years and an annual payment of $975,189.00 for an additional eight years.
- E. 1983 Operating Budget (Revised)

Annual Cost for Past Service Liability ($152.00, 1/1-6/30/83; $164.00, 7/1-12/31/83) $1,132,239.00 190,000.00 Insurance Program - Group Health Group Life 4,000.00 100,000.00 Pension costs for ministers in Conference apptmts. Board of Pensions administration 7,500.00 Pension Support Fund $1,539,748.00 Less: Methodist Foundation earnings(estimated) 550,000.00 $ 989,748.00 1983 Conference Appropriation

F. 1984 Operating Budget (Revised)

Annual Cost for Past Service Liability ($164.00 rate) $1,132,239.00 190,000.00 Insurance Program - Group Health Group Life 4,000.00 110,000.00 Pension costs for ministers in Conference apptmts. 7,500.00 Board of Pensions administration 41,209.00 Pension Support Fund $1,484,948.00 Less: Methodist Foundation earnings (estimated) 580,000.00 Anticipated 1984 Conference Appropriation $ 904.948.00

G. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/ner salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows: Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities) in Add Housing Allowance (20% of cash income) i.e. $15,000.00 and + 3,000.00 and

$18.000.00

- 1.No travel funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations as this is considered by the General Board of Pensions to be an item of local expense.
- 2. The utility allowance of the pastor is not considered by the General Board of Pensions to be more than 10% of the total Cash Income, regardless of the amount set at the Charge Conference.
- 3. For the 1982-1985 period, the funding formula will not include an amount for utilities. This means that only 90% of the Cash Income will be the base for Plan Compensation.
- 4. Where a cash housing allowance is provided as a part of the compensation for an appointment or where the pastor chooses to live in housing other than the parsonage provided by the charge, the Housing Allowance in the Plan Compensation calculation shall be considered 20% of the Cash Income, regardless of the amount of the cash Housing Allowance.
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly to the Conference Treasurer for transmission to the General Board of Pensions.
- D. These contributions are place in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship. The following options are available at that time:
 - 1.A life annuity with 100% to the surviving contingent annuitant.
 - 2.A life annuity with 75% to the surviving contingent annuitant. 3.A life annuity with 50% to the surviving contingent annuitant.

 - 4.A single-life annuity with ten years certain.
 - 5.A single-life annuity with five years certain.
 - 6.A single-life, (no refund) annuity.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend that the following schedule of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan be adopted and implemented to bring the North Carolina Conference participants into the intended structure of the Ministerial Pension Plan:

Year	Salaries and Utilities	MPP Percentage
1984	90%	10%
1985	90%	10%
1986	100%*	10%*
1987	100%	10%
1988	100%	11%
1989	100%	11%
1990	100%	12%*

^{*}Steps indicated/required in the Pension Plan Document.

III.Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

A.This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provision of a death benefit for either the spouse or the surviving spouse of the minister, the comprehensive plan also includes educational benefits forthe children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers serving full time.

- 1.Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Salary as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 105% at age 55, 70% at age 62, and 20% upon retirement at any age.
- 2.Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Salary in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
- 3.The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation. This would provide every minister in the North Carolina Conference under appointment to a full-time charge (Conference Member and Local Pastor) with an annual Church Account accumulation of % of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation.
- B.The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.1% contribution of actual Plan Compensation. The minister will be required to pay 1% of the 4.1% as provided in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, and the church or charge will pay the additional 3.1%.

IV. Minister's Personal Account

- A.The pension program provides that a minister who participates in the Ministerial Pension Plan shall contribute 3% of actual Plan Compensation annually to his/her Personal Account.
- B.These funds would be available in a lump sum or in a variety of other options when the minister reaches age 60, or may be left to accumulate as an additional amount for monthly pension benefits.
- C.The minister's personal account contributions can be made in one of three ways:
 - 1.A tax-deferred annuity contribution. This option requires that the amount of the monthly contribution to the minister's personal account be withheld from his/her salary by the charge treasurer according to a signed agreement between the minister and the charge, and sent to the General Board of Pensions by the charge treasurer. The amount withheld should not be declared as income by the minister at the end of the year for either income tax or self-employment (Social Security) tax. The General Board of Pensions should be notified by the minister that he/she desires the contributions to be tax-deferred, and the monthly billing card should reflect that type of contribution.
 - 2.A personal tax-deductible contribution. This option allows the minister to send the monthly contribution from funds received from the charge treasurer. The General Board of Pensions presumes this type of contribution to be the minister's preference unless they are notified otherwise. This type of contribution can be deducted from the minister's income for income tax purposes on the line for Individual Retirement Account (IRA) contributions.
 - 3.A personal tax-paid contribution. This option also allows the minister to send the monthly contribution from funds received from the charge treasurer, but he/she must inform the General Board of Pensions that the contributions are so intended. The advantage of this type of contribution is that you may remove all such contributions at a later time without having to pay further taxes. Interest earned by such contributions is, however, taxable.

. Implementation of the Program

The benefit program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks o provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister n time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased inisters, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Salary.

A. Costs of the past service pension program will be transmitted to the local charge through the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionment. We request the Council on Finance and Administration to include the following amount in the 1984 Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Budget for use in 1985:

Less: Methodist Foundation earnings $580,000.00
Pension Reserve Fund $150,000.00
$730,000.00 - 730,000.00

Amount requested to be raised in 1984 for use in 1985-$904,948.00

The budget request for 1984 is the same as is being raised in 1983.

B. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.

Full Time (Conference Member/Local Pastor)--13.1% of Plan Compensation.

Student (Conference Member/Local Pastor)--10% of Plan Compensation.

Less than Full Time (Conference Member/Local Pastor)--10% of salary. Interim or Retired Supply-- no pension responsibility.

- C. Monthly payments from the local charge for the Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan MUST be paid to the Conference Treasurer monthly so the Conference Treasurer can make his monthly payment to the General Board of Pensions as required by the Plan. Failure of the local charge to make these monthly payments will jeapordize their minister's participation in the Plan and diminish his/her future benefits.
- D. The minister will make regular payments to the Conference Treasurer for his/her portion (1%) of the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- E. The minister will make regular payments to the General Board of Pensions for his/her Personal Account (3%).

VI. Summary

It is obvious that there has been a great improvement in the benefits currently being received by our retired families. The per service year rate has increased from $82.00 per service year in 1978 to the present $152.00 yearly rate for 1983. A minister retiring this year with forty years of pension credit will receive a monthly benefit of $506.66, compared with $273.33 in 1978. The increase to the $164.00 on July 1 will bring the monthly benefit for that same minister to $546.66. This is a 100% increase in a six year period!

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

REPORT C. HOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

Internal Revenue Service Document No. 5045 (10-67) declares:

"Rental Value of Home furnished a Clergyman, and costs of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a Clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

"A Rental Allowance paid to a Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished to him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a Rental Allowance before the payment is made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired Clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past service in carrying out his duties as a Clergyman."

ice in carrying out his duties as a Clergyman.

A revised ruling, 63, 156, 163-2CB 79 states:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home."

(See Code Section 107, Reg. 1.107. 1-113.01)

These rulings have provided the opportunity in the past for our retired ministers to exclude a portion of their retirement income from the pension plan of the Annual Conference. Each year a specific amount was set by resolution adopted by the Annual Conference.

On May 29, 1981, the Internal Revenue Service provided a private ruling for the North Carolina Conference to allow the Board of Pensions "to designate up to 100% of the pension paid to a retired, ordained minister who is a member of your organization (North Carolina Conference) as 'rental allowance.'"

This new ruling provides the opportunity for each retired minister to deduct from his/her pension the actual amount spent for housing up to the full amount of the pension received. Items deductable include rent, mortgage payments, or a fair rental value of the home (including furnishings and appurtenances) as it would apply to the individual retired minister. Also deductable would be taxes, insurance, utilites, and repairs.

This benefit is only applicable to the income of a retired minister. It does not belong to a surviving spouse of a minister. This is not a ruling of the North Carolina Conference; it is a matter of the Internal Revenue Code specifying the fact that it applies only to the retired minister.

Therefore, the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina, on June 6, 1983:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge a housing allowance; and

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship; and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of a Rental Allowance:

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that 100% of the benefits paid to each Retired Minister be set as a fair and reasonable Rental Allowance for each Retired Minister of this Annual Conference for 1983 and succeeding years. The Rental Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for the minister and mis/her family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67) and affirmed by a private ruling of the Internal Revenue Service dated May 29, 1981 (Index Nos. 0107.00-00 and 0107.01-00).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Rental Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he/she made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full 100% cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should only be made for those amounts which can be verified.

Information from the Social Security Administration and the General Board of Pensions states that retired ministers should not file a self-employment schedule in their annual tax return for funds received as pension payments from the Annual Conference or the Duke Endowment as these are not payments for employment during the calendar year for which the taxes were being filed. Although they are categorized as "deferred salary" in the terminology of the pension program, they are considered by the Social Security Administration to be retirement benefits, and are, therefore, not subject to self-employment tax.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any Rental Allowance claimed.

REPORT D. SEVERANCE PAY RECOMMENDATIONS (Re-committed to the Board of Pension for further study)

The call to be an ordained minister is a privilege that comes to few people. To be called to be an Ordained United Methodist Minister is to accept exceptional responsibilities and opportunities in ministry and at the same time to receive excellent benefits. Tenure, as an ordained minister in The United Methodist Church, makes possible a kind of security available to few other professions. Among the benefits provided by the North Carolina Conference in our tenure system are a guaranteed appointment which will pay at least the minimum salary, a parsonage that is mostly furnished, participation in a pension program upon retirement that is paid by the charge, medical and term life insurance, and the opportunity to participate in the Conference Brotherhood and the Minister's Retirement Fund.

The benefits of the North Carolina Conference should not be regarded as an inducement to attract into our ministry who may not be able to uphold the high standards and ideals of the Christian ministry that we cherish. Neither do we intend these benefits to cause a person to continue in ministry even though he/she desires to use his/her talents and energies in another vocation.

We recognize that from time to time there are those who do desire to separate themselves from membership in our Conference and do other work. This separation does not cause any loss of the pension benefits that have already accrued to that individual. Severance Pay is understood as a transitional fund. Also opportunity is provided for the minister to convert his/her present insurance program to private policies without incurring waiting periods for benefits.

The Board of Pensions makes the following recommendations:

- Severance pay is a fund paid to a minister who is no longer eligible to be appointed either by action of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry and approved at the Executive Session of the Annual Conference.
- Severance payments are to be made only one time in any minister's career in this Conference.
- 3. Severance pay shall be based on the years of approved pension credit in the North Carolina Conference only. Payment shall be made on the basis of two-thirds the per service year rate, multiplied by the years of approved pension credit in the North Carolina Conference provided that the person is not eligible for retirement benefits immediately. The total amount of this severance pay shall be divided into six equal monthly payments.
- 4. Ministers whose itinerant relationship with the North Carolina Conference is ended in the processes indicated will not qualify for severance pay:
 - a. Leave of Absence, Paragraph 444, 1980 Book of Discipline. b. Maternity/Paternity Leave, Paragraph 445.

c. Involuntary Retirement, Paragraph 447.3.

d. Discontinuation as a Probationary Member, Paragraph 448.1.

- e. Honorable Location, Paragraph 448.2. f. Withdrawl to unite with another denomination, Paragraph 448.3. g. Surrender of Ministerial Office, Paragraph 448.4,
- h. Withdrawl under complaints or charges, Paragraph 448.5.

i. Withdrawl between Conferences, Paragraph 448.6. j. Involuntary Termination, Paragraph 449.

- k. Those who served as a Student Local Pastor and leave our Conference to go to another Conference.
- 1. Retirement with twenty years under appointment (Paragraph 447.2a), thirty-seven years under appointment (Paragraph 447.2b), or mandatory retirement (Paragraph 447.1).
- m. Persons in appointments beyond the local church.
- Should an unusual or exceptional situation occur, whereby in what seems to be in the best interest of either the charge or the minister, the minister's appointment should be terminated for whatever reason by Cabinet, the Bishop, the District Superintendent in whose district the minister is appointed, and the president of the Cabinet shall meet with the Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions to apprise the Executive Committee of the reasons for the Cabinet's decision. The Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions shall be empowered to deal with this special situation in a manner compatible with the spirit of this recommendation and that will serve the best interest of the minister.

To: The North Carolina Conference

Congratulations on completing a task and indicating that we have the ability to pull together for a cause we believe in. Continuing response and determination to complete commitments necessitate this final report on the Pension Funding Crusade.

It all began five years ago when we voted to undertake to raise $3,000,000 to help with pensions. Almost everyone attending this conference session was involved.

The final report indicates 89.5 percent of the Fair Share Goals have been paid ($3,501,308). Because the costs of the Crusade were less than anticipated, it has been possible to use $3,300,000 to raise the per service year rate for those retired ministers, widows, and dependent children. That means that we have gone $300,000 over the goal set by the 1978 Conference.

On behalf of the Crusade Committee, the recipients, and the Annual Conference, I express gratitude to each of you who have made this possible.

Warmly, Wallace H. Kirby Chairman, Pension Crusade Committee

INSURANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Report I (Adopted)

Group Term Life Insurance

The group term program continues to be successful. Action of the Annual Conference last year by which the premiums of all retired ministers are paid has been met with a favorable response.

We recommend that our policy with Fidelity and Guaranty Life Insurance Company be continued, for the same amount:

$ 5,000 for retired ministers who retired prior to January 1, 1978

and that the rates for each category of ministers be continued at the same cost per $1,000 as prevailed in 1980.

The following claims have been paid during the year:

Frank Salmon $ 11,500 Paul Carruth $ 11,500 Orville Watson $ 11,500 Grady Dawson $ 1,000 Alton Tew $ 1,000 J.C. Dunn $ 5,750 Ed Batchelor $ 11,500

Report II

Blue Cross Blue Shield Medical Insurance (Plan Two Adopted)

In October 1982, the projected rate increase of 30.67% of Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Carolina caused a great deal of concern. The Cabinet and Division of Health and Welfare requested that the medical insurance be put out for competitive bids with Gray and Hutchinson Associates. Specifications for two plans were drawn up.

Plan One. Continue the present plan with $25 deductible.

Plan Two. Continue same benefits with $100 deductible.

Bids were sent to the following companies:

Aetna Life Insurance Company
Prudential Life Insurance Company
Metropolitan Life Insurance Company
Durham Life Insurance Company
Pilot Life Insurance Company
Connecticut General Life Insurance Company
Equitable Life Insurance Company
Travelers Insurance Company
Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Carolina Provident Life and Accident and three agencies:

Businessman's Assurance Hayes Perry Overman Insurance

Only Travelers, Blue Cross Blue Shield and Provident Life and Accident responded to the bids. Travelers premium costs were greater than those proposed by Blue Cross Blue Shield. The Provident proposal essentially dealt with the conference being self insured. The liability rider exceeds funds currently available for benefits. This proposal did not seem feasible.

Our studies reveal that the best interest of our ministers and families will be best served by continuing our medical insurance with Blue Cross Blue Shield. The cost of medical insurance is always a concern. The insurance committee conscientiously seeks to give the best health care insurance and not burden the church/charge with excessive cost. Therefore the insurance committee requests approval of the Annual Conference to negotiate with Blue Cross Blue Shield on this basis. Negotiations will be on one of the following options:

- Should cost be kept down so that proposed increase in premiums would be small. We would continue with same premium payment arrangements we now have.
- 2. Same benefits but increase the ministers percentage of premium payments up to twenty five per cent of premium cost.
- 3. To increase the deductible to $100 for each family member with 80% of cost up to $500 paid by Blue Cross Blue Shield and 100% above $500 of Usual, Customary and Reasonable charges.

We commend our churches for providing this health care for the ministers and their families. We are appreciative to the ministers and their families for their cooperation in helping to keep the cost under control.

Respectfully submitted, Norwood Jones, Chairman Thomas E. Loftis, Secretary

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of the Laity sponsors programs that train lay persons for heir unique responsibility in carrying out the mission of the Christian basel.

ISTRICT LAY RALLIES were held each of the twelve districts with an tendance of over 7,500. The formats of the rallies varied. Each strict selected a Lay Person of the Year, emphasized scholarships, ecognized outstanding students and consecrated lay speakers. The Board of aity recommends that in 1984 the District Lay Rallies promote the icentennial emphasis.

ANUARY WORKSHOPS were held in each of the twelve districts with an tendance of 3,743, the largest ever. The courses emphasized leadership raining in the Work Areas. A new course was offered for lay members of nual Conference which highlighted their responsibilities and dealt with structure and work of the Annual Conference.

AY SPEAKER TRAINING remains a priority of the Board. Both basic and avanced courses were offered either on the district level or at Conference mmer School. Two hundred and twenty-four lay speakers were consecrated. The Lay Speaker program is designed to increase the knowledge and skill of the lay leadership in our churches and can have a great impact on the nited Methodist Church in eastern North Carolina. Some districts have promed District Lay Councils.

A book of resumes on persons who could be considered for election as elegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference was prepared and mailed of the lay members of Annual Conference. The purpose of the book is to equaint the lay members with some individuals who can serve in this apacity.

DNFERENCE SUMMER SCHOOL continues to be the major training experience for ay persons in the church. Seven hundred and forty-four persons attended ne 1982 session where 12 courses were offered. Participation in this vent gives a broader perspective to the mission of the church. The 1983 chool will be held August 5 through August 10 at Methodist College. We rge your support of this enriching experience.

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race wishes to remind members of the nnual Conference that the Conference voted in 1980 and 1982 to require ffirmative action programs within the boards, commissions, and agencies of he Conference and that other efforts be taken to ensure racial nclusiveness.

An affirmative action program is a commitment to racial inclusiveness coording to which an agency agrees regularly and systematically to review thnic minority participation and representation at the levels of dministration, membership and service.

An affirmative action program will set inclusion objectives and evelop plans to reach those objectives.

To accomplish these ends within the agencies of the Conference, we ontinue to recommend:

 That every conference agency be required to adopt an affirmative ction program appropriate to its responsibilities and circumstances;
 That every district be required to have on the DCOM a Coordinator f Religion and Race;

3. That every conference board and agency and the Cabinet be required o elect, along with other quadrennial officers a Coordinator of Religion nd Race whose responsibilities it shall be to lead the board, agency, or he Cabinet in the development and implementation of an affirmative action rogram.

Minority Empowerment Workshop at St. Andrews College:

Probably the most significant workshop sponsored by the Commission was held in September of 1982. It gave Black and Native American caucuses an opportunity to express to White coordinators of Religion and Race why they feel powerless in the boards and commissions of the Annual Conference. Both minority groups feel that the boards and commissions on which serve do not pay appropriate attention to what they say. They feel thev that they do not make a difference and that they might as well stay at home more often than not.

A list of seven objectives were agreed upon to encourage minorities to be more assertive. These are available from the Methodist Building.

Ethnic Minority Representation:

At present the representation of minorities on conference boards and commissions is significantly down from 1981; 25 Blacks and 15 Native Americans out of a total agency membership of 655.

membership In addition, according to the 1982 Conference Journal, the of our churches totaled 206,732 Whites (a gain of 526 over 1980), 4,057 Blacks (a gain of 199 over 1980), and 2,010 Native Americans (a gain of 191 over 1980). Also, 1,747 Black were attending Sunday School on an average, and 1,131 Native Americans were doing so. Aid to Minorities:

Your Conference Commission regularly provides scholarships and expenses to minorities in order to guarantee interracial participation it such programs as the Washington-New York Study Tour. We also spent $400 on scholarships to the National Youth Black Methodist for Church Renewal Conference and $400. on a more recent BMCR meeting in Los Angeles. budget $500. for districts which wish to hold a workshop on racism.

We monitor th number of minorities in our colleges, retirement homes, and children's homes. We also review the three projects in our conference area that are funded by the general Commission on Religion and Race. These are "Sampson County Community Housing" in Clinton: $7,000; "Dobbins Heights Community Incorporation" near Hamlet: $7,500; and "Native American Youth Programs" in Pembroke: $4,250.

We provide training at the January Workshops in all districts and encourage support of the Quadrennial Missional Priority Fund which is only slightly ahead of last year in spite of last fall's EMLC Rally. We support the Human Relations Day offering which is behind last year's total.

We have held two annual meetings at ethnic minority local churches: John's in Goldsboro, and Asbury Temple in Durham. At St. John's we In Durham we prepared a lifted up the need for new ethnic churches. resolution in support of the election of an ethnic minority bishop from our jurisdiction.

Submitted by Rev. Charles D. Myers, Chp.

Mr. Chairman, Members of Conference, and Guests, the mandate of your Commission on Religion and Race is to report to the Conference on racial inclusiveness in the institutions and structures of our Conference.

I am happy to report that one of the examples of inclusiveness was seen on Sunday afternoon here at Conference when many of the Native Americans asserted their desire that one of their members be appointed a district superintendent and that the Conference support and affirm their request.

The history of racial inclusiveness in our Conference is a dramatic and progressive history. Please forgive me if I omit significant events; but the following are the events that are most memorable to me.

First, if you will turn with me to the title page of the 1982 Journal you will find that our Conference is successor to the "Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the Central Jurisdiction." That great conference deserves a date. The date we should put after that conference is the year 1968, the year of merger. Many of us are not aware that the formation of the United Methodist Church involved not only the Methodist Church merging with the Evangelical United Brethren, but also the merger of Black central conferences and jurisdictions with largely White ones. The emblem of our church has two red flames representing the merger of the two denominations. I have always fancied that the black color of the cross represents the central conferences.

Louisburg College have ministered to the needs of increasing numbers of both Blacks, Native Americans, and other minorities. The Children's Home especially today has reorganized itself to meet their special needs.

The next date I lift up is 1972 when at that great Conference at Duke niversity our beloved Bishop Cannon presided over the creation of the ockingham District and appointed our first Black district superintendent, he Reverend James H. McCallum to the Sanford District. He had been a istrict superintendent in the Central Jurisdiction. A vear later the irst Native American, the Reverend Simeon Cummings was brought to the ethodist Building as Director of Outreach Ministries.

Over the years we have seen projects to benefit ethnic churches. We amember the Fund for Reconciliation . Then came the Black College Fund hich our churches have worked hard to understand, appreciate, and support. ow we have the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority. Your articipation in this Quadrennial Emphasis of the whole denomination has sen gratifying and will no doubt continue in the next quadrennium.

Along the way various organizations, expecially the United Methodist omen, have provided mind-changing and action-changing workshops on racism. personally benefited from a workshop sponsored by our women at Camp nestnut Ridge years ago where Dr. Woodie White, the present General soretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race, confronted my acism. We also note with pride that the Director of the Conference Summer chool this years is a Black lay person, Mrs. Harriett Wright.

In 1975 another landmark decision was made with the appointment of the everend Dr. Joseph Bethea to the Rockingham District. Now I understand hat he will be going to the Methodist Building to serve in a place of mportance and visibility not only to us but to the whole Southeastern

Without further ado I present you a "Resolution on Inclusiveness in piscopal Elections." It is found on page 41 on The Conference Program. A imilar resolution is being introduced in most of the conferences of the outheastern Jurisdiction. The purpose of this resolution is to pave the ay to the next milestone in racial inclusiveness for our area—the lection of a Black bishop. Our Southeastern Jurisdiction is the only one ithin the denomination which has not elected a minority person. The time as come for this to happen in our Bicentennial Year, 1984.

Now, I read this resolution and move that it be adopted. Bishop Cannon, in conclusion, the Commission on Religion and Race ishes to recognize one who individually personalizes the progress of love nd justice in our Conference. This should have been his most triumphant onference of the 41 conferences he has attended, but unfortunately he has uffered a mild stroke and has not yet come out of Rex Hospital to his home n Fayetteville. I refer to none other than to our beloved James Hector cCallum for whom this Commission is presenting a plaque of appreciation or his service to our Commission and to inclusive Methodism as a whole. Mac" is retiring, but not from influence and service. We all love him.

ESOLUTION ON INCLUSIVENESS IN EPISCOPAL ELECTIONS

nereas, The Commission on Religion and Race of the North Carolina onference, in fulfilling its mandate, feels it is imperative that we duress the issue of inclusiveness and its relationship to the role and unction of the office of bishop; and, nereas, we believe if we are to become a truly inclusive United Methodist nurch, the prophetic, pastoral, and symbolic role of the episcopacy must e evident, active, and visible; and nereas, The Southeastern Jurisdiction includes the largest number of inorities within The United Methodist Church; and ,

hereas, since merger in 1968 the Southeastern Jurisdiction has elected en persons to the office of bishop without electing a minority; and, hereas, our Jurisdiction is the only one within the United Methodist hurch that has not elected a minority to the office of bishop;

herefore, Be It Resolved, That every nominee/candidate for election to the piscopacy demonstrate a clear commitment to use the power of the office of ishop to promote and support those actions and activities that will make nclusiveness a living reality; and, e It Further Resolved, that the North Carolina Conference encourage the elegates who are elected to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to e committed to the election of an Ethnic Minority person to the office of ishop in the Southeastern Jurisdiction in 1984.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTION TASK GROUP ON RELIGION AND RACE COMMITTEE ON OPEN ITINERACY MARCH 4th and 5th. 1983

This report includes a working definition of open itineracy; summation of the committee's work thus far in the quadrennium; "Two Ideas" a statement from the General Commission on Religion and Race on Ope Itineracy and the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority; and projection of our work during the remainder of the quadrennium.

The 1980 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (Paragrap 527.1) states that "Appointments are to be made...without regard to race ethnic origin, sex, or color, consistent with the commitment to an ope titineracy". The General Commission on Religion and Race, in it organizational meeting for this quadrennium, adopted a stance on ope itineracy and its process with the following as the proposed direction an language:

By open itineracy we mean that as a matter of policy and practice of the Bishop and Cabinet, all options for appointment are equally available to all ministerial members; i.e., no option for appoint-memball be denied any ministerial member because of his or her race.

In its organizational meeting in September, 1980, the SEJ Task Grou on Religion and Race established Open Itineracy as one of the committee through which it would pursue its tasks. The Committee has the assignmen of developing strategies and making recommendations to the Cabinets of the various Conferences regarding the implementation of an open itineracy process. We began our work by asking each Bishop of the SEJ for statement concerning any policy or position adopted in the episcopal are on open itineracy. We also asked each Bishop for a listing of past current and prospective appointments across racial lines. We reporte earlier that 8 Bishops responded. Four indicated that their conference have adopted policies of open itineracy. Three others indicated that open itineracy is the policy of their Cabinets. All eight affirm it as their personal position. The appointment of White pastors to ethnic minority churches is not new nor strange in the United Methodist Church. What is crucial in the achievement of an open itineracy is the appointment of ethnic minority pastors to White churches. Churches in transition cannot be cited as authentic open itineracy. We find that instances of authentic open itineracy, in the crucial sense of the term, has been achieved in the Virginia, Holston and Florida Conferences. If there are others, they have not been brought to our attention.

This Committee affirms the position of the 1980 Book Of Discipling (Paragraph 422) that Members in full connection with an Annual Conference by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special covenant with all the ordained ministers of the Annual Conference. In the keeping of this covenant they perform the ministerial duties and maintain the ministerial standards established by those in the covenant. The offer themselves without reserve to be appointed and to serve, after consultation, as the appointive authority may determine.

When in full connection refuse to be appointed "as the appointiv authority may determine", the covenant is broken. When the appointiv system, by policy or practice, limits the options for appointment of an member in full connection because of race, ethnic origin, sex or color, th covenant is broken. The privileges which the Church offers its Whit ministerial members must not be denied its ethnic minority ministeria members.

The following statement speaks to those who think that the pursuit o open itineracy and strengthening and developing ethnic minority loca churches might be in conflict. It was adopted by the General Commission o Religion and Race in 1981.

Two Ideas: Open Itineracy and the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority

The Challenge: The ethnic minority community has learned to be cautiou about programs and plans that are structured to move toward integration Experience has, upon occasion, demonstrated that a few ethnic minorit persons (frequently persons with superior gifts) have been accepted an en assimilated into the non-ethnic community, never to be heard from gain by the ethnic minority community.

Open Itineracy for some ethnic minorities has been viewed as a sempowering effort. Persons who hold this view believe the only viable rategy/activity/effort for ethnic minorities in United Methodism is the rengthenin of the ethnic minority local church and other ethnic stitutions. Empowerment, for them, is the one and only worthwhile deavor that ethnic minorities and not-ethnics can share.

The General Commission on Religion and Race believes it is possible and necessary for United Methodism to pursue both open itineracy and powerment. In a multi-ethnic society or institution, true empowerment as not occur in isolation or separately. Our faith, theology and

me Basic Assumptions

Cross-racial appointments (ethnic minorities in non-ethnic situations) ist never isolate ethnic minority persons from the needs and problems of seethnic minority community.

It is assumed that an ethnic minority person, wherever he/she serves 11 consistently identify with the agenda of the ethnic community and terpret that agenda to his or her faith community.

Ethnic churches, to be authentically strong within the framework of ited Methodism, must be active within the community and within the nomination. The resources of the denomination, when shared with the hnic minority community through indigenous churches with indigenous adership, is a key to empowerment.

Inclusiveness (open itineracy) and Empowerment (Ethnic Minority Local uurch Missional Priority) occur when we acknowledge and act on the idea at these words must be in the vocabulary and on the action agenda of

le Vision: We look forward to a United Methodist Church that recognizes le gifts and abilities of all of its ministers, and makes appointments to urches and other ministries with this in mind. We believe that to hieve authentic open itineracy, particular attention must be given to the fts and abilities of ethnic minority ministers that enable them to ovide effective ministry in any setting the Church can provide.

We look forward to an ethnic minority local church that is strong and fective as it ministers to the particular spiritual and social needs of the ethnic minority community. Its strength will come from the leadership of resources that the denomination must provide for the ethnic minority cal church.

We call upon Bishops, District Superintendents, Lay Leadership and onference Staff to rededicate themselves to the building of strong ethnic nority local churches and a working open itineracy system in every onference in the United Methodist Church. We believe these two ideas mplement each other and are essential to the growth and witness of the lited Methodist Church. We are convinced that if the United Methodist is be a Church for all people, we must work with equal vigor to make powerment and inclusiveness living realities.

It is the plan of this committee to list every instance of authentic cen itineracy in the SEJ in the current appointment year and to update at list in the next appointment year. We will be in contact again with be Bishops of the SEJ to ascertain what progress has been made during the radrennium toward the practice of open itineracy in their episcopal areas. Inally, we hope to propose a step-by-step plan to open itineracy that can recommended to the 1984 SEJ Conference for implementation in every nual Conference of the Jurisdiction.

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

THANKS: The report from the N. C. Conference/COSROW begins with special appreciation to Beanie Kelly and Ernest Porter for the important supportant excellent leadership they have given to the work of the commission of the development and the implementation of the goals for 1982-183.

JANUARY WORKSHOPS EMPHASIZE OPEN ITINERACY: The Discussion of Oper Itineracy, an emphasis in the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee/January Workshops. The consensus of these workshops was that the major problem the churches have in the acceptance of the appointment of women as ministers if fear: the fear of the unknown and fear that the appointment of a woman would negatively affect the attendance and the financial giving. These fears are being allayed by the positive responses from the churches wheneve women as their ministers.

CONSULTATIONS PLANNED: Emerging Roles of Women & Men: Partners t Ministry. To implement action authorized by the 1982 Annual Conference COSROW is planning six consultations in districts in 1983 and si consultations in 1984. The purpose of the consultations is to enabl United Methodists in our churches to give positive leadership in churches homes, work during the time of change in many of the traditional divisio of roles and responsibilities between men & women.

BOOKLET PUBLISHED: The 24 page booklet "Journey of Women Toward Ordinatio in the United Methodist Tradition" by the Rev. Carrie Parrish was printed in March and distributed in April. The purpose of the booklet was tillustrate and uplift the difficulties and progress women experience whe preparing for the ordained ministry. Copies were sent to COSROW members women clergy; Bishop Cannon and the Cabinet; seminaries; other annua conference COSROWs; UMW Presidents; Bishops across the U.S. Copies ar available from the Methodist Building, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N.C. 2760 for those interested.

BENEFITS SURVEYED OF NON-ORDAINED LOCAL CHURCH EMPLOYEES: COSROW conducte a survey to determine what type of employment benefits non-ordained loca church employees in our conference receive. Eventually it is hoped that whether it be through the Reserve Pension Plan of the General Board of Pensions or through a plan worked out by the local church, non-ordaine fulltime employees will have suffient benefits. The information of the survey is explained in chart form, designed by John Brooks.

Helen Crotwell, Chairperson

Bishop Cannon and delegates, Thank you for the privilege of workin with this Commission on the Status and Role of Women from the beginnin when Bishop Blackburn called some of us together to begin the work o organizing it for this conference.

I would like to express our thanks to you Bishop Cannon and to th Cabinet and to Ernie Porter for your helpful support and to give a ver special word of appreciation to those who no longer will be working wit COSROW - Reggie Ponder, our DS, Beanie Kelly, our staff person, and Robbi Barrett our incredibly efficient secretary.

As a Commission we are always faced with more issues than we caresponsibly work with as we fulfill the mandate given to us by Genera Conference to be a montor, advocate and catalist to ensure full and equa participation of women in all levels of the ministry of our church.

You will find our reports in the Program and Recommendations bookle on page 18 and on page 30, our policy recommendations concerning benefit for non-ordained full time staff members; and the strengthening leadershi of the lay and clergy Ethibic Minorities women in the church and the important provision of child care for conference and local church events.

In our January Workshops with the PPRC, we learned that the majo limitations to the acceptance of women and Ethnic minorities as minister was fear - fear of the unknown, fear that membership and giving woul decrease. These fears are being overcome through the good work of ou bishop and cabinet, as well as the grapevine which reports the positiv experience of churches who have accepted women. We are pleased that w have moved from we will accept a woman as a minister - to asking fo specific women to be appointed to your church. We have come a long way that's worth an Amen and Hallelujah.

Note the important consultations on "Emerging Roles of Women: Men and comen Partners in Ministry" which are planned for the next two years. We are especially pleased that the leadership teams for this worksnops will nolude in each district, the D.S., as well as a women clergy, and a lay an and lay woman recommended by the Board of the Laity.

Those of you who would like a copy of that phamplet written by Carrie

Those of you who would like a copy of that phamplet written by Carrie Parrish "Journey of Women Toward Ordination" will find copies on tables out he entrance to the auditorium. We sent copies to the Bishops, seminaries, and the General and Annual Conference COSROWs and are grateful with the ositive response we are receiving.

You are aware of the growing number of competent and dedicated women inisters we have in this conference. We have done what some of you said could never be done. Rather than vie-ingg against each other to be a landidate for General and Jurisdictional Conferences we are united in our support, knowing whoever is elected represents all of us. We celebrate the act that Ruth Harper, our first woman to go, now joins, Stella Hill, the irst lay woman to be elected to General Conference from this Conference.

We and COSROW have worked closely with the Ethnic Minority members of . his conference lay and clergy. I have asked Joe Bethea to call together he women and ethnic minority ministers for fellowship and conversation about our common ministry.

I want to say as strongly as possible what I hope you know by our actions: As lay and ordained women, we do not live in isolation, we are not over against all of you men. We thank you for sharing in our struggles and for your good advice and support and your patience when we remind you is sues which divide us.

We celebrate the pluralism within our women, as well as within our conference and give thanks for our diversity in worship, music, culture and we are confident that when we are obedient to our Lord Jesus Christ we will be on in our mission and our ministry, men and women, lay and ordained, black, Native American and caucasian. We are indeed one in our abedient service to God.

COMMITTEE ON EMLC

THE EMLC COMMITTEE OF THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES HAS ATTEMPTED TO BE FAITHFUL: The Committee has tried to be responsive to the CCOM and at the same time the Committee has tried to be responsible for the Implementation of the Missional Priority.

THE COMMITTEE HAS KEPT ITS DEFINITION IN PERSPECTIVE: The EMLC Committee accepts the definition that a Missional Priority, is a response to a ritical need in God's world with global implications which calls for UMC's massive and sustained effort through primary attention and ordering and reordering program and budget at every level of the church. (Paragraph 303.8, 1980 Book of Discipline)

EMLC COMMITTEE OF THE CCOM HAS FUNCTIONED AS A SUPPORT GROUP: This Committee has assisted, in the main, Black and Native American congregations in their struggles to fulfill their mission and ministry in heir places of existence. Some of the tasks that have been planned, supported and/or implemented by the Committee follows:

- A workshop on ministerial recruitment and enlistment of ethnic ministers and Christian education workers.
- 2. A workshop on worship in the local church.
- 3. A workshop on Christian education.
- 4. Affirmed and supported the goal and process of getting two Christian education workers related to Black and Native American congregations.
- Affirmed and supported building programs among the ethnic minority congregations.
- 6. Support ways and means of getting the priority across to all the local church members through cooperative efforts of all the agencies, committees and boards of the conference. The Conference Convocation, which was held in Goldsboro in September, 1982, was a great success, bringing more than 600 persons together in a conscious awareness session.
- 7. Planned for slide promotion at Annual Conference.

GOOD STEWARDSHIP OF OUR RESOURCES IS A CONSTANT CONCERN OF THE EMLC COMMITTEE: To insured good stewardship and proper accountability, the Committee designed an instrument by which local congregations may apply for and evaluate EMLC proposals. The design is now operative in our conference with funding requests being first brought before the EMLC Committee and discussed on the basis of merit. They are then directed to the CCOM for funding. Sixteen such projects have been proposed as a constant of the country of the constant of the country of funding. Sixteen such projects have been approved as of February 11, 1983 by CCOM with funds to come from 30% Missional Priority Fund that remain in our Conference.

EMLC Committee Report

Bishop Cannon, colleagues, Lay delegates and friends of the North Carolina Annual Conference, it is with great pride and dignity I report to you the wholistic endeavors of the EMLC Committee during the 1982-82 Conference year.

First of all, it must be understood that the task of the E-M-L-Committee is to keep before this Annual Conference or any other Conference the importance of Ethnic Minorities. It is not our task to make policies or to implement programs, but to enable the Ethnic Minorities of this Annual Conference to acclaim their personhood in Jesus Christ. Pau! conveyed a significant message to the church at Galatia that is relevant to conveyed a significant message to the church at Galatia that is relevant we twentieth century Christendom, and what I interpret to have special importance to Ethnic Minorities. He said, "for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew or Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are one in Christ. Jesus" (Gal. 3:25-28). From a Biblical perspective, "Every barrier is swept away. No special claims, no special disabilities exist in Christ Jesus." The distinctions of religious cast, of social rank, the natural distinction of sex are banished. J. B. Lightfoot says it so well, heart beats in all: One mind guides all: One life is lived by all." "One As co-workers in Christ the North Carolina Annual Conference can take pride in her ethnic constituency.

In his book Release From Fear and Anxiety, Cecil Osborne tells the story of the small boy who was told by his father one dark night to go and get the broom just outside the back door. The boy said, "I'm afraid. It's dark out there." His father replied, "don't be afraid, son. The Lord's out there, and He'll not let anything happen to you." Where upon the boy went to the back door, looked out rather timomously, and said, "Lord, i you're out there, will you please hand me the broom?" I am convinced that God has placed the dignity of humanity in the hands of the church. There we must respond in good faith to the single-missioned priority of the 1980-84 quardrennium - the developing and strengthening of the Ethnic Minority Local Church.

Seconaly, the EMLC Committee of the Conference Council on Ministries has been faithful to its task. At the local church level we celebrate our We have been responsive to the CCOM and multi-ethnic diversity. responsible in implementing the Missional Priority. The local churches of this Annual Conference have enabled the E-M-L-C Committee and the Ethnic Minorities of the Conference to acclaim and affirm the redemptive fellowship of Jesus Christ by responding through the Missional Apportionment. As a result of these endeavors some growth has taken place

Thirdly, the EMLC Committee has functioned in varied ways:

(1) We have been responsible stewards with EMLC funds.
(2) Been a support group to the CCOM
(3) Planned a joint Missional Education tour to the Global Board of Ministries, National Division, Board of Church and Society, the General Commission on Religion and Race in July of 1983. and

(4) Set up a scholarship to be made available for student pastors in seminary who are faced with emergency crisises.

(5) Drafted letters calling to the attention of the Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, and Personnel Committee of the Conference Council on Ministries, that there should be a continuation of Ethnic presence in the cabinet and Conference Council of Ministries staff.

Finally, all is not well with Ethnic Minority constituency of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Since therefore, the EMLC Committee task is to keep before our conference the Missional Priority and not to make policies nor to implement programs, we hereby call upon the North Carolina of the North Carolin Annual Conference to be sensitive to the needs, concerns and endeavors of he Ethnic Minorities in this Conference. Therefore we propose a esolution for conference action and implementation.

A RESOLUTION BY THE ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH COMMITTEE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Whereas, the General Conference has mandated ethnic representation and nclusion at every level in the life of the church as stated in the Social rinciples, Paragraph 72, A:

> "Racism plagues and cripples our growth in Christ, in as much as it is antithetical to the gospel itself. Therefore, we reject racism in every form and affirm the worth of all persons" And as stated further in the Book of Resolutions of the 1980 General Conference of the United Methodist Church, page 40-42.

> "We affirm the 1976 General Conference Statement on the United Methodist Church and Race, which states unequivocally: By biblical and theological precept, by law of the Church, by General Conference pronouncement and by episcopal expression, the matter is clear. With respect to race, the aim of the United Methodist Church is nothing less than an inclusive schurch in an inclusive society. The United Methodist Church, therefore, calls upon all its people to perform those faithful deeds of love and justice in both church and community that will bring this aim into reality.

BECAUSE WE BELIEVE...

that our struggle for justice must be based on new attitudes, new understandings, and new relationships and must be reflected in the laws, policies, structures and practices of both church and state.

We commit ourselves within the United Methodist Church to eliminate all forms of institutional racism in the total ministry of the Church, giving special attention to those institutions which we support, beginning with their appointment and employment policies.

Whereas, the North Carolina Annual Conference does have a large constituency of Blacks and Native Americans and a growing presence of Hispanics and Asians; and,

Whereas, the North Carolina Annual Conference has benefited from ethnic leadership on the General, Annual Conference, District and Local Church Levels and that there is a new optimism growing among the ethnic clergy and laity; we believe that the Ethnic Minority Local Church has made a tremendous impact in evangelism, stewardship and ministerial recruitment; and

Whereas, the Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee is called upon to raise the level of awareness of the ethnic presence, strengths, needs and concerns for inclusion at every level of decision making of the North Carolina Annual Conference and has petitioned the resident bishop and the Conference Council on Ministries; and

Whereas, the ethnic caucauses have petitioned the resident bishop the North Carolina Annual Conference, with the Cabinet and Cabinet Members and the Personnel Committee of the Conference Council on Ministries concerning appointment and employment of ethnic representation on the Cabinet and the Conference Council on Ministries, whereas, there are qualified ethnic lay and clergy in the North Carolina Annual Conference who could provide exemplary services in these positions,

Therefore, be it resolved that the N.C. Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church does request and urge the appointment of a minority person to the office of District Superintendent by the resident Bishop and the Cabinet no later than Annual Conference 1984, and that this policy be maintained; and that the Charter of the Council on Ministries of the N.C. Annual Conference of United Methodist Church be amended to read that : "A minority person(s) be appointed or employed on the support staff and that a minority person(s) be appointed to the professional staff no later than the Annual Conference of 1984 and that this policy be maintained."

A RESOLUTION BY THE NATIVE AMERICAN CHURCHES OF THE N.C. ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH JUNE 6, 1983

American the General Conference has mandated Native Ministries be given a high priority during the 1980-1984 Quadrennium; and, WHEREAS, the Native American Church is a vibrant and growinfg part of this pluralistic North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church: and.

WHEREAS, the Native American has been a part of North Carolina Methodism for more than one hundred years, but has never been represented in the District Superintendency; and,

WHEREAS, we do, now, have ordained Native American United Methodist ministers in or North Carolina Conference whom we support and strong confidence that they could and would supply effective pastoral and administrative leadship; and,

WHEREAS, the Native American churches have adoped resulutions petitioning the Resident Bishop of the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Cabinet to appoint the first Native American District Superintendent;

WHEREAS, because of the insistent initiative by Native American lay and clergy leadership, numerous sessions were held with the Resident Bishop of the North Carolina Annual Conference (and with the Cabinet and Cabinet members), but without satisfactory response, or a commitment to appoint a Native American District Superintendent; and,

WHEREAS, because the foregoing does reflect evidence that "love and justice" do not prevail to the extent to assure a Native American District

Superintendent:

THEREFORE, be it RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church does request, and urge the appointment of a Native American as District Superintenden by the Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area and the Cabinet no later than Annual Conference 1984.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held at the Methodist Building on May 25, 1983.

The financial statements for the calendar year 1982 were reviewed by Charles McAdams, Conference Treasurer. These statements included: The Trustees Fund, Methodist Building account, Staff Parsonages and Episcopal Residence accounts, all of which will appear in the 1983 JOURNAL. All of these accounts show a very favorable position.

The Trustees, through the Conference Treasurer-Business Administrator and the Staff Parsonage Committee, have endeavored to properly maintain the seven staff parsonages and the Episcopal Residence. The Treasurer-Businese Administrator manages and maintains the Methodist Building. The rental portion of this building is fully rented by The College Foundation, Inc.

The staff parsonage being vacated by The Reverend and Mrs. James McCallum is having to be completely furnished since the McCallums were using their own furniture. This parsonage is also being repainted inside and out.

The parsonage being vacated by The Reverend and Mrs. William Shermar is being made ready for the new occupants. It is being repainted on the outside and a very few pieces of furniture are having to be provided since the Shermans were using some of their own furniture.

All of the seven staff parsonages are debt free and the indebtedness on the Episcopal Residence has been reduced to $7,068.57.

With the assistance of the The Reverend Frank Grill the Board of Trustees isproceeding with the compliation of a list of Conference property owned by the Trustees.

The Conference Board of Trustees recommends that the Annual Conference approve the sale of the property of the abandoned Shady Grove United Methodist Church in the Durham District and that the proceeds be applied to the purchase of land for the relocation of the Aldersgate United Methodist Church in the Durnam District.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The Commission on Equitable Salaries has considered carefully the recommendations being offered to the 1983 Session of the North Carolina Conference. Both the reduction in the rate of inflation and the strained economic conditions of a number of communities within the Annual Conference suggest a moderate increase in the minimum salary for 1984. The Commission, therefore, proposes an increase for 1984 that reflects the present rate of increase in the cost of living for those ministers serving full time appointments.

Considerations reflected in the recommendation for a minimum salary for student pastors include all that has been reported to the Annual Conference before. The present 1983 salary structure provides a student pastor with 72% of the full time salary, a percentage relationship the Commission considers too great for the amount of time a student pastor should have available for service to the local church. A review of the student status position statement adopted by the 1974 Annual Conference (1974 Journal, page 122) is a reminder of the compromise struck by the Cabinet, the Boards of Ordained Ministry and Pensions, and the Commission on Equitable Salaries to provide support for churches served by student pastors.

The opportunity to serve a student pastorate is not considered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries as scholarship support. A student pastor serves an appointment in the same fashion as other part-time pastors with full responsibility for the spiritual and temporal affairs of the charge within the framework of the time a student has available to serve his/her congregation(s). Scholarship assistance come from Ministerial Education Funds ($ 1,025.00 this past academic year for students in the Duke Divinity School) and Duke Endowment grants for pastors of rural congregations who qualify for assistance (up to $1,800.00 in 1982-1983). Student pastorates represent 39% of those charges assisted in 1982-83.

The Commission recommends that the minimum salary for student pastors remain at $9,600.00 for 1984. This would be 69.5% of the full time minimum, and the Commission recommends that this relationship be allowed to move in future years to a relationship that does not exceed 65% of the full time minimum.

In the area of travel reimbursement the Commission recommends that every charge provide at least $ 1,800.00 when their pastor's travel expense as reflected in his/her income tax return reaches or exceeds that amount. Travel expense is an item of local church expense, and previous actions of the Annual Conference provide the goal that pastors should be reimbursed for this expense as an actual cost of serving the charge. No funding is provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries for travel expense.

The 1982 Session of the North Carolina Conference adopted a resolution asking the Commission on Equitable Salaries to consider making parsonage utilities also a matter of local church expense. After careful consideration, the Commission feels that the charge should not assume the responsibility of parsonage utilities, but that the present form of compensation should be continued. This allows the charge to set a total cash figure for their minister's income and the designation of an appropriate part of that income for utilities. We would encourage the ParsonageStandards Committee to study ways of assisting charges to make their parsonages more energy efficient.

- I. Recommended schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1984:
 - A. Salary Schedule

Ministers under full-time appointment
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary and Utilities $ 13,800.00
(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

9,600.00

- B. Travel Allowance
 Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of ministerial expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $1,800.00 for travel expense if their minister's income tax return indicates such a reimbursement is legitimate. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $1,800.00 travel allowance, but any larger travel allowance in excess of $1,800.00 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.
- C. Less Than Full Time Appointments Ministers of any status who are serving an appointment that is less than full time, except those who are classified as students, will receive support from equitable salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the charge, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Salaries.
- D. Pension Program
 Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's total income for salary and utilities (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources).

BRASWELL AMENDMENT (Passed)

I move that the Commission on Equitable Salaries consider giving the student ministers an increase in salary and utilities in January of 1985 equal to one half the percentage increase of the Equitable Salary Schedule for salary and utilities of full time ministers until such time that the salary and utilities of student ministers equals 65% of the salary and utilities of full time ministers and then from that time forward remain at this ratio.

II. Principals Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary funds, its pastor, and the District Superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the District Superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund on the first application from the charge. Newly established congregations will be given special consideration during the first five years of their existence. Other charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines.
- C. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, or the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the Cabinet.
- D. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station church, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. It is recommended that the remainder of the charge in such a division assume full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Salaries provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.

When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.

- E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) per cent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) per cent less in aid from Equitable Salary funds than granted the previous year. Newly established churches are expected to move toward full self-support during the first five years following their organization. The District Superintendents are to inform all charges receiving aid or making applications for assistance in the future of these requirements.
- F. Any Equitable Salary Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to a full time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon the recommendation of the District Superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
- G. No Equitable Salary Funds will be used for associate pastors in other than a larger parish arrangement of churches.
- H. Equitable Salary Funds are sent to charges show have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference Treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the charge account and used to pay the pastor his/her appropriate monthly salary. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.

JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those ters in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or onal disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their nament. The committee is given the responsibility to study the ems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing nal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to propriate agencies of the Conference for each minister seeking will be ave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1983 session of the Carolina Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request recessary forms for any minister to make application for Disability. In all cases the applications must be completed by the minister, physician, and the district superintendent before the request for willty Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint titee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for sion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference Session.

- 2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examinations when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the committee, and in such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.00.
- 3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each application for Disability Leave submitted by ministers of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the minister's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the minister's disability. The medical reports will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions for an interpretatin of the minister's disabling conditions. The General Board's medical consultant will determine if the minister is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection plan. From July 1981, to December, 1981, disability benefits were paid through new coverage under the Disability and Survivor Benefit Fund of the General Board of Pensions as adopted by the 1981 Session of the Annual Conference. Beginning on January 1, 1982, disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions were transferred to coverage under the new Comprehensive Protection Flan.
- 4. We recommend that ministers who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Emergency Relief Fund. The Joint Committee on Disability in reviewing the minister's application may determine that a short-term leave with benefits equal to (or less than) those provided by the Comprehensive Protection Plan is appropriate. This could include a monthly benefit based on 40% of the Denominational Average Salary and the cost of the minister's coverage under the Conference health and life insurance program. The contribution to the ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan for the minister would be made from the Pension Support Fund in the Board of Pensions annual budget.
- 5. We recommend that an interim monthly grant of $250.00 will be made for the first five months a minister is granted Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. This grant would be terminated during the five period if the minister began to receive Social Security benefits.
- 6. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each minister on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the minister's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the minister to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
- 7. We recommend that the expenses of travel, telephone, postage, and other materials for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.
- $. We recommend the following minister to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:

Crawford Bryant Hicks (Whiteville) Emergency Relief Fund
Robert Norman Knight (Raleigh) Board of Pensions support
Henry Robert Warren (Raleigh) Emergency Relief Fund
Christian White (Burlington) Emergency Relief Fund

9. We recommend the following ministers to be continued on Disability Leave for another year:

Paul Wesley Evans (AM) (Rocky Mount) Board of Pensions support Fletcher Woodrow Fraley(AM) (Mamers) Board of Pensions support Rembert Charles Hamilton, Jr. (Wilmington) Board of Pensions support Wallace Bradford Lewis (AM) (Kinston) Board of Pensions support Board of Pensions support Board of Pensions support (Kinston) Board of Pensions support (Goldsboro) Board of Pensions support (Lumberton) Board of Pensions support (Mebane) Board of Pensions support (Atlantic) Board of Pensions support (Creedmoor) Board of Pensions support (Aberdeen) Board of Pensions support Charles Graham Nickens Evander Parnell (AM) George William Ports, Jr. Edgar Fraser Seymour (AM) Luther Vernon Wesley (AM) John Everett Wood

10. We recommend that ministers and congregations in the communities in our disabled ministers reside seek to establish a supportive which relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled ministers be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

METHODIST MINISTERS SAVINGS AND CREDIT UNION REPORT

It was in the depression of the early thirties that I first heard and knew "misery loves company". It was years later before I realized why. The plight of the other sufferer is usually so much worse.

The recent turn of economic affairs has given new life to this old proverb. The closer home the misery is, the more we respond to it.

When other financial institutions were suffering loss and we were growing, there was a temptation to gloat, but this year we joined t suffering a decrease in assets--yet it was only $12,545.94. This disturbing, but when we learned that the credit union serving one of joined those t.he adjacent annual conferences dropped in assets by about $200,000.00, loss seemed less significant; but it helped hasten the day of a name change for our credit union.

On May 31, 1983, Methodist Ministers Credit Union closed its On June 1, it opened for business as METHODIST MINISTERS SAVINGS AND CREDIT JNION, giving new emphasis to an essential service that has been overlooked all too often. It is still a fact of life that no one can borrow until someone saves. The money you invest in our care continues to be our life

Our loss is understandable when we report that over $105,000.00 was withdrawn in one day in July 1982. This loss was caused chiefly by decision of two churches to use their funds that had been saved building purposes.

This loss demonstrated the strength of our Credit Union. Business On December 31, usual was the response. Your Credit Union was fluid. 1982, your Credit Union could have paid out over 1/3 of its assets without materially. There is another bright side to this experience. It brought a healthy shift in our Liability and Equity accounts--a growth of $47,264.63 in shares while sustaining a decrease of $31,305.89 in deposits that cost us

This shift has played a part in enabling your Credit Union to report an increase in net earnings of $5,117.27, while experiencing a decrease in assets

This growth in net earnings was experienced at the same time dividends on shares were increased from 5 1/2% to 6% per annum compounded quarterly. Interest on deposits decreased, reflecting the state of the present economy

Loans have been down some recently, but are increasing rapidly now. One hundred seventy-one loans have been made this year, ranging in size from $25.00 to $17,500.00. This is a significant increase from the 273 made in the whole year of 1981.

One hundred nine members enrolled this year--up 28 from last year.
The par value of shares is $25.00. On December 31, 1982, the book value was $25.25. There are 217 persons who have not increased their share account since the par value was increased from $5.00 to $25.00. If you are in this number, please come to the Credit Union table in the south foyer and bring your account up to a least $25.00. These accounts must be brought to par value or closed in 1983.

Loans in the amount of $17,203.00 were written off in 1982. this was caused by member turning to bankruptcy as an out from a bad debt burden. As of December 31, 1982, a total of 26 members had chosen bankruptcy--17 pastors, 8 spouses, 1 pastor's heir. The resulting loss was $32,742.92. The final loss has not been determined in nine cases. If these bankrupts die before age 70 or become totally and permanently disabled before age 60, our insurance company will pay off the loans plus six months of interest on the loan. Most of these could have been averted by using their Credit Union's counseling service instead of the court. It might not have resulted in the easiest way out, but it would have resulted in the best way out for all concerned, including the bankrupt.

Interest rates are changing again. This time they are down. Rates have been lowered twice in the past six months. Others will come soon.

Delinquency is still the scourge of our Credit Union, causing a loss of $8,000.00-$10,000.00 per year. You, the members, can ill afford this. This loss, along with the loss from bankruptcy, caused the skyrocketing of interest rates last year and continues to hold them unreasonably high.

Beginning July 1, 1983, penalties will be assessed on amounts in arrears as permitted by contract, law, and regulations. Your Board of Directors has decided this loss of $10,000.00 should be born in part by those directly responsible. We hope for a response that will prevent the collection of any penalty. We are ready to help you find a way to escape the penalty. Come by the Credit Union table while at conference, or call the office next week.

We are now required by regulation to carry in our assets column and item for "Loan Losses." This is established by setting aside from earnings an amount equal to 25% of all accounts 60-179 days delinquent, 50% of all accounts 180-364 days delinquent, and 100% of accounts 365 days or more delinquent. That account now has $23,553.34 in it. This could be used for much better purposes. Help us close this account! It must not be allowed to grow.

We invite all eligible persons and organizations to use the full

METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

This past year, our 28th, again reflects a favorable performance for ne Methodist Foundations, Inc. For the year ending December 31, 1982, net ividends paid to unit holders was $989,866. Total net assets at year end ad a market value of $11,258.838. Average return on assets for the year as 9$. Due to a very favorable securities market, the net gain on nvestments for the year was $1,158,280.

The Board of Pensions and the Ministries' Retirement Fund continues to old 87% of the units of the Foundation with a year end market value of 19,812,374. The actuarial performance of these assets continues to exceed he guidelines as set out by the General Board of Pensions

As directed by the Annual Conference last year, the Office of Planned iving was staffed and is now in full operation. The Foundation was most ortunate in obtaining Dr. John K. Berglan, formerly a member of the Duke ivinity School Faculty, to be the Executive Vice-President. As directed, his office will make an annual report to this conference each year. Exciting things are already happening in this area of Christian itewardship.

The Foundation operating policies and guidelines are continually reviewed, and accordingly, a change was made in our investment manager ffective April 1, 1983. The Trust Department of First Union National Bank low manages the investment portfolio (ex-clusive of mortgage loans) within

The unqualified audit by A.M. Pullen & Company, CPA's for the year anding December 31, 1982 is on file in the Conference Treasurer's Office for review by any member of this conference.

There is reason to believe that the current year will reflect continued progress in the overall performance of Methodist Foundation, Inc. In particular, the recently established Office of Planned Giving, adds an expanded and much needed dimension to the effectiveness of your Foundation.

1983 REPORT THE COMMITTEE ON COURTESY AND RESOLUTIONS

The 158th session of North Carolina Methodists gave tangible evidence that we are prepared to celebrate Methodism as we approach our 200th Anniversary.

In spite of the interruptions and fragmentation which always occurs in the year of elections for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates, we have found reasons to celebrate our Methodist heritage, as well as our current accomplishments.

We began with the ordination of 23 deacons and 21 elders, services which occurred in worshipful Sunday services. We shall conclude in traditional Wesleyan order with the reading of the appointments by Bishop William R. Cannon, presiding Bishop.

The conference sessions were enriched and reminded of our purposes for assembly by our distinguished Conference preachers. Each of the preachers of the week had associations with North Carolina, and each rewarded their audience with their own particular form of benediction.

Bishop Edwin C. Boulton served his first pastoral appointment at West End UMC in the Fayetteville District, and endeared himself for the stirring sermon he delivered to the class for ordination as deacons, and the biographical instructions he gave to the class of elders.

Bishop Carl J. Sanders reminded us he was born in Star, North Carolina, and he touched the congregation each time he spoke with exceptional and challenging pulpit masterpieces. Bishop L. Scott Allen, our neighbor serving the Charlotte Area, preached with boldness and conviction as always. Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, former resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, renewed associations and memories of his gifts as a preacher and pastor. His message was unusually well received.

of the Raleigh Area, renewed associations and memories of his gifts as a preacher and pastor. His message was unusually well received.

Dean Dennis Campbell, the Dean of our own Duke Divinity School, challenged and edified each member of the conference as well as the Diaconal ministers he addressed, by insisting that the objective reality of Christ must become subjectively experienced by each one of us. We have been blessed by their ministry among us.

The report to the conference from the District Superintendents, delivered by Rev. Barney Davidson of Burlington, revealed many churches, parsonages, and other buildings completed and dedicated during this year. Of even greater significance, we learned that the conference grew and prospered in the area of evangelism showing a net gain of 1,157 members. Mission giving increased significantly, and the 1982 budget was overpaid. In making the report, he said, "We are increasingly conscious that all churches are important in the eyes of God."

Eleven ministers retired at this session, and they were given a loving farewell to their years of effective service, though several will continue to share in ministry. Rev. C. Wade Goldston paid tribute to the 14 conference ministerial members and the 10 minister's spouses who have died during this conference year. Goldston reminded us of their continuing ministry as he said, "They help us to believe in the communion of saints in which we believe." He continued, "And in believing in the communion of saints, we stand in very good company through years of Church History from the Epistle to The Hebrews to Dr. Leslie Weatherhead."

Exciting plans were announced for the construction of Cypress Glen Retirement Village in Greenville; of Church construction and pastoral support given by Duke Endowment; of Pension Funding growth from $82.00 per service year to double that figure, $1.64 in six short years; and a gift to the Pension Fund of $10,542. from Cokesbury delivered by Ms. Sue Henry, manager of the Raleigh Store.

The Conference confronted a difficult decision on support for our North Carolina Christian Advocate. Paying tribute to Editor Al Simonton and our award winning Advocate, we voted to support it with additional

A special feature of the Board of the Laity was the recognition of Mrs. Mary Whanger of Duke Memorial UMC, Durham, as Lay Person of the Year. The Conference Missionary Secret presented two major awards, the Rural Church of the Year to Shocco UMC in Warren County of the Raleigh District and the Urban Church of the Year to Jonesboro UMC in Sanford District. Both were commended for creative and imaginative ministries and mission support. He also reported rapid growth in giving through the six lanes of the Advance Giving programs for missions.

Our colleges were applauded with special recognition given to them. Dr. Isaac Miller, president of Bennett College was commended as was Dean Dennis Campbell of Duke University School. The presidents of the three colleges most closely related to our Conference were recognized, Dr. Allen Norris of Louisburg, Dr. Richard Pearce of Methodist College and Dr. Bruce Petteway of N.C. Wesleyan College. Our affection for our colleges was affirmed as we approved increases in their support approximating $330,000. This represents the largest item of increase in the budget which now sets a target of $6 million.

Our Conference Task Force on Hunger and Human Need reported making grants of $50,000 in 1982 allocations of $75,000 in 1983 within the conference bounds, putting us in the front rank of Conferences supporting such ministries.

For the first time the Board of Evangelism presented awards for excellence in Church Growth by profession of faith, by net increase in membership, and by the most effective ratio of growth. Thirty one churches were presented awards, and the Raleigh and New Bern Districts were recognized for greatest growth and effectiveness in evangelism. awards challenge each church to "press toward the mark of the high calling of Jesus" in witness and evangelism.

A study was approved to consider use of land from the Methodist Home for Children for conference purposes such as a retirement home and/or conference retreat center. The reports of the Board of Church and Society evoked greates interest, discussion and debate, but continue to serve as "the conscience of the Conference" on many matters.

Our concern for openness and fairness created intense feeling and lengthy discussion, but the conference came together in a resolution which created a position among our ethnic minority leadership in liason with the Resident Bishop and the Cabinet, which will continue to work for growth in these areas in appointments and in staffing.

As we pay tribute to those responsible for a successful at conference session, we wish to begin and end with Dr. Richard Pearce, host as President of Methodist College. We know many deserve recognition and we are grateful to his associates and staff who make every effort to assure our comfort and convenience. We conclude by expressing our affection and best wishes to Dr. Pearce as he prepares to leave Methodist College after 10 years as its second President. We with him well in all new endeavors and invite him to meet with us as often as he may.

We express sincere appreciation to Dr. Jack Hunter and all the ministers and lay persons from the Rocky Mount District who worked long and hard to be our co-hosts this year. Special words of thanks are due to Reverend Bruce Taylor who served as head usher.

In addition to all the working press who have covered our conference well, special recognition should be given to Milton Gilbert who served as Conference Photographer as a donated labor of love. In an election year, we would be remiss if we did not express appreciation to our lay and clergy tellers who missed most of the conference action and the rich fellowship we share as they served us so well. Special recognition is due to Chief Lay Teller Matthew E. Perry and to Chief Clergy Teller Carson O. Wiggins.

Among those unnoticed too frequently, we wish to pay tribute to Rev. Edward Barber and his members at St. Andrews UMC. For several years they have served as our food service personnel, preparing and serving our meals, making certain that our food needs are met in the kitchen, the service line, and at the salad and beverage counter. They are really "unsung but loving servants."

Speaking of "unsung", others deserving words of commendation are secretaries and typists backstage who provide that "myriad of paper without which a conference could not operate" as Bishop Robert Blackburn reminded us. They work long hours and they seldom applauded for their labors. Without them, even our effective Conference Secretary and his associates could not accomplish the detailed work of the Conference. A tip of the hat to our faithful Ted Wilson and his associates who keep us on schedule with the proper documents at the appropriate time.

We wish to conclude with words of appreciation for Bishop William R. Cannon. We are first impressed by his loving, "southern courtesy", and then impressed by his tireless commitment to often unappreciated duties and details. He receives every criticism for a real or imagined error, but seldom a word of thanks for escorting us through the toughest task of each quadrennium...an election year conference. "Thank you and we love you, Bishop Cannon."

Following the reading of the appointments, let us go to our appointed tasks in the spirit of our Youth Chorus: "We are One in the Spirit, we are One in the Lord." Amen.

How College Trustees are Selected: The Nominating Committee of each Board of Trustees selects a list of nominees to fill vacancies and submits these along with a biographical statement to the Full Board at its fall meeting; the individual Boards of Trustees approve these and they submitted to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for consideration at its spring meeting. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has biographical information supplied to it by each institution of higher education. The Board of Higher Education approves the new nominations at its spring meeting, and then presents them to the North Carolina Conference for approval at its June meeting.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT

ORDINATION SERVICE FOR DEACONS AND ELDERS: The ordination service always provides one of the high moments of any Annual Conference Session, for symbolizes the continuity of the ordained clergy from one generation to The Sunday afternoon and evening services that mark the beginning another. of the 1983 Annual Conference were held in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus. The Board of Ordained Ministry presented a total of twenty-four men and women to be ordained as Deacons and twenty-one to be orgained as Elders. At the Executive Session of the Annual Conference, twenty-three persons were elected to Probationary Membership, one to Associate Membership, and twenty-one to Full Connection.

The recommendation of these forty-five persons represents a total seven full days of interview periods as well as six other related meetings of the Board ouring the year. To facilitate its work the Board divides into three committees for the interviewing period, dealing with the candidate's call and its relation to his/her preparation for ministry, candidate's ability to preach and conduct public worship, and candidate's knowledge of the historic doctrines of our faith and his/her ability to communicate them to a congregation. Assisting those preparing to retire or to move into a ministerial status other than that of the active pastorate is also a major responsibility of one of the committees of the Board.

The Board and District Committees on the Ordained Ministry provide guidance and support for persons seeking to become ordained ministers. Approximately one hundred persons, male and female, and representative of all three racial groups within our Conference, are now in the various stages of preparation for Conference membership and ordination in the years to come.

EVALUATION OF THE PASTORAL MINISTRY: One of the major efforts carried out by the Board of Ordained Ministry during the past year has been the institution of a process for the evaluation of pastoral ministry. A joint committee of members of the Board and the Cabinet spent nearly eighteen months in consultations, training sessions, and work sessions to draft the set of questionaires for use by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, pastors, and District Superintendents. A basic overview of the evaluation process was introduced in the January Workshops in 1982, further consultations were conducted with the ministers and laity during March and April following the introduction of sample questionaires, and the refined product was distributed for use by committees, pastors, and superintendents in the Fall of 1982. Evaluation conferences were held by the District Superintendents with their pastors during the early part of 1983 to determine strengths and needs in each pastor's life and ministry. Plans for continuing education and other opportunities for growth and development within the minister's particular area of service were discussed and established. A report of progress toward the satisfaction of that plan is to be given to the Charge Conference in the Fall of 1983.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Our Conference members are participating in a wide variety of continuation education events to enhance and strengthen their talents and capabilities. In addition to numerous opportunities provided by the Duke Divinity School on campus and in the districts, conference members have also been involved with programs at Asbury Theological members have also been involved with programs at Asbury Theological Seminary, the Babcock Center (Wake Forest University), Kirkridge Retreat Center, Intentional Growth Center (Lake Junaluska), Louisburg College, Perkins School of Theology, School for Practical Christianity, Vanderbilt University Divinity School, and others. While events that are funded by the Duke Endowment must be related to the Duke Divinity School those funded by the Continuing Education Committee, the minister, or the minister's charge are not thus restricted.

Conference members may apply for maximum one-week grants of $150.00, or $300.00 for a two-week event. Each charge is requested to provide at least $200.00 annually for their pastor's continuing education, available through voucher for events attended, or allowed to accumulate, if desired by the pastor, over several years toward a possible longer and more

In order to establish a uniform and equitable standard of measure for evaluating an approved Continuing Education Unit (CEU), the Committee on Continuing Education offers the following resolution:

We recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference accept evidence of the fulfillment of the continuing education obligation of its ministers those Continuing Education Units which have been earned for professionally related courses and awarded only by institutions or other agencies which fulfill one of the following requirements:

1. Accreditation by a regional or professional educational accrediting agency.

2. Authorization to use the "certification mark" of the Council on the Continuing Education Unit.*

*The Council on the Continuing Education Unit is an educational organization established by the National Task Force on the Continuing Education Unit which was developed by the National University Extension Association. In 1979 it established a uniform definition of a Continuing Education Unit as: ten contact hours of participation in an organized continued education experience under responsible sponsorship, capable direction, and qualified instruction. The Certification Mark of the Council on the Continuing Education Unit is reserved for use only by organizations holding Institutional Membership in the Council. Their address is 13000 Ola Columbia Pike, Silver Spring, Maryland 20904.

The Ministerial Education Fund MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND ASSISTANCE: remains the major source of support for theological education in The United Methodist Church for the 1981-1984 quadrennium. When the local church remits its Ministerial Education Fund contribution to the Conference Treasurer, it is divided two ways. The larger portion (75%) is sent on to the Board of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville to be divided among the United Methodist seminaries for their operating expenses and for scholarship help to minority and special students. The remaining 25% portion is retained by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry may use its funds to provide scholarship assistance for ministerial education, for continuing education, or for recruitment. However, the amount of funds available during the past few years and the number of students seeking to prepare for ordained ministry have made necessary the use of almost all of the funds for scholarships for ministerial candidates.

Ministerial Education Fund raised in 1981 (91% Apportionment) $ 210,745.75 Portion retained by Board of Ordained Ministry(25% of total) 52,686.43

Grants to students eligible for full scholarships were based on 35% of the actual educational cost (tuition and fees and an annual $300.00 book allowance).

For students at Duke Divinity School this was $1,330.00 for full-time (four courses) students and $1,025.00 for student pastors (three courses) annually. At Southeastern this was $420.00 for full-time students and $350.00 for less than full time students annually.

The need to continue our support of the Ministerial Education Fund at the present level, and to increase where possible, is borne out by these statistics of our present group of students preparing for the ordained ministry and the need to move further into continuing education opportunities for the ministers already in the field.

PASTORAL CARE: The committee on Pastoral Care holds as a basic responsibility the opportunity to provide support for the parsonage family through events and persons (or agencies) that can enrich good family life or bring help to those who may be in turmoil. District and Conference Marriage Enrichment Seminars have provided the enrichment for a number of couples, and six agencies and three individual counselors stand ready to assist in times of trouble.

The Committee provides the following recommendations:

- That each District should give more attention to encourage couples to attend Marriage Enrichment events.
- That financial planning seminars be provided by the District Council on Ministries.
- 3. That Pre-retirement Seminars be held in each District.
- 4. That Stress Workshops be held on the Conference or District level.
- That a uniform policy be adopted dealing with the spouse and family of an active minister who dies.

The Committee encourages the formation of cluster groups of families within a District for periodic fellowship. The formation of support groups for spouses of clergy following Potpourri this year is also seen as a positive opportunity for greater fellowship among this important group within the Conference.

A Task Force to inquire into the matter of clergy bankruptoies was formed by the Board of Ordained Ministry during this year, and its report is included here because of its implications for our family life.

We discovered that 26 members of the Methodist Ministers Credit Union (clergy and members of clergy families) have declared bankruptcy in 1982, we also found that other persons known to committee members were in financial difficulties such as to cause embarrassment to and cast an unfavorable reflection upon the ordained ministry of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Since members of the Conference covenant with each other in response to the historic questions for admission into full connection and associate membership to obey the General Rules of the Church which include taking seriously financial obligations, the Board of Ordained Ministry expresses its concern in this matter and urge our ministers to seek financial counseling when needed. We suggest that the Committee on Pastoral Care be asked to continue to provide this service to our ministers.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION: During the past two years a program of testing and evaluation has been carried out by the Board of Ordained Ministry at the entrance level to Associate and Probationary Membership. This two-day period provides for a wide variety of tests to be administered by the Career and Personal Counseling Service on the campus of Saint Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg. The program is administered and staffed by several clergypersons of United Methodist and Presbyterian relationships.

During the coming year those who have been tested and will be eligible for Full Connection and Elder's Orders will have a shorter (one day) testing period. It has been the design of the program to help the ministerial candidate to effectively assess his/her gifts and graces and to compare the capacities needed for ministry with those discovered in one's self. To assist the candidate to deal constructively with those areas that are or could become problem areas that would hinder effective ministry is

Although the tests themselves are not used as an automatic measure of approval or a bar to further progress, they have become a strong check on the affirmations or concerns already developed by the Board in its interview process.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS SCHOOL: Each year during the Duke Convocation and Pastors School a number of opportunities are presented for the further growth and development of the ministerial alumni of Duke and other seminaries, particularly those from the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences. Planning for these activities is done by a Board of Managers, composed of an equal number of ministers from each conference. The following nominations are presented for membership on the Board of Managers from the North Carolina Conference:

MISSELLANEOUS: The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the Annual Conference and ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the North Carolina Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in the Book of Discipline.

For Full Time Local Pastors, the Board recommended that ministers having completed the basic Five Year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the Summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level would increase the competency of our Full Time Local Pastors (1980).

For Associate Membership, the Board recommended that the academic requirement be raised to the four-year baccalaureate degree (1974).

For Full Connection, the Board recommended that only those persons who had completed the M. Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary be elected in Full Membership (1975). Within the M. Div. degree, the Board recommended that certain specific courses be included to provide the Board has the ministerial candidate with competence in preaching and worship as well as a knowledge of our United Methodist history doctrine, and polity. following specific guidelines were recommended:

Each student must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for Full Connection and Elder's Orders (1979):

- 1. A Course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
- 2. A course in public worship that includes the theory and practice of planning and leading public worship.

The course requirements contained in Par. 424.3c of the 1980 Book of Discipline be fulfilled by completing these three separate and distinct courses:

a. United Methodist Polity.

- b. United Methodist Theology and Doctrine.
- c. A History of Methodism.
